INTRODUCTION.

THE following volume is a reprint, verbatim et literatim, of the First English Liturgy of the National Church. There are several editions in the British Museum Library, with slight verbal variations. It must be remembered that the process of printing was a very different one from our present process, with our steam appliances, to say nothing of the comparative paucity of type in the days of our ancestors. The printing off of each sheet was a slow process, and instead of putting the whole into a stereotype form once for all, and striking off an infinite number, several editions were printed simultaneously, some by Whitchurch, some by Grafton, and there were a few others. The present is from one of the three or four editions printed by Grafton.

The basis of our Liturgy is to be found in those of the ancient Churches. There were five groups of these: four Eastern (Jerusalem, Alexandrian, Far-Eastern, and Ephesian); and one Western, the Roman. The fourth of these, the Ephesian, became partially adopted in the west, viz., in the Gallican Liturgy. It would be impossible to tell here the variations in these several formularies—variations which emphasize all the more strongly the essential unity, and prove that they all sprang from one authoritative original, and were altered according to the needs or circumstances of individual Churches as the Gospel spread itself over the earth. The best accounts of them are in Mr Hammond's Handbook (Clarendon Press), and in Dr Littledale's admirable translations.

On the evangelisation of England by Augustine, at the end of the sixth century, he used all his endeavours to establish the Roman Liturgy. But the ancient British Church in the West clung to their own, based on the Gallican, and consequently there was never absolute uniformity. As years went on the Bishops of the different Dioceses assumed the right of adopting their own “Uses,” and the monastic houses also had theirs. MS. copies of most of these exist in cathedral and other libraries.

The two principal service books of the mediæval Church were the Breviary and the Missal. The one is the basis of our Daily Service, the other of the Liturgy proper, the Communion Service. The Occasional Offices were placed in the Pontifical.

The beginnings of the English Liturgy date back for a long period before the Reformation, and are found in the Prymers—manuals of devotion and instruction, containing the Creed, Lord’s Prayer, and Ten Commandments, as well as some other prayers and psalms. In the reign of Henry VIII. new editions of the Prymers were put forth, with some omissions, indicating divergence from Roman doctrine, and also additions, intended to satisfy the craving for fuller instruction of the people. It is hoped to include the principal of these works in a subsequent volume of the present series. But the great religious feature of this period was the English version of the Scriptures. The reaction against the reformed doctrines which marked the latter part of the reign, was strong, and it was not until the accession of Edward VI. that the English Liturgy again came well to the front. Henry died January 28, 1547. Almost immediately a Committee of Bishops and Divines was engaged in the compilation of a Liturgy in the vulgar tongue, based upon the ancient books. Simultaneously with this were issued two sets of “Injunctions.” The first (1) forbade pilgrimages to religious shrines, because health and grace are to be sought for from God only ; (2) commanded the clergy to preach at least one sermon each quarter against superstitions ; (3) forbade also lights to be burned before any image or picture, “ but only two lights upon the high altar before the Sacrament, for the signification that Christ is the very true light of the world,” and therefore to be suffered to remain still ; (4) commanded that every holy day when there was no sermon, the clergy should immediately after the Gospel recite to their parishioners in the pulpit the Pater-noster, Creed, and Ten Commandments in English, to the end that the people might learn the same by heart ; (5) that the English Bible should be set up in every church, and two chapters be read from it each day, from the New Testament at Mattins, and from the Old at Evensong ; (6) that at Mass the Epistle and Gospel should be read in English and not in Latin ; (7) that before High Mass the priests and choir should kneel in the church and sing or say the Litany in English. The second Injunctions ordered that Mattins should be said each day at 6 A.M., from Lady Day to October 1, and during the rest of the year at 7 ; that only one Mass should be said a day, namely, at 9 A.M. ; that Evensong and Compline should be sung at 3, and 2, or 2.30, at the respective portions of the year above named.

Whilst the Committee on the Liturgy were pursuing their labours, a short office in English was prepared, which is now so rare as to be hardly attainable. But individual congregations here and there procured for themselves translations of the whole Mass into English, and a few of these are in existence. The late eminent librarian of Cambridge University, Mr Bradshaw, mentioned some of these to Dr Edwin Fresh-field, and was at a loss to account for them. The latter referred him to the account books of St Michael's, Cornhill, where, in 1547, there is an item of "ten shillings paid to the master of Paule's School for writing the Mass in English." They would not wait for the authorised Liturgy, but anticipated it thus, and had the Mass according to the Sarum use in English for themselves, whilst they also sold the vestments and destroyed the images in their church, and had the walls "painted with Scriptures."

The Commissioners, having finished their labours, submitted the book to Convocation. The official records of the proceedings are lost, but a few rough notes are in existence. Thus, on the agenda for November 22, 1547, the examination of the new Divine Service is down. It was then laid before Parliament, and the result was the Act of Uniformity of January 1549. This Act ordained that the book before us should come into use on and after "the Feast of Pentecost next coming" (June 9, 1549). Such is an outline of the history of this most important book. How it differs from the present Liturgy, and what are its merits or demerits, the reader must judge for himself. It is intended in subsequent volumes to show the successive changes which have brought our Liturgy to its present shape.

THE PREFACE.

THERE was never any thing by the wit of man so well devised, or so surely established, which (in continuāce of time) hath not been corrupted : as (emong other thinges) it may plainly appere by the common prayers in the Churche, comonlye called diuine seruice : the firste originall and grounde whereof, if a manne woulde searche out by the auncient fathers, he shall finde that the same was not ordeyned, but of a good purpose, and for a great aduaancement of godlines : For they so ordred the matter, that all the whole Bible (or the greatest parte thereof) should be read ouer once in the yeare, intyndyng thereby, that the Cleargie, and specially suche as were Ministers of the congregacion, should (by often readyng and meditacion of Gods worde) be stirred up to godlines themselves, and be more able also to exhorte other by wholsome doctrine, and to confute them that were aduersaries to the trueth. And further, that the people (by daily hearyng of holy scripture read in the Churche) should continuallye profite more and more in the knowledge of God, and bee the more inflamed with the loue of his true religion. But these many yeares passed this Godly and decent ordre of the auncient fathers, hath bee so altered, broken, and neglected, by planting in uncertain stories, Legēdes, Respondes, Verses, vaine repetitions, Commemoracions, and Synodalles, that commonly when any boke of the Bible was begon : before three or fourre Chapiters were read out, all the rest were unread. And in this sorte the boke of Esaie was begon in Aduent, and the booke of Genesis in Septuagesima : but they were onely begon, and never read thorow. After a like sorte wer other bokes of holy scripture used. And moreouer, whereas s. Paule would haue suche language spoken to the people in the churche, as they myghte understande and haue profite by hearyng the same ; the seruice in this Churche of England (these many yeares) hath been read in Latin to the people, whiche they understoode not ; so that they haue heard with theyr eares onely ; and their hertes, spirite, and minde, haue not been edified thereby. And furthermore, notwithstandingyng that the auncient fathers had deuided the psalmes into seuen porcions, wherof euery one was called a nocturne, now of late tyme a fewe of them haue been dailye sayed (and ofte repeated) and the rest utterly omitted. Moreouer the nōbre and hardnes of the rules called the pie, and the manifolde chaunginges of the seruice, was the cause, y^e to turne the boke onlye, was so hard and intricate a matter, that many times, there was more busines to fynd out what should be read, then to read it when it was founde out.

These inconueniences therfore considered: here is set furth suche an ordre, whereby the same shalbe redressed: And for a readines in this matter, here is drawnen out a Kalendar for that purpose, whiche is plaine and easy to be understood, wherin (so muche as maie be) the readyng of holy scripture is so set furthe, that all thynges shall bee doen in ordre, without breakyng one piece therof from another. For this cause be cut of Anthemes, Respondes, Inuitatories, and suche like thynges, as did breake the continual course of the readyng of the scripture. Yet because there is no remedy, but that of necessitie there must be some rules: therfore certaine rules are here set furth, whiche as they be fewe in nōbre; so they be plain and easy to be understood. So y^t here you haue an ordre for praier (as touchyng the readyng of holy scripture) muche agreeable to the mynde and purpose of the olde fathers, and a greate deale more profitable and commodious, than that whiche of late was used. It is more profitable, because here are left out many thynges, whereof some be untrue, some uncertein, some vain and superstitious: and is ordeyned nothyng to be read, but the very pure worde of God, the holy scriptures, or that whiche is evidently grounded upon the same; and that in suche a language and ordre, as is moste easy and plain for the understandyng, bothe of the readers and hearers. It is also more cōmodious, bothe for the shortnes thereof, and for the plaines of the ordre, and for that the rules be fewe and easy. Furthermore by this ordre, the curates shal nede none other bookees for their publique seruice, but this boke and the Bible: by the meanes wherof, the people shall not be at so great charge for bookees, as in tym past they haue been.

And where heretofore, there hath been great diuersitie in saying and synging in churches within this realme: some folowynge Salsbury use, some Herford use, some the use of Bangor, some of Yorke, and some of Lincolne: Now from hēcefurth, all the whole realme shall haue but one use. And if any would iudge this waye more painfull, because that all thynges must be read upō the boke, whereas before, by the reason of so often repeticion, they could saye many thinges by heart: if those men will waye their labor, with the profite in knowlege, whiche dayely they shal obtein by readyng upon the boke, they will not refuse the payn, in consideracion of the greate profite that shall ensue therof.

And forsomuche as nothyng can, almoste, be so plainly set furth, but doubtes maie rise in the use and practisynge of the same: to appease all suche diuersitie (if any arise), and for the resolucion of all doubtes, concernyng the maner how to understande, do, and execute the thynges conteyngned in this booke: the parties that so doubt, or diuersly take any thyng, shall alwaye resorte to the Bishop of the Diocese, who by his discrecion shall take ordre for the quietyng and appeasyng of the same: so that the same ordre be not contrary to any thyng conteigned in this boke.

¶ Though it be appointed in the afore written preface, that al thinges shalbe read and sōg in the churche, in the Englishe tongue, to thende yt the congregacion maie be therby edified: yet it is not meant, but when men saye Matins and Euensong priuatelye, they maye saie the same in any language that they themselues do understande. Neither that anye man shalbe bound to the saying of them, but suche as from tyme to tyme, in Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches, Parishe Churches, and Chapelles to the same annexed, shall serue the congregacion.

THE TABLE AND

KALENDER, EXPRESSING THE ORDRE OF THE PSALMES AND LESSONS, TO BEE SAYED AT MATYNs AND EUENSONG, THROUGHOUT THE YERE, EXCEPTE CERTAYNE PROPER FEASTES, AS THE RULES
FOLOWYNG MORE PLAYNLYE DECLARE.

THE ORDRE HOW THE PSALTER IS APPOYNTED TO BEE REDDE.

THE Psalter shalbe red through once euery Moneth, and because that some Moneths, be longer then some other be ; it is thought good, to make the even by this meanes.

To euery Moneth, as concernyng this purpose, shall be appointed iust xxx dayes.

And because January and Marche hath one daye, aboue the s1 yd noumbre, and February, whiche is placed betwene them bothe, hath onely xxviii daies, February shall borowe of either of the Moneths of January and Marche one daie, and so the Psalter which shalbe red in February, muste bee begon the last daie of January, and ended the first daie of Marche.

And whereas Maie, July, August, October and December, haue xxx1 dayes apeece, it is ordered that the same Psalmes shall be redd the laste daye of the saied Monethes, whiche were red the daie before : so that the Psalter maye bee begon agayne the firste daye of the nexte Moneths ensuyng.

Now to knowe what Psalmes shalbe red euery daye, loke in the Kalendar the nombre that is appoyned for the Psalmes, and then finde the same nombre in this Table, and upon that nombre shall you se, what Psalmes shalbe sayd at Matyns, and Euensong.

And where the Cxix. Psalme is deuided into xxii porcions, and is ouer long to be red at one tyme : it is so ordered, that at one tyme shall not be red aboue iiiii. or v. of the saied porcions, as you shall perceiue to be noted in this Table.

And here is also to bee noted, that in this Table, and in all other partes of ye seruice, where any Psalmes are appointed, the nombre is expressed after the greate English Bible, whiche from the ix. Psalme unto the Cxlviii. Psalme (folowing the diuision of the Ebrues) doth vary in nombres from the comō Latyn translacion.

THE ORDRE

HOWE THE RESTE OF HOLY SCRIPTURE (BESIDE THE PSALTER) IS APPOYNTE TO BEE REDDE.

The olde
Testamēt.

THE olde Testament is appoynted for the first Lessons, at Matins and Euensong, and shal bee redde through euery yere once, except certain bokes and Chapiters, whiche bee least edifying, and might best be spared, and therfore are left unred.

The newe
Testamēt.

The newe Testament is appoynted for the second Lessons, at Matins and Euensong, and shalbe red ouer orderly euery yere thrise, beside the Epistles and Gospelles: except the Apocalips, out of the whiche there be onely certain Lessons appoynted upon diuerse proper feastes.

Lessons.

And to knowe what Lessons shall bee red euery daye: finde the daye of the Moneth in the Kalendar folowyng: and there ye shal perceiue the bookes and Chapiters, that shalbe red for the Lessons, bothe at Matins and Euensong.

Proper Psalms.

And here is to be noted, that whensoeuer there bee any proper Psalmes or Lessōs appoynited for any feast, moueable or unmoueable; then the Psalmes and Lessons appoynited in the Kalendar shalbe omitted for that tyme.

Ye muste note also, that the Collect, Epistle, and Gospell, appoynted for the Sundae, shall serue all the weeke after, except there fall some feast that hath his propre.

The Leape-Yeare.

This is also to bee noted, concernyng the leape yeres, that the xxv. daye of February, whiche in leape yeres is counted for twoo dayes, shal in those twoo dayes alter neither Psalme nor Lesson: but the same Psalmes and Lessons, whiche be sayed the first daye shall serue also for the seconde daye.

Also, wheresoeuer the beginnyng of any Lesson, Epistle, or Gospell is not expressed, there ye must begin at the beginnyng of the Chapiter.

AN ORDRE

FOR MATTYN'S DAYLY THROUGH THE YERE.

The Priest beyng in the quier, shall begynne with a loude voyce the Lordes prayer, called the Pater noster.

OURE father, whiche arte in heauen, hallowed be thy name. Thy kyngdom come. Thy wyll be done in earth as it is in heauen. Geue us this daye oure dayly bread. And forgeue us oure trespasses, as we forgeue them that trespassse agaynst us. And leade us not into temptacion. But deliuer us from euell. Amen:

Then lykewyse he shall saye,

O Lorde, open thou my lippes.

Aunswere. And my mouthe shall shewe forth thy prayse.

Priest. O God, make sped to saue me.

Aunswere. O Lorde make haste to helpe me.

Priest. Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, and to the holye ghost. As it was in the begynning, is now, and euer shalbe, world without ende. Amen.

Prayse ye the Lorde.

And from Easter to Trinitie Sondaye,

Alleluya.

Then shalbe saied or song without any Inuitatori this Psalme, Venite exultemus, &c. in Englishe, foloweth:

O COME lette us syng unto the Lorde : lette us hartely reioyce Psal. xcv. in the strengthe of oure salvacion.

Let us come before his presence with thankesgeuing : and shewe ourselfe glad in hym with Psalmes.

For the Lord is a great God : and a great kyng aboue all goddes.

In his hande are all the corners of the yearth : and the strength of the hylles is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it : and, his handes prepared the drye lande.

O come, let us worship and fall downe : and kneele before the Lorde oure maker.

For he is (the Lord) oure God : and we are the people of his pasture, and the shepe of his handes.

To daye, yf ye wyll heare his voyce, harden not your hertes: as in the prouocation, and as in the daie of temptation in the wildernes.

When your fathers tempted me: proued me, and sawe my workes.

Fourtye yeares long was I greued with this generacion, and sayed: it is a people that do erre in their hertes: for they haue not knownen my wayes.

Unto whom I sware in my wrath: that they shoulde not entre into my rest.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne: and to the holy ghost. As it was in the beginnyng, is nowe, and euer shalbe: worlde without end. Amen.

The shal folow certayne Psalmes in ordre as they been appointed in a table made for ye purpose, except there be propre Psalmes appointed for that day. And at the ende of every Psalme throughout the yeare, and lykewyse in the ende of Benedictus, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc Dimittis, shalbe repeated.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne, &c.

Then shalbe read ii. lessons distinctly with a loude voice, that the people maye heare. The fyrst of the olde testament, the second of the newe. Like as they be appoynted by the Kalender, excepte there be propre lessons assigned for that daye: The ministre that readeth the lesson, standing and turning hym so as he maye beste be hearde of all suche as be present. And before every lesson, the minister shall saye thus.

The fyrste, seconde, iii. or iv. Chapter of Genesis, or Exodus, Matthewe, Marke, or other lyke as is appoynted in the Kalender. And in the ende of every Chapter, he shall saye.

¶ Here endeth suche a Chapter of suche a booke.

And (to thende the people may the better heare) in such places where they doe syng, there shall the lessons be songe in a playne tune after the maner of distincke readyng: and lykewyse the Epistle and Gospell.

After the fyrste lesson shall folowe Te Deum laudamus in Englishe, dayly throughout the yeare, excepte in Lente, all the which tyme in the place of Te Deum shalbe used Benedicite omnia Opera Domini Domino, in Englyshe as foloweth:

Te Deum Laudamus.

We praise the, O God, we knowlage thee to be the Lorde. All the earth doeth wurship thee, the father euerlastyng.

To thee al Angels cry aloud, the heauens and all the powers therin.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin continually doe crye. Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God of Sabaoth.

Heauen and earth are replenished with the maiestie of thy glory. The gloriouse companye of the Apostles, praise thee.

The goodly felowshyp of the Prophetes, praise thee.
 The noble armie of Martyrs, praise thee.
 The holy churche throughout all the worlde doeth knowlage thee:

The father of an infinite maiestie.
 Thy honourable, true, and onely sonne.
 The holy gost also beeyng the comfoter.
 Thou art the kyng of glory, O Christe.
 Thou art the euerlastyng sonne of the father.
 Whan thou tookest upon thee to delyuer manne, thou dyddest not abhorre the virgins wombe.

Whan thou haddest ouercomed the sharpenesse of death, thou diddest open the kyngdome of heauen to all beleuers.

Thou sittest on the ryght hande of God, in the glory of the father.

We beleue that thou shalt come to be our iudge.

We therfore praye thee, helpe thy seruauntes, whom thou hast redemed with thy precious bloud.

Make them to be noumbred with thy sainctes; in glory euerlast-yng.

O Lorde, sauе thy people : and blesse thyne heritage.

Gouerne them, and lift them up for euer.

Day by day we magnifie thee.

And we wurship thy name euer world without ende.

Vouchsafe, O Lorde, to kepe us this daye without synne.

O Lorde, haue mercy upon us : haue mercy upon us.

O Lorde, let thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in thee.

O Lorde, in thee haue I trusted : let me neuer be confounded.

Benedicite omnia opera domini domino.

O ALL ye workes of the Lorde, speake good of the Lorde : prayse hym, and set hym up for euer.

O ye Angels of the Lorde, speake good of the Lorde : prayse hym, and set hym up for euer.

O ye heauens, speake good of the Lorde : prayse hym, and set him up for euer.

O ye waters that be aboue the fyrmamente, speake good of the Lorde : prayse hym, and set hym up for euer.

O all ye powers of the Lord, speake good of the Lord : prayse hym, and set hym up for euer.

O ye Sunne and Moone, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him,
 and set him up for euer.

O ye sterres of heauen, speake good of the lord : prayse him,
 and set him up for euer.

O ye showers, and dewe, speake good of the lord : praise him,
 and set him up for euer.

O ye windes of God, speake good of the Lord : praise him, and set him up for euer.

O ye fier and heate, prayse ye the Lorde : praise him, and set him up for euer.

O ye winter and summer, speake good of the Lorde : praise him and set him up for euer.

O ye dewes and frostes, speake good of the Lord : praise him, and set him up for euer.

O ye frost and colde, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye yse and snowe, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye nyghtes and dayes, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye light and darkenes, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye lighteninges and cloudes, speake good of the Lord : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O let the yearthe speake good of the Lord : yea, let it prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye mountaynes and hilles, speake good of the Lord : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O all ye greene thynges upon the earth, speake good of the Lorde: praise him, and set him up for euer.

O ye welles, speake good of the Lorde : praise him, and set him up for euer.

O ye seas, and floudes, speake good of the Lord : praise him, and set him up for euer.

O ye whales, and all that moue in the waters, speake good of the Lorde : prayse hym, and set hym up for euer.

O all ye foules of the ayre, speake good of the lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O all ye beastes, and catell, speake ye good of the Lord : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye children of men, speake good of the lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O let Israel speake good of the lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye priestes of the Lord, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye seruauntes of the Lord, speake good of the Lord : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye spirites and soules of the righteous, speake good of the Lorde : prayse him, and set him up for euer.

O ye holy and humble men of heart, speake ye good of the Lorde : prayse ye him, and set him up for euer.

O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, speake ye good of the Lorde : prayse ye him, and set him up for euer.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy gost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe : worlde without ende. Amen.

And after the seconde lesson, throughout the whole yere, shalbe used Benedictus dominus deus Israel, &c. in Englishe as followeth :

BLESSED be the lorde God of Israel : for he hath visited and Benedictus.
Luc. i. redeemed his people.

And hath lyfted up an horne of saluacyon to us : in the house of his seruaunt Dauid.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophetes : which hath bene syns the world began.

That we shoulde be saued from our enemies : and from the handes of all that hate us.

To perfourme the mercy promised to our fathers : and to remeber his holy couenaunt.

To perfourme the othe whiche he sware to our father Abraham that he would geue us.

That we being deliuered out of the handes of our enemies : might serue him without feare,

In holynesse and ryghteousnes before him all the dayes of our lyfe.

And thou childe, shalte bee called the prophete of the highest : for thou shalte goe before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes.

To geue knowledge of saluacion unto his people : for the remission of their sinnes.

Through the tender mercie of our god : whereby the dayes spryng from an hygh hath visited us ;

To geue lighte to them that sitte in darkenes, and in the shadowe of death : and to guide our fete into the way of peace.

Glory be to the father, &c.

As it was in the beginnyng, &c.

Then shalbe said dailye through the yere the praiers following, as well at euensong as at Matins, all devoutely kneelyng.

Lorde haue mercie upon us. Christe haue mercie upon us.
Lorde haue mercie upon us.

Then the minister shal say the Crede and the Lordes praiers in englishe, with a loude voice, &c.

Answe. But deliuier us from euill. Amen.

Prieste. O Lorde, shewe thy mercie upon us.

Answe. And graunt us thy saluacion.

Prieste. O Lorde sauе thy kyng.

Answe. And mercifully heare us when we cal upon thee.

Prieste. Indue thy ministers with ryghteousnes.

Answe. And make thy chosen people ioyfull.

Prieste. O Lorde, sauе thy people.

Answe. And blesse thyne inheritaunce.

Prieste. Geue peace in oure time, O Lorde.

Answeare. Because there is none other that fyghteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Prieste. O God, make cleane our hartes within us.

Answeare. And take not thyne holye spirite from us.

Prieste. The lorde be with you.

Answeare. And with thy spirite.

Then shall dayly folowe three Collectes. The firste of the day, which shalbe the same that is appointed at the Communiō. The seconde for peace. The thirde for grace to lyue wel. And the two laste Collectes shall neuer alter, but dailye bee saide at Matins throughout al the yere as foloweth. The priest standyng up, and saiyng,

Let us praye.

¶ Then the Collect of the daie.

¶ The second Collect : for peace.

O GOD, which art author of peace, and louer of concorde, in knowledge of whome standeth oure eternall life, whose seruice is perfect fredome : defende us, thy humble seruautes, in al assaultes of our enemies, that wee surely trustyng in thy defence, maye not feare the power of any aduersaries : through the myght of Iesu Christ our lorde. Amen.

The thyrde Collecte : for grace.

O LORDE oure heauenly father, almightye and euerliuyng God, whiche haste safelye brought us to the beginning of this day : defend us in the same with thy mighty power ; and graunt that this daye wee fall into no synne, neyther runne into any kinde of daunger, but that al our doinges may be ordred by thy gouernance, to do alwaies that is righteous in thy sight : through Jesus Christe our lorde. Amen.

AN ORDRE

FOR EUENSONG

THROUGHOUT THE YEARE.

The prieste shall saye.

OURE FATHER, &c.

Then likewise he shall saye.

O God, make spedē to sauē me.

Answerē. O Lorde, make hastē to helpe me.Prieste. Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now ; and euer shall be : worlde without ende. Amen.

Prayse ye the lorde.

And from Easter to Trinitie Sonday.

Alleluya.

As before is appointed at Matins.Then Psalmes in ordre as they bee appointed in the Table for Psalmes, except there be proper psalmes appointed for that daye. Then a lesson of the olde testamente, as it is appointed likewise in the Kalender, except there be proper Lessons appointed for that daye. After that, (Magnificat anima mea dominum) in Englishe, as foloweth:

MY soule doth magnifie the lorde.

And my spirite hath rejoyced in God my sauioure.

Magnificat.
Luc. i.

For he hathe regarded the lowelinesse of hys handemaiden.

For beholde, from henceforth all generacions shal cal me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me : and holy is his name.

And his mercie is on the that feare him throughhoute all generacions.

He hath shewed strength with his arme, he hath scattered the proude in the imaginacion of their hertes.

He hath put down the mighty from their seate : and hath exalted the humble and meeke.

He hathe filled the hungrye with good thynges : and the riche he hath sente awaye emptye.

He remembraunce his mercie, hath holpen his seruaunt Israel : as he promised to oure fathers, Abraham and his seede, for euer.

Glory be to the father and to the sonne and to the holy gost.

As it was in the beginning, and is now and euer shall be, worlde without ende. Amen.

Then a lesson of the newe testamente. And after that (Nunc dimittis seruum tuum) in Englishe as followeth.

Nunc Dimittis.
Luc. ii.

LORDE, nowe lettest thou thy seruaunte departe in peace :
accordyng to thy woerde.

For myne iyes have sene thy saluacion.

Whiche thou haste prepared, before the face of all thy people ;
To be a lyght for to lighten the Gentiles : and to bee the glorye of thy people of Israel.

Glorye be to the father, &c.

As it was in the beginnyng, &c.

Then the suffrages before assigned at Matins, the clerkes kneelyng likewise, with three Collectes. Fyrst of the daye : Seconde of peace : Thirde for ayde agaynste all perilles, as here followeth. Whiche ii. laste collectes shall bee daylye saide at Euensong without alteracion.

The seconde Collecte at Euensong.

O GOD, from whom all holy desyres, all good counsayles, and all iuste workes do procede : Geue unto thy seruauntes that peace, which the world cannot geue ; that both our hartes maye be sette to obey thy commaundementes, and also that by thee we being defended from the feare of oure enemies, may passe oure time in rest and quietnesse ; throughe the merites of Jesu Christe our sauour. Amen.

The thirde Collect for ayde agaynste all perils.

LYGHTEN our darkenes, we beseche thee, O lord, and by thy great mercy defende us from all perilles and daungers of thys nyght, for the loue of thy onely sonne, our sauour Jesu Christ. Amen.

T In the feastes of Christmas, Theiphanie, Easter, Thascencion, Pentecost, and upon Trinitie Sonday, shalbe song or sayd immediatly after Benedictus this confession of our christian fayth.

Quicunque
vult, &c.

WHOSOEUER will be sauued : before all thinges it is necessarye that he holde the Catholyke fayth.

Whiche fayth except euery one dooe kepe holy and undefyed :
without doubt he shal perishe euerlastingly.

And the Catholike faith is this : that we wurship one Ged in Trinitie, and Trinitie in unitie.

Neyther confounding the personnes : nor deuidyng the substaunce.

For there is one persone of the father, another of the sonne :
and an other of the holy gost.

But the godhead of the father, of the sonne, and of the holy Goste, is all one : the glorye equall, the maiestie coeternal.

Such as the father is, suche is the sonne, and suche is the holy gost.

The father uncreate, the sonne uncreate : and the holy gost uncreate.

The father incomprehensible, the sonne incomprehensible : and the holy gost incomprehensible.

The father eternall, the sonne eternall : and the holy gost eternall.

And yet they are not three eternalles : but one eternall.

As also there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three uncreated : but one uncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So lykewyse the father is almyghtie, the sonne almighty : and the holy gost almighty.

And yet are they not three almyghtyes : but one almighty.

So the father is God, the sonne God : and the holye gost God.

And yet are they not three Goddes : but one God.

So lykewise the father is Lord, the sonne Lord : and the holy gost Lorde.

And yet not three Lordes : but one Lorde.

For like as we be compelled by the christian veritie : to acknowlege euery persone by hymselfe to be god and lord :

So are we forbidden by the Catholike religion : to say there be three goddes, or three lordes.

The father is made of none : neyther created nor begotten.

The sonne is of the father alone : not made nor created, but begotten.

The holy gost is of the father and of the sonne : neyther made nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one father, not three fathers ; one sonne, not three sonnes : one holy gost, not three holy gostes.

And in thy trinitie none is afore nor after other : none is greater nor lesse then other.

But the whole three personnes : be coeternall together and coequall.

So that in all thinges, as it is aforesayd : the unitie in trinitie, and the trinitie in unitie is to be wurshipped.

He therefore that will bee sauad : must thus thinke of the trinitie.

Furthermore, it is necessary to euerlasting saluacion : that he also beleue ryghtly in the incarnacion of oure Lorde Jesu Christe.

For the ryght fayth is that we beleue and confesse : that our Lorde Jesus Christe the sonne of God, is God and man ;

God of the substaunce of the father, begotten before the worldes : and man of the substaunce of his mother, borne in the worlde.

Perfecte God, and perfecte man : of a resonable soule, and humayne fleshe subsisting.

Equall to the father as touchyng his Godhead : and inferior to the father touchyng his manhoode.

Who although he be God and man : yet he is not two, but one Christe.

One, not by conuersion of the Godhead into flesh : but by takyng of the manhoode into God ;

One altogether, not by confusion of substaunce : but by unitie of person.

For as the reasonable soule and fleshe is one man : So God and man is one Christe.

Who suffered for oure saluacion : descended into hell, rose agayne the third daye from the dead.

He ascended into heauen, he sytteth on the right hand of the father, God almighty : from whence he shall come to iudge the quicke and dead.

At whose commyng all men shall ryse agayne with theyr bodyes : and shall geue accompt of theyr owne workes.

And they that haue done good, shall goe into life euerlastyng : and they that haue done euyll, into euerlastyng fyre.

This is the Catholyke fayth : whiche excepte a man beleue faythfully, he cannot be saued.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, &c.

As it was in the begynnyng, &c.

Thus endeth the ordre of Matyns and Euensong, through the whole yere.

THE INTROITES,

COLLECTES, EPISTLES, AND GOSPELS, TO BE USED AT THE CELEBRACION OF THE LORDES SUPPER AND HOLYE
COMMUNION THROUGHE THE YEARE :
WITH PROPER PSALMES, AND LESSONS FOR DIUERS FEASTES AND DAYES.

¶ The fyrste Sonday in Aduente.

Beatus vir. Psalm i.

BLESSED is that manne that hath not walked in the counsayle of the ungodly, nor stand in the waye of synners : and hath not sate in the seate of the skornefull ;

But his delight is in the law of the LORD : and in his law will he exerceyse himself day and night.

And he shalbe like a tree planted by the watersyde : that will bring foorth his fruite in due season.

His leafe also shal not wither : and looke whatsoeuer he doth, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them : but they are like the chaffe whiche the wynde skatereth awaie (from the face of the yearth).

Therefore the ungodly shall not be hable to stand in the iudgement : neyther the synners in the congregacion of the righteous.

But the LORDE knoweth the waye of the righteous : and the waye of the ungodlye shal perishe.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holye ghoste.

As it was in the begynnyng, is nowe, and euer shalbe : worlde without ende. Amen.

And so must euery Introite be ended..

Let us pray.

The-Collect.

ALMYGHTYE God, geue us grace, that we may cast awaie the workes of darknes, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the tyme of this mortall lyfe, (in the whiche thy sonne Jesus Christe came to visite us in great humilitie;) that in the last daye whē he shal come again in his glorious maiestye to iudge bothe the quicke and the dead, we mayē ryse to the lyfe immortal, through him who liueth and reigneth with thee and the holy ghoste now and euer. Amen.

The Epistle. Rom. xiii.

OWE nothing to any man but this, that ye loue one another. For he that loueth another, fulfilleth the law. For these commaundemētes, Thou shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kyll: Thou shalte not steale: Thou shalte beare no false witnes: Thou shalt not luste: and so forth (if there be any other cōmaundemēte) it is al comprehended in this saiyng, namely, Loue thy neighbor as thyself. Loue hurteth not his neyghbor; therfore is loue the fulfillyng of the law. This also, we know the season, how that it is tyme that we should now awake out of slepe: for nowe is our saluacion nerer, then when we beleued. The nyght is passed, the day is come nyne; let us therfore caste awaie the dedes of darkenes, and let us put on the armour of lyght. Let us walke honestlye, as it were in the day lyght; not in eating and drinking, neither in chambouryng and wantonnes, neither in stryfe nor enuyng: but put ye on the lord Jesus Christe. And make not prouision for the fleshe, to fulfill the lustes of it.

The Gospel. Matt. xxi.

AND when they drew nigh to Jerusalem, and were com to Bethphage, unto Moūt Oliuet, then sente Jesus two disciples, saying unto them: Goe into the towne that lyeth ouer agaynst you, and anone ye shall fynde an Asse bound, and a Colte with her: looce them and bryng them unto me. And if any man say ought unto you, say ye, the lord hath neede of them; and straightway he wil let them goe. All this was done that it myghte bee fulfilled, whiche was spoken by the Prophete, saying: Tell ye the daughter of Sion, behold, thy kyng cummeth unto thee, meke, sitting upō an Asse, and a colt, the fole of the Asse used to the yoke. The disciples went and did as Jesus commaūded them; and brought the Asse, and the Colte, and put on them theyr clothes, and set him theron. And many of the people spred theyr garmentes in the waye. Other cut downe braunches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. Moreouer the people that wente beefore, and they that came after, cryed saying; Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid; Blessed is he that cummeth in the name of the lorde, Hosanna in the highēste. And when he was come to Jerusalem all the citie was moued, saying: who is this? And the people sayde, this is Jesus the Prophete of Nazareth a citie of Galile. And Jesus went into the temple of god, and cast out al them that solde and oughte in the temple, and ouerthrew the tables of money-chaungers, and the seates of them that solde dous, and said unto them, It is written; My house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye haue made it a denne of theues.

The second sunday.

Ad Dominum cum tribularer. Psalm cxx.

WHEN I was in trouble I called upon the Lorde : and he heard me.

Delyuer my soule (o Lorde) from lyinge lippes, and from a deceiptfull tongue.

What reward shal be geuen unto thee, thou false tong? euen mightie and sharpe arrowes, with hote burnyng coles.

Woe is me, that I am constrained to dwel with Mesech : and to haue mine habitacion amōg the tentes of Cedar.

My soule hath long dwelt among them : that be enemies unto peace.

I labour for peace, but when I speake unto them thereof : they make them to battayl.

Glory be to the father, &c.

As it was in the begynnyng, &c.

The Collect.

BLESSED lord, which hast caused all holy Scriptures to bee written for our learnyng ; graunte us that we maye in suche wise heare them, read, marke, learne, and inwardly digeste them ; that by pacience, and coumfort of thy holy woorde, we may embrāce, and euer holde fast the blessed hope of euerlasting life, which thou hast geuen us in our sauiaour Jesus Christē.

The Epistle. Rom. xv

WHATSOEUEER things are wrtē aforetime, they are written for our learning, that we through pacience, and comfort of the scriptures, might haue hope. The God of pacience and consolacion graunt you to be like-minded one toward another, after the ensaumple of Christ Jesu : that ye all agreeyng together, may with one mouth prayse God the father of our lorde Jesus Christ : wherfore receiue ye one another as Christ receiued us, to the prayse of God. And thys I say, that Jesus Christē is a minister of the circumcision for the trueth of God, to confirme the promises made unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might praise God for his mercie, as it is written. For this cause I will praise thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. And agayne he sayeth : reioyce ye Gentiles with hys people. And againe ; praise the Lorde, all ye Gentyles, and laude hym all ye nacyons together. And againe Esai sayeth : there shall be the rote of Jesse, and he that shall ryse to reigne over the Gentiles: in him shal the Gentiles trust. The God of hope fyll you with all ioy and peace in beleuyng, that ye may be riche in hope, through the power of the holy gost.

The Gospell. Luke xxi.

THERE shalbe signes in the Sunne, and in the Moone, and in the starres; and in the earth the people shalbe at their wittes ende, through despaire. The sea and the water shall roare, and mens heartes shall fayle them for feare, and for loking after those thinges which shall come on the earth. For the powers of heauen shall moue. And then shall they see the sonne of man come in a cloude, with power and great glorye. When these thynges begynne to come to passe, then loke up, and lyft up your heade, for your redempcion draweth nye. And he shewed them a simylitude: beholde the fygge-tree, and all other trees, when they shote furth their buddes, ye see and knowe of your owne selues that sommer is then nye at hāde. So lykewyse ye also (whē ye see these thinges come to passe) be sure that the kyngdome of God is nye. Verely I saye unto you: this generacion shall not passe, tyll all be fulfylled: Heauen and earth shall passe: but my worde shall not passe.

Cum invocarem. Psalm iv.

HEARE me when I call, o God of my ryghteousnes: thou hast set me at libertie when I was in trouble; haue mercy upon me, and herken unto my prayer.

O ye sonnes of menne, howe long will ye blasphemē myne honor? and haue such pleasure in vanitie, and seke after leasing?

Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himselfe the manne that is godly: when I call upon the Lord, he will heare me.

Standē in awe, and synne not: common with your owne hearte, and in youre chambre, and be still.

Offer the sacrifice of righteousnes: and put your trust in the Lorde.

There be many that will saye: who wyll shewe us any good? Lorde lift thou up: the light of thy countenaunce upon us. Thou hast put gladnes in mine heart: sence the tyme that their corne and wyne, (and oyle) increased.

I will lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lorde, onely, that makest me to dwell in safetie.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, &c.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer &c.

The Collect.

LORD, we beseche thee, geue eare to our prayers, and by thy gracious visitacion lighten the darkenes of our hearte, by our Lorde Jesus Christe.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. iv.

LET a man this wise esteme us, euen as the ministers of Christ, and stewardes of the secretes of God. Furthermore, it is required of the stewardes, that a man be founde faithfull : with me it is but a very small thing that I should be judged of you, eyther of mannes iudgement : no I judge not mine owne selfe, for I know nought by myselfe, yet am I not therby iustified. It is the Lorde that iudgeth me. Therfore iudge nothing before the tyme, untyll the Lorde come, whiche wyll lighten thynges that are hydde in darkenesse, and open the counsayles of the heartes, and then shall euery manne haue prayse of God.

The Gospel. Matt. xi.

WHEN John beeyng in pryson hearde the workes of Christe, he sente two of his disciples, and sayed unto hym ; Art thou he that shall come ? or doe we looke for another ? Jesus aunswered and sayd unto the : Goe and shewe John agayne what ye haue hearde and seen : The blynde receiue their sight, the lame walke, the Lepers are clensed, and the deafe heare, the dead arysse up, and the poore receyue the gladdes tydinges of the gospel, and happy is he that is not offended by me. And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the people cōcernyng John : What went ye out into the wildernes to see ? A rede that is shaken with the wynde ? Or what wēt ye out for to see ? A man clothed in soft rayment ? behold, they that weare soft clothing, are in kinges houses. But what went ye out for to see ? A prophete ? verely I saye unto you, and more then a Prophete. For this is he of whom it is wrytten, beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face, whiche shall prepare thy waye before thee.

Verba mea auribus. Psalm v.

PONDER my woordes, O Lorde : considre my meditacion.

O herken thou unto the voyce of my calling, my kyng, and my God : for unto thee wyll I make my prayer.

My voyce shalt thou heare betymes, o Lorde : early in the morning will I direcete my prayer unto thee, and will looke up.

For thou art the God that hath no pleasure in wickednes : neither shall anye euill dwell with the.

Suche as be foolishe shalle not stande in thy sight : for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.

Thou shalt destroy the that speake leasing : the Lord will abhorre both the bloud-thirstie and deceiptfull man.

But as for me, I will come into thy house, euen upon the multitude of thy mercy : and in thy feare I wyl wurship towarde thy holy temple.

Leade me (o Lorde) in thy righteousnes, because of myne enemyes : make thy waye playne before my face.

For there is no faythfulnes in his mouthe : their inwarde partes are very wickednes.

Their throte is an open sepulchre : they flatter with their tongue.

Destroy thou them, O God ; let them peryshe through their owne imaginacions : cast the out in the multitude of their ungodlines ; for they haue rebelled agaynst thee.

And let all them that put their trust in thee reioyce : they shall euer be geuyng of thankes, because thou defendest them ; they that loue thy name shalbe ioyfull in thee.

For thou, Lord, wyl geue thy blessing unto the righteous : and with thy fauorable kyndnes wylt thou defende him as his shelde.

Glory be to the fath̄er, and to the sonne, &c.

As it was in the begynnynge, is now, and euer &c.

The Collect.

LORDE rayse up (we pray the) thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our synnes and wickednes, we be soore lette and hindred, thy bountifull grace and mercye, through the satisfaccion of thy sonne our Lord, may spedily deliuer us ; to whom with thee and the holy gost be honor and glory, worlde without ende.

The Epistle. Philipp. iv.

REIOYCE in the Lord alaway, and againe I saye, reioyce. Let your softnes be knownen unto all men : the Lord is euen at hand. Be careful for nothing : but in all praier and supplicacion, let your peticions be manifest unto God, with geuyng of thankes. And the peace of God (whiche passeth all understandyng) kepe your heartes and myndes through Christe Jesu.

The Gospell. John i.

THIS is recorde of John, whē the Jewes sent priestes and Leuites frō Jerusalem to aske him ; what art thou ? and he confessed, and denied not, and sayd playnly : I am not Christ. And they asked him, what then ? art thou Helyas ? and he sayeth : I am not. Art thou that Prophete ? and he aunswered, no. Then sayed they unto him ; what art thou ? that we may geue an aūswer unto thē that sēt us? what sayest thou of thyselfe? he said: I am the voyce of a cryer in the wildernes, make straight the way of the lorde, as said the prophete Esai. And they whiche were sente were of the Phariseis, and they asked hym, and sayde unto hym, why baptisest thou then, if thou be not Christe, nor Helyas, neither that prophet? John aunswered them, saying: I baptise with water: but there standeth one among you, whome ye know not: he it is which though he came after me, was before me, whose shooe-latchet, I am not woorthie to unlooce. These thinges were doen at Bethabara beyonde Jordane, where John did baptise.

O SING unto the Lorde a newe song: for he hath done maruaylous thinges.

With his owne right hande, and with his holy arme: hath he gotten himselfe the victorye.

The Lorde declared his saluacion: his righteousnes hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

He hath remembred his mercie and trueth toward the house of Israell: and all the endes the worlde haue seene the saluacion of our God.

Shewe youreselues ioyfull unto the Lorde all ye landes: sing, reioyce, and geue thankes.

The Epistle. Tit. ii.

THE grace of god that bringeth saluacion unto all men, hath appeared, and teacheth us that we shoulden denye ungodlynes and worldly lustes, and that we shoulde liue soberly, and ryghteously, and godlye in this present world, looking for that blessed hope, and appering of the glory of the great god and of our sauour Jesu Christ, which gaue himselfe for us, to redeme us from all unrighteousnes, and to purge us a peculiare people unto himselfe, feruently geuen unto good woorkes. These thynges speake, and exhorte, and rebuke with all feruentnes of commaundynge. See that no man despise thee.

The Gospel. Luke ii.

AND it chaunsed in those dayes, that there wente out a commaundemente from Augustus the Emperour, that all the worlde shoulde be taxed. And this taxing was the firste, and executed when Syrenius was lieutenaunt in Siria. And every man wente unto hys owne citie to bee taxed. And Joseph also ascended frō Galile, out of a citie called Nazareth into Jury, unto the citie of Dauid, which is called Bethleem ; because he was of the house and linage of Dauid, to be taxed wyth Mari his spoused wyfe, which was with childe. And it fortuned that while they were there, her tyme was come that she shoulde be deliuered. And she brought furth her first begotten sonne, and wrapped hym in swadlyng clothes and layde hym in a Maungier, because there was no roume for them in the Inne. And there were in the same region shepeherdes watchyng and kepyng theyr flocke by nyght. And loe, the Angel of the Lorde stooode harde by them, and the bryghtenesse of the Lorde shone rounde about them; and they were sore affrayd. And the angel said unto them, Be not affraid, for behold, I bring you tidinges of great ioy, that shal come to al people : for unto you is borne this daie in the citie of Dauid a sauour, which is Christ the lorde. And take this for a signe : ye shall fynde the childe wrapped in swadlyng clothes, and layde in a maungier. And strayghtwaye there was with the angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, praisyng God, and saying : Glory to God on hye, and peace on the yearth, and unto men a good wyll.

The Epistle. Heb. i.

GOD in tymes paste dyuerselye and manye waies spake unto the fathers by Prophetes: but in these last dayes, he hath spoken to us by his owne sonne, whome he hath made heyre of all thynges, by whome also he made the worlde. Whiche (sonne) beeing the brightenesse of his glorie, and the very image of his substaunce, rulyng al thynges wyth the woerde of his power, hath by his owne person pourged our synnes, and sytteth on the righte hande of the Maiestye on hygh: being so much more excellēt then the Angels, as he hath by inheritaunce obtained a more excellent name then they. For unto which of the Angels said he at anye tyme? Thou arte my sōnne, this daye haue I begotten thee. And agayne, I wilbe his father, and he shall bee my sonne. And agayne, when he bringēth in the first-begotten sonne into the worlde, he sayth: and let all the Angels of God wurship him. And unto the Angels he sayeth, He maketh his Angels spirites, and his ministers a flame of fyre. But unto the sonne he sayeth, thy seate (O God) shalbe for euer and euer. The scepter of thy kingdome is a ryghte scepter. Thou hast loued righteousnes and hated iniquitie; wherfore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with oyle of gladnes aboue thy felowes. And thou lorde in the beginning hast layde the foundacion of the yearth; and the heauens are the woorkes of thy handes. They shall perish, but thou endurest. But they al shal waxe old as doeth a garment, and as a vesture shalt thou chaunge them, and they shalbe chaunged. But thou art euen the same, and thy yeares shall not fayle.

The Gospel. John i.

In the begynnyng was the woerde, and the woerde was with God: and God was the worde. The same was in the beginning with God. All thinges were made by it, and without it, was made nothyng that was made. In it was life, and the lyfe was the light of men, and the light shineth in darkenes, and the darkenes cōprehended it not. There was sente from God a manne, whose name was John. The same came as a witnes to beare witnes of the light, that al mē through him might beleue. He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnes of the light. That light was the true lyghte, whiche lighteth euerye man that cometh into the worlde. He was in the world, and the world was made by him; and the worlde knew him not. He came among his owne, and his owne receiued him not: But as many as receiued him, to thē gaue he power to be the sonnes of god; euen thē that beleued on his name, whiche were borne, not of bloud, nor of the will of the fleshe, nor yet of the will of man; but of God. And the same worde became fleshe, and dwelt among us; and we sawe the glory of it, as the glory of the onely-begotten sonne of the father, full of grace and trueth.

The Epistle. Gal. iv.

AND I saye, that the heyre (as long as he is a child) differeth not from a seruaunt, though he be lorde of all, but is under tutors and gouernours, until the time that the father hath appoynted. Euen so wee also, when wee were chyldren, were in bondage under the ordinaunces of the worlde : But when the tyme was full come, God sente hys sonne, made of a woman, and made bonde unto the lawe, to redeme them which were bonde unto the lawe : that wee throughe eleccion myghte receyue the inheritaunce that belongeth unto the naturall sonnes. Because ye are sonnes, God hathe sente the spryte of hys sonne into our hertes, which crieth Abba father. Wherfore nowe, thou art not a seruaunt, but a sonne : If thou bee a sonne, thou arte also an heyre of God throughe Christe.

The Gospel. Matt. i.

THVS is the booke of the generacyon of Jesus Christe, the sonne of Dauid, the sonne of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac ; Isaac begat Jacob ; Jacob begat Judas and his brethren ; Judas begat Phares and Zaram of Thamar ; Phares begat Esrom ; Esrom begat Aram ; Aram begat Aminadab ; Aminadab begat Naasson ; Naasson begat Salmon ; Salmon begat Boos of Rahab ; Boos begat Obed of Ruth ; Obed begat Jesse ; Jesse begat Dauid the kyng ; Dauid the king begat Salomon of her that was the wife of Urye ; Salomon begat Roboam ; Roboam begat Abia ; Abia begat Asa ; Asa begat Josaphat ; Josaphat begat Joram ; Joram begat Osias ; Osias begat Joathan ; Joathan begat Achas ; Achas begat Ezechias ; Ezechias begat Manasses ; Manasses begat Amon ; Amon begat Josias ; Josias begat Jeconias and his brethren, about the time that they were caried awaie to Babilon. And after they were brought to Babilon, Jeconias begat Salathiell ; Salathiell begat Zorobabel ; Zorobabel begat Abiud ; Abiud begat Eliachim ; Eliachim begat Azor ; Azor begat Sadoc ; Sadoc begat Achyn ; Achyn begat Eliud ; Eliud begat Eliazar ; Eliazar begat Matthan ; Matthan begat Jacob ; Jacob begat Joseph the husbande of Marie, of whome was borne Jesus, euen he that is called Christe. And so all the generacions from Abraham to Dauid are xiiii generacyons. And from Dauid unto the captiuitie of Babilon are xiiii generacions. And from the captiuitie of Babilon unto Christ, are xiiii generacions.

The birth pf Jesus Christ was on this wise : When his mother Mary was maried to Joseph, (beefore they came to dwell together) she was founde with childe by the holy goste. Then Joseph her husbande (because he was a righteous man, and would not put her to shame) was minded prieuily to departe from her. But while he thus thought, beholde, the Angell of the lord appeared unto hym in slepe, saying : Joseph, thou sonne of Dauid, feare not to take unto the Mary thy wife : for that which is conceiued in her, cummeth of the holy gost. She shall bring furth a sonne, and thou shalt call his name JESUS : for he shall sauе his people from theyr sinnes.

All this was doone, that it mighte be fulfilled which was spoken of the lorde by the prophet, saying : Beholde a mayde shall bee with chylde, and shall bryng foorth a sonne, and they shall call his name Emanuell, whiche, if a manne interprete, is as muche to saye, as God with us. And Joseph as soone as he awoke out of slepe did as the Angel of the lorde had bidden him : and he toke his wife unto him, and knew her not, til she had broughte furth her firste begotten sonne, and called his name JESUS.

I WAS glad when they sayde unto me : We wil goe into the house of the Lorde.

Our fete shall stande in thy gates : O Jerusalém.

Jerusalem is builded as a citie : that is at unitie in itselue.

For thither the tribes goe up, euen the tribes of the Lorde : to testifie unto Israell to geue thankes unto the Name of the Lorde.

ALMYGHTIE God, whiche madeste thy blessed sonne to be circumcised, and obeyente to the law for man ; Graunt us the true circumcision of thy spirite, that our hertes, and al our membres, being mortifyed from al worldly and carnal lustes, may in al things obey thy blessed wil ; through the same thy sonne Jesus Christ our Lorde.

The Epistle. Rom. iv.

BLESSED is that mā to whom the lord will not impute sinne. Came this blessednes then upon the uncircūcisiō, or upon the circūcisiō also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abrahā for righteousnes. How was it then reckoned? when he was in the circūcision, or whē he was in the uncircūcisiō? not in the time of circumcision; but when he was yet uncircūcised. And he receiued the signe of circumcision, as a seale of the righteousnes of fayth, whiche he had yet being uncircūcised; that he should be the father of al thē that beleue, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnes might be imputed to them also: and that he migthe be the father of circumcisiō, not unto them only which came of the circumcised, but unto them also that walke in the steppes of the faythe that was in our father Abraham, before the time of circumcision. For the promise (that he shoulde be the heyre of the worlde) happened not to Abraham, or to his seede, through the law, but through the righteousnes of faith. For if they which are of the law be heyres, then is faith but vayne, and he promise of none effect.

The Gospel. Luc. ii.

AND it fortuned, as soone as the Angels were gone away from the shepheardees into heauen, they sayd one to another; let us goe now euen unto Bethleem, and se this thing that we heare say is happened, whiche the lorde hath shewed unto us. And they came with haste and fōud Mary and Joseph, and the Babe laid in a maūger. And when they had sene it, they published abrode the saying which was tolde them of that childe. And al they that heard it wondered at those thinges, whiche were tolde thē of the shepheardees. But Mary kept all those sayinges, and pondered them in her hert. And the shepheherdes returned praisyng and laudyng God, for al the thynges that they had hearde and seene, euen as it was tolde unto them. And wben the egypt day was come that the childe should be circumcised, his name was called JESUS, which was named of the Angel before he was cōceiued in the wombe.

Cantate Domino. Psalm xcvi.

O SYNC unto the Lorde a newe song : sing unto the Lorde all the whole yearth.

Syng unto the Lorde, and prayse his name : be tellyng of his saluacion from daye to daye.

Declare his honour unto the heathen : and his wonders unto all people.

For the Lord is great, and cannot worthely be praised : he is more to bee feared than all Goddes.

As for all the Goddes of the heathen, they bee but ydolles ; but it is the Lorde that made the heauens.

Glory and woorshyp are before hym : power and honoure are in his Sanctuarie.

Ascribe unto the Lord, (O ye kinredes of the people) ascribe unto the Lorde woorship and power.

Ascribe unto the Lord the honour due unto his Name : brynge presentes, and come into his courtes.

O woorshyp the Lorde in the beautie of holynes : let the whole earth stande in awe of hym.

Tell it out amonge the heathen that the Lord is Kinge : and that it is he whiche hathe made the rounde worlde so fast that it cannot be moued ; and howe that he shall iudge the people righteouslie.

Let the heauens reioyse, and let the yearth be glad : let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is.

Let the felde be ioyful and al that is in it : then shal all the trees of the wood reioyce before the Lorde.

The Epistle. Ephes. iii.

FOR thys cause I Paule am a priesoner of Jesus Christe for you heathen ; yf ye haue heard of the ministracion of the grace of God, which is geuē me to you-ward. For by reuelacyon shewed he the misterie unto me, as I wrote afore in few woordes, wherby when ye reade, ye maye understande my knowledge in the misterye of Christe ; which misterie in times passed was not opened unto the sonnes of men, as it is nowe declared unto his holy apostles and prophetes by the spirite : that the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same bodye, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the meanes of the Gospel, whereof I am made a minister, accordyng to the gifte of the grace of god which is geuē unto me after the workyng of his power. Unto me the leaste of all saintes is this grace geuen, that I shoulde preache amoninge the Gentiles the unsearcheable riches of Christe, and to make all men see what the felowship of the misterie is, whiche from the beginnyng of the worlde, hath bene hyd in God whiche made al thinges through Jesus Christe : to thentente, that nowe unto the rulers and powers in heauenly thinges, might be knowē, by the congregaciō the manifolde wisedome of God accordyng to the eternall purpose which he wrought in Christ Jesu our lord : by whō wee haue boldenesse and entraunce with the confidence which is by the faith of him.

The Gospel. Matt. ii.

WHEN Jesus was borne in Bethleē a city of Jury, in the tyme of Herode the kyng : Behold there came wise men from the East to Jerusalē, saiying : where is he that is borne king of Jewes ? For we haue sene his starre in the East, and are come to worship him. When Herode the kyng had heard these thynges, he was troubled, and all the citie of Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered al the chief priestes and scribes of the people together, he demaunded of them, where Christe shoulde be borne. And they said unto him, At Bethleem in Jurie. For thus it is written by the prophete ; And thou, Bethleē, in the land of Jury, art not the least among the princes of Juda : for oute of thee there shall come unto me the capitain that shal gourne my people Israel. Then Herode (when he had prieuely called the wise men) he inquired of them diligentlye what time the starre appeared, and he bad them go to Bethleem, and said ; go your waie thither, and serche diligentlye for the childe. And when ye haue found him, bring me woord again, that I maie come and worship him also. Whē they had heard the king, they departed ; and loe, the starre whiche thei sawe in the Easte, wente beefore them, tyll it came and stooode ouer the place whēre the child was. When thei saw the starre thei were exceedingly glad, and wente into the house, and founde the child with Marie his mother, and fel downe flat and woorshipped him, and opened their treasures and offred unto hym gystes : Golde, Frankinsence, and Mirre. And after they were warned of God in slepe, (that they shoulde not go again to Herode,) they returned into their owne countrey another waie.

The Epistle. Roma. xii.

I BESECHE you therfore brethrēn, by the mercyfulnesse of God, that ye make youre bodies a quicke sacrifice, holy, and acceptable unto God, which is your resonable seruyng of god, and fashion not yourselves like unto this world ; but be ye chaunged in your shape by the renuing of your minde, that ye maie proue what

The Gospel. Luke ii.

THE father and mother of Jesus wente to Hierusalem after the custome of the feast day. And whē they had fulfilled the dayes; as they returned home, the child Jesus abode stil in Jerusalē, and his father and mother knewe not of it: but they supposyng hym to haue beene in the cumpayne, came a dayes iourney, and sought him among their kinsfolke and acquaintaūce. And when they found him not, they went backe agayn to Jerusalem, and soughte him. And it fortuned that after three dayes, they founde him in the temple sitting in the middest of the doctours, hearyng them, and posing them. And all that heard him were astonied at his understanding and answers.

And when they saw him, they merueiled, and his mother sayd unto hym; Sonne why haste thou thus dealte with us? Beholde, thy father and I haue sought thee sorowing. And he said unto them: how happened it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must go about my fathers busines? And they understande not that saying, which he speake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was obedient unto them: but his mother kept all these sayinges together in her heart. And Jesus prospered in wisdō and age and in fauour with god and mē.

said unto her, womā, what haue I to do with the? mine houre is not yet come. His mother said unto the ministers; whatsoeuer he saith unto you, do it. And there were standing there vi waterpottes of stone, after the maner of the purifiyng of the Jewes, containing ii or iii fyrkyns apeece. Jesus saide unto them: fil the waterpottes with water. And thei filled them up to the brimme. And he saide unto them: draw out now, and beare unto the Gouernour of the feast. And they bare it. Whē the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was turned into wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the ministers, which drewe the water, knewe) he called the bridegrome, and said unto him; Euerie man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men be dronke, then that whiche is worse, but thou hast kepte the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galile, and shewed hys glorie, and his dysciples beleued on him.

And Jesus putte foorth his hande, and touched hym, saying ; I wil, bee thou cleane. And immediately hys Leprosye was cleansed. And Jesus saide unto hym, tell no manne, but goe and shew thyselfe to the priest, and offer the gift (that Moses commaunded to bee offered) for a witnessē unto them.

And when Jesus was entred into Capernaum, there came unto him a Cēturion, and besought him, saying : Maister, my seruaunt lyeth at home sickle of the palsey, and is greuously pained. And Jesus said, whē I come unto him, I wil heale him. The Centurion aunswere, and said : Sir I am not woorthie that thou shoudeste come under my roofe ; but speake the woerde onely, and my seruaunt shalbe healed. For I also am a mā subiect to the autorite of another, and haue souldiers under me : and I say to this man, goe, and he goeth ; and to another man, come, and he cummeth ; and to my seruaunt, doe thys, and he doeth it. WHY do the heathen so furiously rage together : and why doe the people imagyn a vaine thing ?

The kinges of the earth stande up, and the rulers take counsel together : against the lorde, and against his annoynted.

Let us breake theyr bondes asunder : and cast away theyr coardes from us.

He that dwelleth in heauen, shall laugh them to scorne : the lorde shall haue them in derision.

Then shall he speake unto them in hys wrath, and vexe them in his sore dyspleasure.

Yet haue I set my kyng : upon my holy hill of Sion. I will preache the lawe, whereof the Lorde hath sayde unto me : thou art my sône, this day haue I begottē thee.

Desyre of me, and I shall geue thee the heathen for thine inheritance : and the uttermost partes of the earth for thy possession.

Thou shalt bruse them with a rod of yron : and breake them in pieces lyke a potters vessel.

Be wise nowe therfore, o ye kinges : be learned, ye that are judges of the yearth.

Serue the lorde in feare : and reioyse (unto him) with reuerence.

Kisse the sonne, lest he be angrie, and so ye perish from the righte way : if his wrath be kiendled, (yea but a litle,) blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

The Epistle. Rom. xiii.

LET euary soule submit hymselfe unto the auctoritie of the higher powers ; for there is no power but of God. The powers that be are ordeined of God, whosoeuer therefore resysteth power resisteth the ordinaunce of God : But they that resist, shall receiue to themselues damnacion.

For rulers are not feareful to them that do good, but to them that do euil. Wilt thou be without feare of the power ? do well then, and so shalt thou be praysed of the same : for he is the minister of God for thy wealth. But and yf thou do that which is euill, then feare, for he beareth not the swerde for naught : for he is the minister of God to take vengeance on hym that doth euill. Wherfore, ye must nedes obey, not onely for feare of vengeance, but also because of conscience : and euen for this cause paye ye tribute ; for they are Goddes ministers seruyng for the same purpose. Geue to euary man therefore his duetie ; tribute, to whom tribute belongeth : custome, to whom custome is due : feare, to whom feare belongeth : honor to whom honor pertaineth.

are called in one bodye ; And see that ye bee thankefull. Let the worde of Christe dwell in you plenteously with all wisedome.
Teache and exhorte your owne selues in Psalmes, and Himnes, and spiritual songs, syngynge with grace in your hertes to the lorde. And whatsoeuer ye doe, in woordes or deede, doe all in the name of the lorde Jesu, geuyng thankes to God the father by him.

The Gospel. Matt. xiii.

THE kyngdome of heauen is like unto a manne whiche sowed good sede in his felde : but while men slept, his enemy came, and sowed tares amoung the wheat, and went his waye. But when the blade was sprong up, and had brought furth fruite, then appeared the tares also. So the seruauntes of the houholder came, and said unto him : Sir, diddest not thou sowe good seede in thy felde ? from whence then hath it tares ? he sayde unto theim, the enuyous man hath done this. The seruauntes sayd unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and wede them up ? But he saide, naye ;
lest whyle ye gather up the tares, ye plucke up also the wheat with them : lette bothe growe together until the haruest ; and in tyme of haruest I will say to the reapers : gather ye fyreste the tares, and bynde them together in sheues to be brent : but gather the wheat into my barne.

The vi sonday (if there be so many) shall haue the same Psalme, Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, that was upon the v.

¶ The sonday called Septuagesima.Dominus regit. Psalm xxiii.

THE Lorde is my sheparde : therefore can I lacke nothyng.
He shall feede me in a grene pasture : and leade me foorth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall conuerte my soule : and bryng me foorth in the pathes of righteousnes, for his names sake.

Yea, though I walke thorough the valley of the shadowe of death, I will feare no euill : for thou art wyth me ; thy rod and thy staffe comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me : thou haste annoynted my heade with oyle, and my cup shalbe full.

But thy louyng-kyndnes and mercy shall folowe me all the dayes of my life : and I will dwell in the house of the lorde for euer.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost ;
As it was in the beginnyng, is nowe and euer shall be : worlde without ende. Amen.

The Collect.

O LORD, we beseche thee fauourably to heare the praiers of thy people ; that we whiche are iustly punished for our offences, may be mercifully deliuered by thy goodnes, for the glory of thy name, through Jesu Christ our saviour, who liueth and reigneth, &c.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. ix.

PERCEYUE ye not, how that they whiche runne in a course runne all, but one receiueth the reward ? So runne that ye may obtayne : Euery man that proueth masteries, abstayneth from all thinges. And they do it to obtain a crowne that shall perishe, but we to-obtayne an euerlastyng crowne. I therefore so runne not as at an uncertain thyng. So fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre : but I tame my body, and bryng it into subiection, lest by any meanes it come to pass, that when I haue preached to other, I myselfe should be a cast-away.

The Gospell. Matt. xx.

THE kyngdome of heauen is like unto a manne that is an housholder, whiche went out early in the mornyng to hyre laborers into his vyneyarde. And when the agrement was made with the laborers for a peny a day, he sent them into his vyneyarde. And he went out about the third houre and sawe other standyng idle in the marketplace, and sayd unto them : Go ye also into the vyneyarde, and whatsoeuer is right I will geue you. And they went theyr way. Againe he went out about the vi. and ix. houre, and did lykewise. And about the xi. houre he went out, and founde other standyng idle, and sayd unto them; why stande ye here all the day idle? They sayd unto hym; because no man hath hyred us. He sayeth unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoeuer is right, that shall ye receyue.

So, when euen was come, the lorde of the vyneyarde sayd unto his steward: call the laborers and geue them their hyre, beginnyng at the last untill the first. And when they did come that came about the xi. houre, they receiued every man a penny: But when the first came also, they supposed that they should haue receyued more, and they lykewyse receyued euery man a penny. And when they had receyued it, they murmured against the good-man of the house, saying: these last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equall with us, whiche haue borne the burthen and heate of the day. But he answered unto one of them, and sayd: Frende, I do thee no wrong, diddest thou not agree with me for a penny? Take that thyne is, and go thy way; I wyll geue unto this last, euen as unto thee. Is it not lawfull for me to do as me lusteth with myne owne goodes? Is thyne eye euill because I am good? So the last shalbe first, and the first shalbe last. For many be called, and fewe chosen.

Domini est terra. Psalm xxiv.

The yearth is the lordes, and all that therin is: the compasse of the worlde, and they that dwell therin.

For he hath founded it upon the seas: and prepared it upon the fluddes.

Who shall ascende into the hyl of the Lorde? or who shall rise up in his holy place?

Euen he that hath cleane handes, and a pure heart: and that hath not lyft up his mynde unto vanitie, nor sworne to deceyue his neyghbour.

He shall receyue the blesyng from the Lorde: and righteousnes from the God of his saluacion.

This is the generacion of them that seke hym: euen of them that seke thy face, O Jacob.

Lyft up your heades O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye euerlastyng doores, and the kyng of glory shall come in.

Who is the kyng of glory: it is the Lorde strong and mightie euen the Lorde mightie in battail.

LORDE GOD, whiche seest that we put not our trust in any thyng that we do ; mercyfully graunt that by thy power we may be defended against al aduersitie ; through Jesus Christ our Lorde.

The Epistle. 2 Cor. xi.

YE suffre fooles gladly, seyng ye yourselves are wise. For ye suffre if a man bring you into bondage : yf a man deouore : yf a man take : if a man exalte himselfe : if a man smite you on the face. I speake as concerning rebuke, as though we had been weake in this behalfe. Howbeit, wherinsoeuer any man dare be bolde (I speake folishly) I dare be bolde also. They are Hebrues, euen so am I. They are Israelytes, euen so am I. They are the seede of Abraham, euen so am I. They are the ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more : In labours more aboundaunt : In stripes aboue measure : In prison more plenteously : In death ofte : Of the Jewes fwe tymes receiued I xl. stripes sauе one : Thrise was I beaten with röddes : I was once stoned. I suffered thrise shipwracke. Night and day haue I been in the depe sea. In iorneyng often ; in parels of waters, in parels of robbers ; in iepardyes of myne owne nacion ; in iepardyes among the heathen ; in parels in the citie ; in parels in wyldernes ; in parels in the sea ; in parels among false brethren ; in labour and trauayle ; in watchynges often ; in hunger and thirst ; in fastynges often ; in colde and in nakednes ; besyde the thynges whiche outwardly happen unto me. I am combred dayly, and do care for al congregacions. Who is weake, and I am not weake ? who is offended, and I burne not ? If I muste nedes boast, I wyll boast of the thynges that concerne myne infirmities. The God and father of our lorde Jesus Christ, whiche is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lye not.

The Gospel. Luke viii.

WHEN muche people were gathered together, and were come to hym out of all cities, he spake by a similitude : The sower went out to sowe his seede : and as he sowed, some fell by the way-syde, and it was troden doun, and the foules of the ayre deououred it up. And some fell on stones, and as sone as it was sprong up, it withered awaye, because it lacked moystnes. And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprang up with it and choked it. And some fell on good ground, and sprong up, and bare fruite an hundreth-folde. And as he sayd these thinges, he cryed ; he that hath eares to heare, let him heare. And his disciples asked hym, saying, what maner of similitude is this? And he sayd ; unto you it is geuen to know the kyngdome of God, but to other by parables ; that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare they should not understande. The parable is this : The seede is the worde of God : those that are beside the way, are they that heare : then commeth the deuil and taketh the worde out of their hertes, leste they should beleue, and be sauied. They on the stones, are they whiche when they heare, receiue the woerde with ioye ; and these haue no rotes, whiche for a while beleue, and in tyme of temptacion go away. And that whiche fell among thornes, are they whiche when they haue heard, go furth, and are choked with cares, and riches, and voluptuous lyuing, and bryng furth no fruite. That whiche fell in the good grounde, are they whiche with a pure and good heart, heare the woerde and kepe it, and bryng furth fruite through pacience.

BE thou my judge, O lorde, for I haue walked innocently : my trust hath been also in the lorde, therfore shal I not fal.

Examyne me, O Lord, and proue me : trye out my reynes and my heart.

For thy louyng-kyndnes is before myne eyes : and I will walke in thy trueth.

I haue not dwelt with vaine persons : neither wil I haue fellowship with the deceiptful.

I haue hated the congregacion of the wicked : and will not syt among the ungodly.

I will washe my handes in innocency, O lorde : and so will I go to thine auulter ;

That I may shewe the voyce of thankesgeuyng : and tell of all thy wonderous workes.

Lorde, I haue loued the habitacion of thy house : and the place where thyne honor dwelleth.

O shut not up my soule with the synners : nor my life with the bloudthirsty;

In whose handes is wickednes : and their right hande is full of giftes.

But as for me I will walke innocently : O lorde deliuer me, and be merciful unto me.

My foote standeth righte : I will praise the Lorde in the congregacions.

The Collect.

O LORDE whiche doeste teache us that all our doynges withoute charitie are nothyng woorthe ; sende thy holy ghost, and powre into our heartes that most excellent gyft of charitie, the very bond of peace and al vertues, without the whiche whosoeuer liueth is counted dead before thee : Graunte this for thy onlye sonne, Jesus Christes sake.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. xiii.

THOUGH I speake with the tongues of men and of angels, and haue no loue, I am euen as sounding brassee, or as a tynklyng Cimbal. And though I could prophecy, and understande all secretes, and all knowlege ; yea, if I haue al faith, so that I coulde moue mountaines out of their places, and yet haue no loue, I am nothyng. And though I bestowe all my goodes to fede the poore, and though I gaue my bodye euen that I burned, and yet haue no loue, it profyteth me nothyng. Loue suffreth longe, and is curteous ; loue enuith not ; loue dothe not fowardely, swelleth not, dealeth not dishonestly, seketh not her owne, is not prouoked to anger, thynkethe none euyll, reioyseth not in iniquitie. But reioyseth in the trueth, suffreth all thynges, beleueth all thynges, hopeth all thynges, endureth all thynges.

Though that propheciyng fayle, either tongues cease, or knowlege vanishe awaye, yet loue falleth neuer awaye. For our knowlege is unperfekte, and our propheciyng is unperfekte : But when that, which is perfect, is come, then that whiche is unperfekt shalbee done awaye. When I was a childe I spake as a chylde ; I understande as a childe, I imagined as a chylde. But as sone as I was a man, I put away childishnes. Nowe we see in a glasse, euen in a darke speakyng ; but then shall wee see face to face. Nowe I knowe unperfectly, but then shall I know euen as I am knownen. Nowe abideth fayth, hope, and loue : euen these thre ; but the chiefe of these is loue.

The Gospell. Luke xviii.

JESUS toke unto him the xii, and sayd unto them : beholde, we go up to Jerusalem, and all shalbe fulfylled that are written by the Prophetes, of the sône of man. For he shalbe deliuered unto the gentyles, and shalbe mocked and despitefully intreated and spitted on. And when they haue scourged him, they will put hym to death, and the third day he shall ryse again. And they understande none of these thinges. And this saying was hyd from them, so that they perceyued not the thynges whiche were spoken. And it came to passe, that as he was come nigh unto Hierico, a certain blind mā sate by the hyewayside beggyng. And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant. And they sayd unto him, that Jesus of Nazareth passed by. And he cried, saying : Jesu thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me. And they whiche went before rebuked hym, that he shoulde holde his peace. But he cryed so muche the more, thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me. And Jesus stooode styl, and commaunded him to be brought unto hym. And when he was come nere, he asked hym, saying, what wilt thou that I do unto the? and he sayd, Lord, that I may receyue my sight. And Jesus sayd unto him, receiue thy syght, thy faith hath sauad thee. And immediatly, he receyued his syght, and folowed hym, praysing God. And all the people, when they saw it, gaue praise unto God.

The Epistle. Joel ii.

TURNE you unto me with all your hartes, with fasting, wepyng, and mournyng : rent your heartes, and not your clothes. Turne you unto the Lorde your god : for he is gracious and mercyfull, long-sufferyng, and of greate compassion, and ready to pardo wickednes. Then (no doubt) he also shall turne and forgueue : and after his chastenyng, he shall let youre increase remaine for meat and drynke offerynges unto the Lorde your God. Blowe out with the Trompet in Sion, proclayme a fasting, call the congregacion, and gather the people together ; warne the congregacion, gather the elders, bryng the children and sucklynges together. Let the brydgrome go furth of his chambre, and the bryde out of her closet. Let the priestes serue the Lorde betwene the Porche and the alter, wepyng and saiying : be fauorable, O Lorde, bee fauorable unto thy people : let not thyne heritage be brought to such confusion, leste the heathen be lordes thereof : Wherefore shoulde they say among the Heathen, Where is nowe their God ?

The Gospell. Matt. vi.

But thou, when thou fastest, annointe thine head, and washe thy face, that it appeare not unto menne howe that thou fasteste, but unto thy father whiche is in secrete : and thy father, which seeth in secrete, shal reward thee openly. Laye not uppe for yourselues treasure upō earth, where the rust and moth doth corrupt, and where theues breake throughe and steale. But Laye up for you treasures in heauen, where neither ruste nor moth dothe corrupte, and where theues doe not breake throughe nor steale. Beati, quorum. Psalm xxxii.

BLESSED is he, whose unrighteousnes is forgueuen : and whose sinne is couered.

For this shall every one that is Godly, make his prayer unto thee, in a tyme when thou maiest bee found : but in the greate water-floudes, they shall not come nye hym.

Thou arte a place to hyde me in, thou shalte preserue me from

The Epistle. 2 Cor. vi.

WE, as helpers exhort you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vayne. For he sayeth, I haue heard thee in a tyme accepted: and in the daye of saluacion haue I succoured thee. Beholde nowe is that accepted time ; beholde nowe is that day of saluacion. Let us geue no occasion of euil, that in our office be fōude no faute, but in all thynges let us behaue ourselues as the ministers of God ; In much pacience, in afflictions, in necessities, in anguyshes, in strypes, in prysommentes, in strifes: in labours, in watchynges, in fastinges, in purenes, in knowlege, in long-suffring, in kindnes, in the holy goste, in loue unfayned, in the woorde of trueth, in the power of God: by the armoure of righteousnes of the ryghte hand and on the left ; by honoure and dyshonoure ; by euill reporte and good reporte ; as deceyuers and yet true ; as unknownen and yet knownen ; as dying, and beholde we lyue ; as chastened and not killed ; as sorowyng and yet alway mery ; as poore and yet make many riche : as hauing nothyng, and yet possessing all thynges.

tempter came to hym, he sayed . Yf thou be the sonne of God, commaunde that these stones be made bread. But he aunswered and sayed : it is wrytten, man shall not lyue by bread only, but by euerie worde that procedeth out of the mouthe of God.

Then the deuill taketh hym up into the holy ctye and setteth hym on a pynacle of the temple, and sayeth unto him, if thou be the sōne of God, cast thyself downe hedlong. For it is wrytten, he shall geue his Aungels charge ouer thee, and with their hādes they shall holde thee up, leste at any tyme thou dashe thy foote against a stone. And Jesus sayed unto hym, It is written agayne : Thou shalt not tempte the Lorde thy God.

Agayne, the deuill taketh hym up into an exedyng high mountayne, and sheweth hym all the kyngdomes of the worlde, and the glory of them ; and sayeth unto him : all these wyl I geue thee, if thou wyl fall downe and wurship me. Then sayeth Jésus unto hym, Auoide, Sathā, for it is wrytten, Thou shalt wurshyp the Lord thy God, and hym onely shalt thou serue. Then the deuill leaueth hym, and beholde, the Aungels came and ministred unto hym.

For this is the wyl of God, euen youre holynes, that ye should abstayne from fornicacion, and that euery one of you should knowe howe to kepe his vessel in holines and honoure, and not in the luste of concupiscence, as do the Heathen, whiche knowe not God; that no man oppresse and defraude his brother in bergaining; because that the lorde is the auenger of all suche thynges, as we tolde you before and testified. For God hath not called us unto unclennesse, but unto holines. He therfore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, whiche hathe sente his holye spirite among you.

The Gospell. Matt. xv.

JESUS went thence, and departed into the coastes of Tyre and Sidon: and behold, a woman of Canaan (whiche came out of the same coastes) cried unto hym, saying: haue mercye on me, O Lorde, thou sonne of Dauid; My daughter is pyteously vexed with a deuell. But he aunswered her nothing at all. And his disciples came and besought hym, saying; sende her awaye, for she cryeth after us. But he aunswered and saied; I am not sent, but to the lost shepe of the house of Israell. Then came she and worshipped hym, saying; Lorde, helpe me. He aunswered and saied: it is not mete to take the childrens bread, and cast it to dogges. She aunswered and saied: trueth Lorde, for the dogges eate of the crummes whiche fall from their maisters table. Then Jesus aunswered and sayed unto her: O woman, great is thy faith, be it unto thee, euen as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole euen at the same tyme.

The Epistle. Ephes. v.

Be you the folowers of God as dere children and walke in loue, euen as Christe loued us, and gaue himselfe for us an offring and a sacrifice of a swete sauour to god. As for fornicacion, and all unclennes or couetousnes, let it not be once named among you, as it becommeth sainctes ; or fylthynes, or folishe talking, or iesting, whiche are not comely, but rather geuing of thankes. For this ye knowe, that no whoremōger, either uncleane person, or couetous persō, (which is a worshipper of ymages,) hathe anye inheraunce in the kingdome of Christ and of God. Let no man deceue you with vaine wordes. For because of suchē thynges, commeth the wrath of God upon the chyldren of disobedience. Be` not ye therfore companions of them. Ye were sometime darckenes, but nowe are ye light in the lorde : walke as children of light, for the fruite of the spirite consisteth in all goodnes, and righteousnesse, and truthe. Accepte that whiche is pleasyng unto the Lorde, and haue no fellowship with the unfrutiful worke of darcknes, but rather rebuke them. For it is a shame euen to name those thynges, whiche are done of them in secrete : but all thinges when they are brought forth by the light are manifest. For whatsoeuer is manifest, the same is lyght: wherfore he sayeth, awake, thou that slepest, and stande up from death ; and Christ shall geue thee light.

The Gospell. Luke xi.

JESUS was casting out a deuel that was dōme. And when he had cast the deuel, the dōme spake, and the people wondered. But some of them saied, He casteth out deuils through Belzebub, the chiese of the deuels. And other tempted him, and required of him a signe from heauen. But he knowyng their thoughtes, sayed unto them ; Euery kyngdome deuided against it selfe, is desolate ; and one house doth fall upon another. If Sathan also be deuided against hymselfe, howe shall his kyngdome endure ? Because ye saye that I cast out deuels through Belzebub : If I by the helpe of Belzebub caste oute deuels, by whose helpe do your chyldren caste them oute ? Therfore shall they be youre iudges. But if I with the fynger of God caste out deuels, no doubt the kingdome of God is come uppon you. When a strong man armed watcheth his house; the thinges that he possesseth are in peace. But when a stronger than he commeth upon hym, he taketh from hym all his harnes (wherin he trusted) and deuideth his goodes. He that is not with me, is against me. And he that gathereth not with me scattereth abrode. When the uncleane spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through drye places, sekyng rest. And when he fyndeth none, he sayeth: I will returne agayne into my house whence I came out. And when he commeth, he fyndeth it swepte and garnisshed. Then goeth he and taketh to hym vii. other spirates worse then himselfe; and they entre in and dwell there. And the ende of that man is worse than the beginning. And it fortuned that as he speake these thinges, a certayne woman of the company lifte up her voice, and saied unto hym: happy is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which gaue thee sucke. But he sayd: yea, happy are they that heare the woorde of God and kepe it.

Deus noster refugium. Psalm xlvi.

GOD is oure hope and strength; a very presente helpe in trouble. Therfore wil not we feare, though the earth be moued: and though the hilles be caryed in the middest of the sea.

Though the waters therof rage and swell: and though the mountaines shake at the tempest of the same.

The ryuers of the floude therof shall make glad the citie of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the moste highest.

God is in the middest of her, therfore shall she not be remoued: God shall helpe her, and that ryght early.

The heathen make muche adoe, and the kyngdomes are moued: but God hath shewed his voyce, and the earth shall mealte awaye.

The Lord of hostes is with us: the God of Jacob is oure refuge.

O come hither, and beholde the workes of the Lord: what destruccion he hath brought upon the earth.

He maketh warres to ceasse in all the worlde: he breaketh the bowe, and knappeth the speare in sunder, and burneth the Chariotes in the fyre.

Be stylly then, and knowe that I am God: I wylbe exalted among the Heathen, and I wylbe exalted in the earth.

Glory be to the father, &c.

The Epistle. Gal. iv.

TELL me, (ye that desyre to be under the lawe) doe ye not heare of the lawe? For it is written that Abraham had ii. sonnes, the one by a bondemayne, the other by a fre-woman. Yea, and he whiche was borne of the bond-woman, was borne after the fleshe; but he whiche was borne of the fre-woman, was borne by promes: Whiche thinges are spoken by an allegory. For these are two testametes, the one from the mount Sina, whiche gendreth unto bondage, whiche is Agar: For mount Sina is Agar in Arabia, and bordreth upon the citie, which is nowe called Jerusalem, and is in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem, whiche is aboue, is free, whiche is the mother of us al. For it is wrytten, reioyce thou barren that bearest no children; breake forthe and crye, thou that trauaylest not. For the desolate hath many moe children than she whiche hath an husbande. Brethren, we are after Isaac the chyldren of promes. But as then, he that was borne after the fleshe persecuted hym that was borne after the spirite; Euen so is it nowe. Neuerthelesse, what sayeth the scripture? put away the bonde-woman and her sonne. For the sonne of the bonde-woman shall not bee heire with the sonne of the fre-woman: So then brethren, we are not children of the bonde-woman, but of the fre-woman.

The Gospell. John vi.

JESUS departed ouer the sea of Galile, which is the sea of Tiberias, and a great multitude folowed him, because thei sawe his miracles whiche he dyd on them that were diseased. And Jesus went up into a mountayne, and there he sate with his disciples. And Easter, a feaste of the Jewes, was nye. Whē Jesus then lift up his iyes, and sawe a great company come unto him, he sayeth unto Philip; whence shall we bye bread that these may eate? Thys he sayd to proue him; for he himselfe knewe what he woulde dooe. Philip aunswered him; two hundredre peniwoorthe of bread are not sufficient for them, that euery manne may take a litle. One of his disciples (Andrew, Simō Peters brother) saith unto him; There is a lad here which hath fyue barley-loaues, and twoo fysches: but what are they among so many? And Jesus sayde: make the people sit downe. There was muche grasse in the place: so the men sate downe, in number about fие thousand. And Jesus toke the bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he gaue to the Discyphles, and the Discyphles to them that were set downe: and lykewyse of the fysches as muche as they woulde. When they had eaten inough, he sayde unto his Discyphles; gather up the broken meate whiche remayneth, that nothing be lost. And they gathered it together and filled xii. baskets with the broken meate of the fие barley-loaues; which broken meate remayned unto them that had eaten. Then those men (when they had seene the miracle that Jesus did) sayde : this is of a trueth the same prophete that shoulde come into the worlde.

SAUE me (O god) for thy name's sake : and auenge me in thy strength.

Heare my prayer (O God) : and harken unto the woordes of my mouth.

For straungers are rysen up agaynst me : and Tirauntes (whiche haue not God before theyr iyes) seke after my soule.

Beholde, god is my helper : the Lorde is with them that upholde my soule.

He shall rewarde euell unto myne enemyes : destroye thou them in thy trueth.

An offering of a free hart will I geue thee, and praise thy Name (O lorde) : because it is so comfertable.

For he hath delyuered me out of all my trouble : and myne iye hath seene his desire upon myne enemies.

WE beseche thee, almyghtie God, mercifullye to looke upon thy people ; that by thy greate goodnesse they may be gouerned and preserued euermore, both in body and soule ; through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

The Epistle. Heb. ix.

CHRISTE being an high prieste of good thynges to come, came by a greater and a more perfecte tabernacle, not made with handes, that is to saye, not of this building ; neither by the bloud of goates and calues, but by his owne bloud he entred in once into the holy place, and founde eternall redempcion. For if the bloude of oxen and of goates, and the ashes of a younge kowe, when it was sprynkled, purifyeth the uncleane as touching the purifying of the fleshe ; howe muche more shal the bloud of Christ (which through the eternal spirite offred himselfe without spot to God) poure your conscience from dead workes for to serue the liuing god ? And for this cause is he the mediatour of the new testamente ; that through deathe whiche chaunsed for the redempcion of those transgressyons that were under the firste testamente, they whiche are called, might receyue the promes of eternall inheritaunce.

The Gospell. John viii.

WHICHE of you can rebuke me of sinne? If I saye the truthe, why doe ye not beleue me? He that is of God, heareth Goddes wordes; ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jewes, and sayd unto him; saye we, not wel, that thou art a Samaritan, and hast the deuil? Jesus answered; I haue not the deuill, but I honor my father, and ye haue dishonored me. I seke not myne owne prayse; there is one that seketh and iudgeth. Verely, verely, I saye unto you; if a manne kepe my saiying, he shall neuer see death. Then sayd the Jewes unto hym, nowe knowe we that thou hast the deuil. Abrahā is dead, and the Prophetes, and thou sayeste: If a man kepe my saiying, he shall neuer taste of deathe. Art thou greater then our father Abrahā, whiche is deade, (And the Prophetes are dead;) whome makeste thou thyselfe? Jesus aunswere: if I honor myselfe, myne honor is nothyng. It is my father that honoreth me, which ye say is your god: and yet ye haue not knownen hym; but I knowe hym. And if I saye I knowe hym not, I shalbe a lyer lyke unto you. But I knowe him, and kepe his saiying. Your father Abraham was glad to see my daye; and he sawe it, and reioyced. Then said the Jewes unto him, Thou art not yet l. yere olde, and hast thou seen Abrahā? Jesus sayde unto them: Verely, verely, I saye unto you; yer Abraham was borne, I am. Then tooke they up stones to caste at hym: but Jesus hyd hymselfe, and went out of the temple.

ALMIGHTIE and euerlastynge God, whiche of thy tender loue towarde man, haste sente our sauior Jesus Christ, to take upon him oure fleshe, and to suffre death upon the crosse, that all mankynde shoulde folowe the example of his greate humilitie ; mercifully graunte that we both folowe the example of his pacience, and be made partakers of his resurreccion ; thorough the same Jesus Christ our lorde.

The Epistle. Philipp. ii.

LET the same mynde bee in you, that was also in Christ Jesu : which when he was in the shape of God, thought it no robbery to be equal wyth God ; neuerthelesse he made himselfe of no reputacion, takyng on him the shape of a seruaunte, and beecame like unto men, and was founde in his apparel as a man. He humbled himselfe and became obediente to the death, euen the death of the crosse. Wherfore, God hath also exalted him on high, and geuen him a name whiche is aboue all names ; that in the name of Jesus euery knee shoulde bowe, bothe of thinges in beauen, and thynges in yearth, and thinges under the yearth ; and that all tōgues shoulde confesse that Jesus Christe is the lorde, unto the prayse of God the father.

The Gospell. Matt. xxvi. xxvii.

AND it came to passe, when Jesus had finished all these sayinges, he sayd unto his disciples : ye knowe that after two dayes shalbe Easter, and the sonne of man shalbe delyuered ouer to be crucified. Then assembled together the chiefe Priestes, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people unto the palace of the high priest, (which was called Cayphas,) and helde a counsayl that they might take Jesus by subteltie, and kill him. But they sayd : not on the holy daye, leste there be an uproare among the people.

When Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the Leper, there came unto hym a woman hauyng an Alabaster boxe of precious oyntment, and powred it on his head, as he sate at the bourde. But when his disciples sawe it, they had indignacion, saiynge, Whereto serueth this wast ? This oyntment might haue been weli solde and geuen to the poore. When Jesus understoode that, he sayd unto them : why trouble ye the woman ? for she hath wrought a good worke upon me. For ye haue the poore alwayes with you ; but me ye shall not haue alwayes. And in that she hath cast this oyntment on my body, she did it to bury me. Verely I say unto you : whersoeuer this gospell shalbe preached in al the worlde, there shall also this, that she hath done, be tolde for a memoriall of her. Then one of the xii (whiche was called Judas Iscarioth) went unto the chiefe priestes, and sayd unto them, what will ye geue me, and I will deliuer hym unto you? And they appointed unto him xxx pieces of siluer. And from that tyme furth he sought oportunitie to betray hym. The first day of swete bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him ; where wilt thou that we prepare for thee, to eate the Passeouer? And he sayd ; Go into the citie, to suche a man, and say unto him, the Maister sayth ; my tyme is at hand, I will kepe my Easter by thee with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them ; and they made ready the passeouer. When the euen was come, he sate doune with the xii. And as they did eate, he sayd ; Verely I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began euery one of them to say unto him ; Lorde, is it I? he aunswere and sayd ; he that dippeth his hād with me in the dishe, the same shal betraye me. The sonne of man truely goeth as it is written of him : but woe unto that man, by whom the sonne of man is betrayed. It had been good, for that man if he had not been borne. Then Judas, which betraied him, answered and sayd ; Maister, is it I? He said unto him, thou hast sayd. When they were eatyng, Jesus toke bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake it and gaue it to the disciples, and sayd, Take, eat, this is my body. And he tooke the cuppe and thanked, and gaue it them, saying ; drinke ye all of this ; For this is my bloud (whiche is of the newe testament) that is shed for many, for the remission of synnes. But I say unto you : I will not drinke hencefurth of this fruite of the vyne tree, untyll that day when I shall drynke it newe with you, in my fathers kyngdomie. And when they had sayd grace, they went out unto mount Oliuete. Then sayth Jesus unto them ; all ye shalbe offended because of me this night. For it is written ; I will smyte the shepherde, and the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroade : but after I am rysen again, I will go before you into Galilee. Peter answered and sayd unto him : though all men be offended because of thee, yet wil not I be offended. Jesus sayd unto him ; verely I say unto thee, That in this same night before the cocke crowe ; thou shalt deny me thrise. Peter sayd unto him : yea, though I should dye with thee, yet will I not deny thee : lykewyse also said all the disciples.

Then came Jesus with thē unto a farme place, (which is called Gethsemane,) and sayd unto the disciples ; Syt ye here, whyle I go and pray yonder. And he tooke with him Peter and the two sonnes of Zebede, and began to waxe sorrowful and heauy. Then sayd Jesus unto thē : My soule is heauy euen unto the death : Tary ye here and watche with me. And he went a litle farther, and fell flat on his face, and prayed, saying ; O my father if it be possible, let this cup passe frome me : neuerthelesse not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he came unto the disciples, and found them aslepe, and sayd unto Peter, what, could ye not watche with me one houre? watche and praye, that ye entre not into temptacion: the spirite is willyng, but the fleshe is weake. He went away once againe and prayed, saying; O my father, yf this cup may not passe away frō me, except I drinke of it, thy wil be fulfylled: and he came and found them aslepe agayne, for their eyes were heauy. And he left them, and went againe and prayed the third tyme, saying the same woordes. Then cōmeth he to his disciples, and sayth unto them, Slepe on now, and take your rest. Behold, the houre is at hand, and the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of synners. Ryse, let us be goyng: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

While he yet spake so, Judas one of the nombre of the xii, came, and with him a great multitude with swoordes and staues sent from the chief priestes and elders of the people. But he that betrayed hym, gaue them a token, saying: whomsoeuer I kisse, the same is he, holde him fast. And furthwith he came to Jesus, and sayd, hayle Maister, and kyssed him. And Jesus sayd unto hym, frend, wherfore art thou come? Then came they and layde handes on Jesus, and toke hym. And beholde, one of them whiche were with Jesus, stretched out his hand and drew his sworde, and stroke a seruaunt of the hye Priest, and smote of his eare. Then sayd Jesus unto hym; put up thy sworde into the sheath for all they that take the sworde, shall perishe with the sworde. Thynkest thou that I cannot nowe pray to my father, and he shall geue me euen nowe more than xii legions of Angelles? But howe then shall the scriptures bee fulfylled? For thus must it be. In that same houre sayd Jesus to the multitude: ye be come out as it were to a thefe with swordes and staues, for to take me. I sate dayly with you teaching in the temple, and ye tooke me not. But all this is done, that the scriptures of the Prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsoke him, and fled. And they toke Jesus and led him to Cayphas the hye Priest, where the Scribes and the Elders were assembled.

But Peter folowed hym afar of unto the hye Priestes palace; and went in and sate with the seruauntes, to see thende. The chiefe priestes and the elders and all the counsail sought false wytnesse against Jesus, (for to put hym to death,) but found none: yea, when many false wytnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came ii false wytnesses, and sayde: This felow sayd: I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to buylde it againe in iii dayes. And the chiefe priest arose, and sayd unto hym; aunswarest thou nothing? Why do these beare wytnes against thee? But Jesus helde his peace. And the chiefe priest aunswered and sayd unto him I charge thee by the lyuing God, that thou tel us, whether thou be Christ the sonne of God. Jesus sayd unto him: thou hast sayd. Neuerthelesse I say unto you: hereafter shall ye see the sonne of man sitting on the right hand of power, and comming in the cloudes of the skye. Then the hye priest rent his clothes, saying : he hath spoken blasphemy ; what nede we of any mo wytnesses ? Beholde, now ye haue heard his blasphemy ; what thynke ye ? They aunswered and sayd : he is worthy to dye. Then did they spyt in his face, and buffeted him with fystes. And oþer smote him on the face with the palme of their handes, saying : tel us thou Christ, who is he that smote thee ? Peter sate without in the palace, and a damosel came to him, saying : thou also wast with Jesus of Galile : but he denied before the al, saying ; I wot not what thou sayest. When he was gone out into the porche, another wenche sawe him, and sayd unto them that were there ; This felow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And agayne he denied with an oþer, saying : I do not know the man. And after a while came unto him they that stode by, and sayd unto Peter : surely thou art euē one of the ; for thy speche bewrayeth thee. Then began he to cursse and to sweare, that he knewe not the man. And immediatly the cocke krewe. And Peter remembred the worde of Jesu, whiche sayd unto him ; before the cocke krow, thou shalt deny me thrise : and he went out and wept bitterly.

When the mornyng was come, all the chiefe priestes and the elders of the people helde a coûsaill against Jesus, to put hym to death, and brought him bound, and deliuered hym unto Poncius Pylate the deputie. Then Judas (whiche had betrayed him) seyng that he was cõdemned, repêted himselfe, and brought againe the xxx plates of siluer to the chiefe priestes and elders, saying ; I have synned, betraying the innocent bloud. And they sayd ; what is that to us ? Se thou to that. And he cast downe the siluer plates in the temple, and departed, and went and haged himselfe. And the chief Priestes toke the siluer plates, and said : It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasure, because it is the price of bloud. And thei toke councell, and bought with them a potters felde, to burie straungers in. Wherefore the felde is called Haceldema, that is, the felde of bloud, untill this day. Then was fulfilled that whiche was spoken by Jeremie the prophet, saying : and thei toke xxx siluer plates, the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the children of Israel, and gaue them for the potters felde, as the Lord appointed me.

Jesus stode before the deputie, and the deputie asked hym, saying, Art thou the king of the Jewes ? Jesus sayed unto hym : thou sayest. And when he was accused of the chief priestes and elders, he answered noþyng. Then said Pilate unto hym : hearest thou not howe many witnesses they laye agaynst thee ? And he answered him to neuer a worde, insomuche that the deputie maruayled greatly. At that feaste, the deputie was woont to delyuer unto the people a prisoner, whom they would desire. He had then a notable prisoner, called Barrabas. Therfore, when they were gathered together, Pylate sayd ; whether wyll ye that I geue loce unto you, Barrabas, or Jesus whiche is called Christ? For he knewe that for enuy they had deliuered hym. When he was set doun to geue iudgement, his wyfe sent unto him, saying, haue thou nothyng to do with that iust man: For I haue suffred many thynges this day in my slepe because of hym. But the chiefe priestes and Elders persuaded the people that they shoulde aske Barrabas, and destroy Jesus. The deputie answered, and sayd unto them: whether of the twayne wyll ye that I let loce unto you? They sayd, Barrabas. Pylate sayd unto them, what shal I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all sayd unto hym, let hym be crucified. The deputie sayd: what euill hath he done? But they cried the more, saying; let hym be crucified. When Pylate sawe that he could preuayle nothyng, but that more busynes was made, he toke water and washed his handes before the people, saying; I am innocent of the blood of this iust person, ye shall see. Then answered all the people and sayd; his blood be on us, and on our children.

Then let he Barrabas loce unto them, and skourged Jesus, and deliuered hym to be crucified. Then the souldiers of the deputie toke Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto hym all the company: and they stripped hym, and put on hym a purple robe, and platted a croune of thornes, and put it upon his head, and a rede in his right hāde, and bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying: hayle kyng of the Jewes: and when they had spyt upō him, thei toke the rede, and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they toke the robe of him agayne, and put his owne rayment on him, and led him away to crucifie him. And as they came out, they found a mā of Cirene (named Symon) him they compelled to beare his crosse. And they came unto the place whiche is called Golgotha, that is to say (a place of dead men sculles) and gaue hym vyneger to drynke myngled with gall. And when he had tasted therof, he would not drynke. When they had crucified hym, they parted his garmentes, and did cast lottes: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet; They parted my garmentes among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lottes. And they sate, and watched hym there, and set up ouer bys head the cause of his death, written. This is Jesus the kyng of the Jewes. Then were there ii theues crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. They that passed by reuyled him waggyng their heade, and saying: thou that destroyedst the temple of God, and dyddest buylde it in thre daies, sauē thyselfe. If thou be the sonne of God, come doun from the crosse. Likewise also the high Priestes, mockyng hym, with the Scribes and Elders, sayd; he sauē other, hymselfe he cannot sauē. If he be the kyng of Israel, let hym nowe come doun from the crosse, and we will beleue hym. He trusted in God, let him deliuere him nowe, if he wyll haue him, for he sayed; I am the sonne of God. The theues also, whiche were crucifyed with him, cast the same in his teethe. From the sixth hour was there darkenesse ouer all the lande, untill the nynty hour. And aboute the nynty hour, Jesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Ely, Ely, lamasabathany? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Some of them that stooode there, when they heard that, sayd: This man calleth for Helias. And straightway one of them ranne and toke a sponge, and when he had fylled it full of vyneger, he put it on a reede, and gaue hym to drinke. Other sayd: let be, let us see whether Helias will come and deliuer hym. Jesus, when he had cried agayne with a loude voyce, yelded up the ghost. And beholde, the vayle of the temple did rent into two partes, from the top to the botome, and the yerth did quake, and the stones rent, and graues did open, and many bodies of saintes; whiche slept, arose and went out of the graues after his resurreccion, and came into the holy citie, and appeared unto many.

When the Centurion, and they that were with him watchyng Jesus, sawe the yerthquake and those thynges whiche happened, they feared greatly, saying; Truely, this was the sône of God. And many women were there, (beholding him afarre of,) whiche folowed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: Emong whiche was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedes children.

¶ Monday before Easter.

The Epistle. Isaiah lxiii.

WHAT is he this, that commeth from Edom, with red-colored clothes of Bosra? (whiche is so costly clothe) and commeth in so mightely with all his strength? I am he that teacheth righteousness and am of power to help. Wherfore then is thy clothyng red, and thy rayment lyke his that treadeth in the wyne presse? I haue troden the presse myselfe alone, and of all people there is not one with me.

Thus will I tread doun myne enemies in my wrath, and sette my feete upon them in mine indignacion. And their bloud shall bespryng my clothes, and so wil I stayne all my rayment. For the day of vengeance is assigned in my heart, and the yere when my people shalbe deliuered is come. I loked aboute me, and there was no man to shewe me any helpe. I meruayled that no man helde me up. Then I helde me by myne owne arme, and my feruentnes sustayned me. And thus will I tread doun the people in my wrath, and bathe them in my displeasure, and upon the eyarth will I lay their strength.

I wil declare the goodnes of the lorde, yea and the praise of the Lorde for all that he hath geuen us, for the great good that he hath done for Israel; whiche he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and accordyng to the multitude of his louyng-kyndnesses.

For he sayd : these no doubte are my people and no shrinkyng children ; and so he was their sauior. In their troubles, he was also troubled with them : and the Angell that wente furth from his presence, deliuered them. Of very loue and kyndnes that he had unto them, he redemed them. He hath borne them and caried them up, euer sence the worlde began : But after they prouoked him to wrath and vexed his holy mynde, he was their enemy, and fought agaist them himselfe. Yet remembred Israell the olde tyme of Moses and hys people, saiyng ; where is he that broughte them from the water of the sea, with them that fedde his shepe ? where is he that hath geuen his holy spirite among them ? he led the by the right hand of Moses, with his glorious arme deuidyng the water before them, (whereby he gate hymselfe an euerlastyng name) he led them in the depe, as an horsse is led in the playne, that they shoulde not stumble, as a tame beast goeth in the felde : and the breath geuen of God, geueth him rest.

Thus (O God) hast thou led thy people, to make thyselfe a glorious name withall, Looke doun then from heauen, and beholde the dwellyngplace of thy sanctuary and thy glory. Howe is it that thy gelousy, thy strengthe, the multitude of thy mercyes, and thy louynge kyndnes, will not be intreated of us ? yet art thou oure father. For Abraham knoweth us not, neither is Israell acquaynted with us : But thou Lord, art our father and redemer, and thy name is euerlastynge. O Lorde, wherfore hast thou led us out of thy way ? wherfore hast thou hardened our heartes, that we feare thee not ? Be at one with us againe, for thy seruauntes sake, and for the generacion of thyne heritage. Thy people haue had but a litle of thy Sanctuary in possession, for oure enemyes haue troden doun the holy place. And we were thyne from the beginnyng, when thou wast not their Lorde, for they haue not called upon thy name.

The Gospel. Mark xiv.

AFTER two daies was Easter, and the dayes of swet bread. And the hie Priestes and the Scribes sought how they might take him by crafte, and put him to death. But they sayde ; not in the feaste daye, leste any busynes arise among the people. And when he was at Bethany, in the house of Symon the leper, euen as he sate at meat, there came a womā hauyng an Alabaster boxe of oyntment called Narde, that was pure and costly ; and she brake the boxe, and powred it upon his head. And there were some that were not contente within themselues, and sayde : what neded this waste of oyntment ? for it myghte haue been solde for more than ccc pencē, and haue been geuen unto the poore. And they grudged agaynst her. And Jesus sayde : let her alone, why trouble ye her ? She hath done a good worke on me : for ye haue poore with you alwayes, and whensoeuer ye wyll ye may do them good; but me haue ye not always. She hath done that she coulde, she came aforehād to anoynte my body to the buriyng. Verely I saye unto you; whersoeuer this Gospell shalbe preached throughout the whole worlde, this also that she hath done, shalbe rehearsed in remembraunce of her.

And Judas Iscarioth, one of the xii, went awaie unto the hye priestes to betraye hym unto them. When they hearde that they were glad, and promised that they woulde geue him money. And he soughte howe he myghte conueniently betraye hym. And the fyrste daye of swete bread, (when they offered Passeeouer,) his disciples sayde unto him: where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou maiest eat the Passeeouer? And he sēt furth two of his disciples, and sayd unto them; go ye into the citie, and there shall mete you a man bearyng a pitcher of water, folowe him. And whithersoeuer he goeth in, saye ye unto the goodman of the house, the master sayth; where is the gest-chāber, where I shall eate Passeeouer with my disciples? And he wil shew you a great parlour paued and prepared: there make ready for us. And hys Discyplēs wente furth, and came into the citie, and founde as he had sayd unto them: and they made ready the passeeouer. And whē it was now euentide he came with the xii. And as they sate at boorde, and did eate, Jesus sayd, verely I say unto you, one of you (that eateth with me) shall betraye me. And they began to be sory, and to say to him one by one; is it I? and another sayd, is it I? he aunswere and sayd unto them: it is one of the xii, euen he that dippeth with me in the platter. The sonne of man truely goeth, as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whome the sonne of man is betrayed: Good were it for that man if he had neuer bene borne. And as they dyd eate, Jesus tooke breade, and when he had geuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue to them, and sayd: Take, eate, this is my bodye. And he toke the cup, and when he had geuen thankes he tooke it to them, and they all dranke of it. And he sayd unto them, Thys is my bloude of the new testament, whiche is shed for many. Verely I saye unto you, I will drynke no more of the fruycte of the vyne, untyll that day that I drinke it newe in the kingdome of God. And when they had sayde grace, they wente oute to the mount Oliuete.

And Jesus sayeth unto them, all ye shall be offended because of me, this night. For it is written; I will smite the shepeherd and the shepe shall bee skatered: but after that I am risen agayn, I will goe into Galile before you. Peter sayd unto him; and though all men be offended, yet wil not I. And Jesus sayeth unto him; verely I say unto the, that this day, euen in this night before the Cocke krowe twise, thou shalt denie me thre times. But he spake more vehementlye: no, if I shoulde dye with thee, I will not deny thee. Lykewise also sayde they all. And they came into a place whiche was named Gethsemany: and he sayd to hys disciples; sit ye here, while I goe asyde and pray. And he taketh with hym

Peter, and James, and John, and began to waxe abashed and to be in an agony, and sayd unto them My soule is heauy, euē unto the death ; tary ye here, and watche. And he wente furth a litle, and fell downe flat on the ground, and prayed: that if it were possible, the houre might passe from hym. And he sayd ; Abba father, al thinges are possible unto the, take away this cup from me ; neuerthelesse, not that I will, but that thou wilte bee doone. And he came and founde them sleping, and sayth to Peter: Simon slepest thou ? Couldeste thou not watche one houre ? watche ye and pray, leste ye enter into temptation, the spirite truely is ready, but the flesh is weake. And again he went aside and praied, and spake the same wordes. And he returned and found them aslepe agayne, for their iyes were heauye, neyther wiste they what to aunswere him. And he came the third time and sayde unto them : slepe hencefoorthe, and take your ease, it is enoughe. The houre is come, beholde, the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of sinners : Rise up, let us goe ; loe, he that betrayeth me is at hande. And immediately while he yet spake, cummesth Judas, (which was one of the xii,) and with him a great noumber of people with swoordes and staues, from the hye priestes, and Scribes, and elders. And he that betrayed hym, had geuen them a generall token, saiying ; whosoeuer I doe kysse, the same is he ; take hym and leade hym awaie warely. And as sone as he was come, he goth streghtway to him, and saith unto him, Master, Master ; and kissed him : and they laid their handes on hym, and toke hym. And one of them that stode by drewe out a swoerd, and smote a seruaunte of the hye priest, and cut of his eare. And Jesus aūswered, and said unto them ; ye be come out as unto a thefe with swoordes and staues for to take me : I was dayly with you in the temple teachyng, and ye toke me not : but these thynges come to passe that the Scriptures shoulde be fulfilled. And they al forsooke hym, and ranne awaie. And there folowed him a certaine yong man clothed in linnen upon the bare, and the yong men caughte hym, and he left his linnen garmente and fled from them naked. And they led Jesus awaie to the higheste pryste of all, and with hym came all the hie priestes and the Elders and the Scribes. And Peter folowed hym a greate waye of, (euen tyll he was come into the palace of the hye priest,) and he sate with the seruautes, and warmed hymselfe at the fyre. And the hie priestes and all the counsaile sought for witnes against Jesu to put hym to deathe, and founde none : for manye bare false witnesse against hym, but theyr witnesses agreed not together. And there arose certayn, and brought false witnes against hym, saiying ; wee hearde hym saye, I wyll destroye this temple that is made with handes, and within iii daies I wyll buylde another made withoute handes. But yet their witnesses agreed not together. And the hye priest stode uppe among them, and asked Jesus, saying ; aunswarest thou nothyng ? Howe is it that these beare witnesse against the? But he helde his peace, and answered nothing. Againe the hie prieste asked him, and said unto him; art thou Christ the sonne of the blessed? And Jesus said; I am. And ye shal see the sonne of manne sitting on the righte hande of power, and comming in the cloudes of heauen. Then the hie priest rent his clothes, and said, what nede we any further of wytnesses? ye haue heard blasphemy, what thynke ye? And they all cōdeimned him to be worthy of death. And some began to spyt at hym, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fystes, and to saye unto hym; arede, and the seruauntes buffeted hym on the face. And as Peter was beneth in the palace, there came one of the wenches of the hieste prieste, and when she sawe Peter warmyng himselfe, she loked on hym, and said; waste not thou also with Jesus of Nazareth? And he denied, saying, I knowe hym not, neyther wote I what thou sayest. And he wēt out into the porche, and the Cock krewe. And a damosel (when she sawe him) began again to saye to them that stode by: thys is one of them. And he denied it againe. And anone after they that stode by, said againe unto Peter: surely thou art one of them, for thou art of Galile, and thy speche agreeth thereto. But he beganne to curse and to sweare, saying, I knowe not this man of whome ye speake. And agayne the Cocke krewe, and Peter remembred the worde that Jesus had sayed unto hym; before the Cocke crowe twyse, thou shalt deny me thre tymes. And he began to wepe.

The Epistle. Esai. 1.

THE Lorde God hath opened myne eare, therfore can I not saye naye, neither withdrawe myselfe: but I offre my backe unto the smiters, and my chekes to the nyppers: I turne not my face from shame and spittynge, and the Lorde God shall helpe me, therfore shall I not bee confounded. I haue hardened my face lyke a flynte stone, for I am sure that I shall not come to confusion. He is at hande that iustifyeth me, who will then go to lawe with me? Let us stande one against another; yf there be any that will reason with me, lette hym come here forth unto me. Beholde the Lorde God standeth by me, what is he then that can condemne me? loe, they shall bee all lyke as an olde clothe, the mothe shall eate them up.

Therfore, whoso feareth the Lorde among you, lette hym heare the voyce of his seruaunte. Whoso walketh in darkenesse, and no lyght shyneth upon him, lette him put his trust in the name of the Lorde, and holde hym by his God: but take hede, ye all kyndle a fyre of the wrathe of God, and steare up the coales: walke on in the glisteryng of youre owne fyre, and in the coales that ye haue kindled. This commeth unto you from my hande, namely that ye shall slepe in sorowe.

The Gospell. Mark xv.

AND anone in the dawnynge, the hye priestes helde a counsaile with the Elders and the Scribes, and the whole congregacion, and bounde Jesus, and led hym awaye, and delyuuerd hym to Pilate. And Pilate asked hym : art thou the kyng of the Jewes ? and he answered and sayd to hym : thou saiest it. And the hie priestes accused him of many thynges. So Pilate asked him again, sayng : aunswerest thou nothing ? Beholde howe many thinges they lay to thy charge. Jesus aunswered yet nothyng, so that Pilate meruailed. At that feast Pilate dyd deliuer unto them a priesoner, whomesoeuer they woulde desire. And there was one that was named Barrabas, whiche laye bounde with them that made insurreccion : he had committed murther. And the people called unto him, and beganne to desyre him, that he woulde doe according as he had euer done unto them. Pilate answered them, sayng : will ye that I lette loce unto you the King of the Jewes ? For he knewe that the hye priestes had deliuered him of enuye. But the hye priestes moued the people, that he shoulde rather deliuer Barrabas unto them. Pilate answered againe, and saide unto them ; what will ye that I then do unto hym, whom ye cal the kyng of the Jewes ? And they cryed againe, crucifye hym. Pilate saide unto them what euill hathe he doone ? And they cryed the more feruentlye, crucifie hym. And so Pilate wyllyng to contente the people, lette loce Barrabas unto them, and deliuered up Jesus (when he had scorged him) for to be crucified. And the souldiours ledde hym awaye into the common hall, and called together the whole multitude, and they clothed hym wyth purple, and they platted a croune of thornes and crouned him withall, and began to salute him . Hayle kyng of the Jewes. And they smote hym on the heade with a reede, and did spit upon him, and bowed their knees and worshypped him. And when they had mocked him, they toke the purple of him, and put hys owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. And they compelled one that passed by called Simon of Cirene, (the father of Alexander and Rufus,) whyche came out of the feld to beare his crosse. And they brought hym to a place named Golgotha. (whiche if a manne interprete it, is the place of dead mens sculles) and they gaue him to drinke wyne mingled with mirre, but he receaued it not.

And when they had crucifyed hym, they parted hys garmentes, castyng lottes upon them what euery man shoulde take. And it was about the third houre, and they crucyfied him. And the title of hys cause was wrytten, The kyng of the Jewes. And they crucyfied with hym two theues ; the one on his right hand, and the other on hys left. And the scripture was fulfylled, which sayeth ; he was couted among the wicked. And they that went by, rayled on him ; wagging their heade and saying ; A wretche, thou that destroyest the temple and buildest it againe in thre dayes ; sauе thyselfe and come dounē from the crosse. Lykewyse also mocked hym the hye priestes among themselues, with the scribes, and sayd ; he sauēd other men, himselfe he cannot sauē. Let Christ the king of Israel descendē nowe from the crosse, that we maye see and beleue. And they that were crucyfied with hym, checked hym also. And when the sixt houre was come, darcknes arose ouer all the earth until the ninth houre. And at the nynt houre Jesus cryd with a loude voyce, saying ; Eloy, Eloy, lamasabathany ? whyche is, (if one interprete it,) my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stoođe by, when they heard that, sayd ; behold, he calleth for Helias. And one ranne and fylled a sponge full of vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue hym to dryncke, saiynge ; let him alone, let us se whether Helias will come and take hym downe. But Jesus cryd with a loude voyce, and gaue up the gost. And the vayle of the temple rente in ii peces, from the top to the bottom. And when the Centurion (which stoođe before him) sawe that he so cryd, and gaue up the gost, he sayde : truely this man was the sonne of god. There were also weomen a good way of, beholding him : among whome was Marye Magdalene and Marye the mother of James the litle, and of Joses, and Mary Salome (which also whē he was in Galile had followed him, and ministred unto him;) and many other weomē, which came up with him to Jerusalem. And nowe when the euen was come, (because it was the day of preparyng that goeth before the Sabbath,) Joseph of the citie of Aramatia, a noble couſailor, whiche also loked for the kingdome of God, came and went in boldely unto Pilate, and begged of hym the body of Jesu. And Pilate marueiled that he was alredy dead, and called unto hym the Centurion, and asked of him, whether he had bene any while dead. And when he knewe the trueth of the Centurion, he gaue the bodye to Joseph. And he bought a linnen cloth, and toke him down, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and laied him in a sepulchre that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone before the dore of the sepulchre. And Mary Magdalene, and Mary Joses behelde where he was layde.

The Epistle. Heb. ix.

WHEREAS is a testament, there must also (of necessitie) be the death of him that maketh the testament. For the testament taketh auctoritie whē men are dead ; for it is yet of no value, as long as he that maketh the testament is aliue, for whiche cause also, neither the first testament was ordayneđ without bloude. For when Moyses had declared all the commaundemente to all the people, according to the lawe, he tooke the bloude of calues and of Goates, with water, and purple wolle, and ysope, and sprinckled both the booke, and al the people, saying: this is the bloud of the testament, which god hath appoynted unto you. Moreouer, he sprinkled the tabernacle with bloude also, and all the ministring vessels. And almost all thinges are by the lawe purged with bloud, and without sheading of bloude is no remission. It is nede then, that the similitudes of heauenlye thynges bee purifyed with suche thinges; but that the heauenlye thynges themselves, bee purifyed with better sacrifices the are those. For Christ is not entred into the holye places that are made with handes, (whiche are similitudes of true thynges,) but is entred into very heauen, for to appeare now in the sight of god for us; not to offer himselfe often, as the hie priest entreth into the holye place euerye yere with straunge bloud: for then must he haue oftē suffred sence the world began. But now in the end of the world hath he appeared once, to put sinne to flight by the offeryng up of hymselfe. And as it is appoynted unto al men that they shal once dye, and then cometh the iudgement: euen so Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and unto them that looke for hym shall he appeare agayne without sinne unto saluacion.

The Gospel. Luke xxii.

THE feast of swete bread drew nye, which is called Easter, and the hye priestes and Scribes sought howe they myght kill him; for they feared the people. Then entred Sathan into Judas, whose surname was Iscarioth (whiche was of the numbre of the xii) and he went his waye and commonden with the hye priestes and officers, how he might betray hym unto them. And they were glad, and promysed to geue him moneye. And he consented, and sought oportunitie to betraye him unto them when the people were awaye. Then came the daye of swete breade, when of necessitie passeeouer must be offred. And he sent Peter and John, saying; go and prepare us the passeeouer, that we maye eate. They sayed unto him; wherē wilt thou that we prepare? And he saied unto them; behold, when ye entre into the citie, there shall a man mete you bearing a pitcher of water, him folowe into the same house that he entreth in, and ye shall saye unto the good man of the house; the maister saieth unto the; where is the gest-chambre, where I shall eate the passeeouer with my disciples? And he shall shewe you a greate parlour paued; there make ready. And they went, and found as he had sayed unto them, and they made ready the passeeouer. And when the houre was come, he sat doun, and the xii Apostles with him. And he sayed unto them; I haue inwardly desired to eate this passeeouer with you before that I suffre. For I saye unto you; henceforth I wyll not eate of it any more, untill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God. And he tooke the cup, and gaue thankes, and sayed; Take this and deuide it amōg you. For I saye unto you; I wyll not drinke of the fruite of the vine, untill the kingdome of God come. And he toke bread, and when he had geuen thankes, he brake it, and gaue unto them, saying ; This is my body, whiche is geuen for you : This do in the remembraunce of me. Likewyse also when he had supped, he tooke the cup, saying ; This cup is the new testamente in my bloude, whiche is shed for you. Yet beholde, the hande of him that betraith me is with me on the table. And truely the sonne of man goeth as it is appoynted ; but woe unto that manne by whom he is betrayed. And they began to enquire among themselves which of them it was that shold do it.

And there was a striefe among them, whiche of them shoulde seme to bee greateste. And he sayde unto them ; the kynges of nacions reigne ouer them, and they that haue authoritey upon them, are called gracious Lordes: but ye shall not so bee. But he that is greateste among you, shal bee as the yonger, and he that is chiefe shalbe as he that doth minister. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meate, or he that serueth ? Is it not he that sitteth at meate ? But I am among you, as he that ministreth. Ye are they which haue bydden with me in my temptacions. And I appoynete unto you a kyngdome, as my father hath apointed to me, that ye may eate and drynke at my table in my kyngdome, and sitte on seates, iudgyng the xii tribes of Israell. And the lorde said ; Simon, Simon behold, Sathan hath desired to sift you, as it were wheat : But I haue praied for thee, that thy faith fayle not : And when thou arte conuerted, strength thy brethren. And he saide unto hym ; Lorde, I am readye to go with thee into prieson, and to death. And he said ; I tel thee Peter, the Cocke shall not krow this daye, tyl thou haue thrise denied that thou knowest me. And he sayde unto them ; when I sent you without wallette, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thyng ? And they said, no. Then saide he unto them ; but nowe he that hath a wallette, lette him take it uppe, and lykewyse hys scrippe. And he that hath no sworde, let hym sell his coate, and by one. For I saye unto you, that yet the same whiche is written must be performed in me ; euen among the wicked was he reputed : For those thinges whiche are written of me haue an ende. And they sayde : lorde, behold, here are ii swordes, and he saide unto them ; it is yngouge : And he came oute, and wente (as he was wonte) to Mounte Oliuete. And the disciples folowed hym. And when he came to the place, he saide unto them ; praye, leste ye fal into temptation. And he gate hymselfe from them aboute a stones caste, and kneled doun and praied, saiying ; Father, if thou wilte, remoue thys cup from me : Neuerthelesse, not my will, but thyne bee fulfilled. And there appeared an Aungel unto hym from heauen, coumfortyng hym. And he was in an agony and prayed the lenger ; and his sweate was like droppes of bloud, trickling down to the groud. And when he arose from prayer, and was come to hys disciples, he founde them slepyng for heauiness, and he sayde unto them ; why slepe ye ? Ryse and praye, leste ye fall into temptation. Whyle he yet spake, beholde, there came a company, and he that was called Judas, one of the xii, went before them, and preased nye unto Jesus, to kisse him. But Jesus sayde unto him ; Judas, betrayeste thou the sonne of man with a kysse ? When they whiche were about hym sawe what woulde folowe, they sayde unto him ; Lorde, shall we smyte with the swoerde ? And one of them smote a seruaunte of the hye prieste, and stroke of his right eare. Jesus aunswered and sayde : suffre ye thus farre foorth. And when he touched hys eare, he healed hym. Then Jesus sayde unto the hye priestes, and rulers of the temple, and the Elders, whiche were come to him. Ye be come out as unto a thefe, with swoordes and staues. When I was dayly with you in the temple, ye stretched foorth no handes agaynst me : but thys is euen your very houre, and the power of darkenes. Then toke they him and led hym, and brought him to the hye priestes house. But Peter folowed afarre of. And when they had kindled a fyre in the middes of the palace, and were set downe together ; Peter also sate downe among them. But when one of the wenches behelde him, as he sate by the fyre, (and loked upon him,) she sayd ; this same felowe was also with hym. And he denyed him, saying : woman, I knowe him not. And after a litle whyle, another sawe him, and sayde : thou art also of them. And Peter sayd ; man, I am not. And about the space of an houre after, another affirmed, saying ; verely, thys felowe was with him also, for he is of Galile. And Peter said, man, I wot not what thou sayeste. And immedately whyle he yet spake, the Cocke krew. And the Lorde turned backe and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembred the word of the lord, how he had sayde unto him ; before the Cocke krowe thou shalt denye me thrise : and Peter wente out and wept bitterly.

And the men that toke Jesus mocked him, and smote him : and whē they had blindfolded him, they stroke him on the face, and asked hym, saying ; arede, who is he that smote thee ? And many other thynges despitefully sayde they agaynst him. And as sone as it was daye, the Elders of the people, and the hye priestes and Scrybes, came together, and led hym into theyr counsell, saying ; Art thou very Christ ? tell us. And he sayd unto them, if I tell you ye will not beleue me, and if I aske you, you will not answer me, nor let me goe : hereafter shal the sonne of mā sit on the right hande of the power of god. Then sayd they all ; Art thou then the sonne of god ? He sayde : ye saye that I am. And they sayd ; what nede we of any further witnes ? for we ourselues haue heard of his owne mouth.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. xi.

THIS I warne you of, and commende not, that ye come not together after a better maner, but after a woorse. For fyrste of all, when ye come together in the congregacyon; I heare that there is discencion among you, and I partly beleue it. For there muste bee sectes amonige you, that they whiche are perfecte among you maye be knownen. When ye come together therfore into one place, the lordes supper cānot be eaten, for every man beginneth afore to eate his owne supper. And one is hungry, and another is dronken. Haue ye not houses to eate and drynke in? despise ye the congregacion of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say unto you? shall I praise you? In this I praise you not. That whiche I deliuered unto you, I receyued of the Lord. For the Lord Jesus, the same night in whiche he was betrayed, tooke bread; and when he had geuen thankes, he brake it, and sayd, Take ye and eate, this is my body, which is broken for you. This do ye in the remembraunce of me. After the same maner also he tooke the cup whē supper was done, saying; this cuppe is the new testament in my bloud: This do, as oft as ye drynk it, in remembraunce of me. For as often as ye shall eate this bread, and driñke this cup, ye shall shewe the Lordes death tyll he come. Wherfore, whosoeuer shall eate of this bread, or drynke of the cup of the Lorde unworthely, shalbe giltie of the bodye and bloud of the Lord. But let a man examine himselfe, and so let hym eate of the bread, and drynke of the cuppe. For he that eateth and drynketh unworthely, eateth and drynketh his own damnacion, because he maketh no differēce of the Lordes body. For this cause many are weake and sicke among you, and many slepe. For if we had iudged ourselues, we should not haue been iudged. But when we are iudged of the Lord, we are chastened, that we should not be damned with the worlde. Wherfore my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tary one for another. If any mā hongre, let him eate at home; that ye come not together unto condemnacion. Other thynges will I set in ordre when I come.

The Gospell. Luke xxiii.

THE whole multitude of them arose, and led hym unto Pylate. And they began to accuse him, saying; we founde this felowe peruryting the people, and forbydding to paye tribute to Cesar; saying that he is Christe a kyng. And Pylate apposed hym, saying; art thou the king of the Jewes? he answered him and sayd, thou sayest it. Then sayd Pilate to the hye priestes and the people ; I fynde no faute in this manne. And they were the more fierce, saying ; he moueth the people, teachyng throughout all Jury, and began at Galile, euen to this place. When Pylate heard mencion of Galile, he asked whether the manne were of Galile. And as sone as he knew that he belonged unto Herodes iurisdiction, he sent hym to Herode, whiche was also at Jerusalem at that tyme. And when Herode sawe Jesus he was exedyng glad ; for he was desirous to see hym of a long season, because he had heard many thinges of hym, and he trusted to haue seen some myracle done by hym. Then he questioned with hym many wordes. But he answered hym nothyng. The hye priestes and Scribes stode furth and accused him straightly. And Herode with his menne of warre despised hym. And when he had mocked hym, he arayed hym in whyte clothing, and sente him againe to Pylate. And the same daye Pylate and Herode were made frendes together. For before thei were at variaūce. And Pilate called together the hye priestes, and the rulers, and the people, and sayd unto them ; ye haue brought this mā unto me, as one that peruertere the people : and, behold, I examine hym before you, and finde no faute in this mā of those thynges wherof ye accuse him, no nor yet Herode : For I sent you unto him, and loe, nothing worthy of death is done unto him : I will therfore chasteñ him and let hym looce. For of necessitie he must haue let one loce unto theā at that feast. And all the people cryed at once, saying ; away with him, and deliuer us Barrabas : (whiche for a certayne insurreccion made in the citie, and for a murther, was cast in prisō.) Pilate spake again unto theā, willing to let Jesus looce. But they cryed, saying ; crucifye hym, crucifye hym. He sayed unto them the thirde tyme, what euyll hath he done ? I fynde no cause of death in hym : I will therfore chasteñ hym, and let him go. And they cried with loude voices ; requiring that he myght be crucifyed. And the voices of them and of the hie priestes preuailed, And Pilate gaue sentōce that it shoulde be as they required, and he let loce unto them him that (for insurreccion and murther) was cast into prysōn, whom they had desired ; and he deliuered to them Jesus, to do with hym what they woulde. And as they led him away, they caught one Symon of Ciren, commyng out of the fielde : and on him laide they the crosse, that he myght beare it after Jesus. And there folowed him a great cōpanye of people, and of womē, which bewayled and lamented him. But Jesus turned backe unto them, and sayd ; ye daughters of Jerusalem, wepe not for me ; but wepe for yourselves, and for your children. For beholde, the dayes wyl come, in the which they shall say ; Happy are the baren, and the wombes that neuēr bare, and the pappes which neuēr gaue sucke. Then shall they begynne to saye to the mountaynes ; fall on us, and to the hilles, couer us. For if they do this in a grene tree, what shalbe done in the drye ? And there were two euylldoers led with him to be slaine. And after that they were come to the place (which is called Caluarie), there they cruceyfied him, and the euilldoers, one on the ryght hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, father forgeue them, for they wote not what they do. And they parted hys rayment, and cast lottes. And the people stoode and behelde. And the rulers mocked hym with them, saiying : he sauued other menne, lette hym sauue hymselfe yf he be very Christ the chosen of God.

The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offred him vineger, and sayd ; if thou be the kyng of the Jewes, sauue thyselfe. And a superscripciō was writtē ouer him with letters of Greke, and Latin, and Hebrue ; this is the kyng of the Jewes. And one of the euildoers, which wer hanged, railed on him, saiying : If thou be Christ, sauue thyselfe and us. But the other answered and rebuked hym, saiying ; fearest thou not God, seyng thou art in the same damnacion ? we are righteously punyshed, for we receiue according to our dedes : but this man hath done nothing amysse. And he sayd unto Jesus ; Lorde, remembre me when thou commest into thy kyngdom. And Jesus sayd unto hym, verely I saye unto thee ; to-daye shalt thou be with me in Paradise. And it was about the vi houre : and there was a darkenesse ouer all the earth untyll the ix houre, and the Sonne was darkened. And the vayle of the temple did rent, euē through the middes. And when Jesus had cryed with a loude voyce, he sayd : father, into thy handes I commende my spirite. And when he thus had said, he gaue up the ghost. When the Centurion saw what had happened, he gloryfied God, saiying ; verely this was a righteous man. And all the people that came together to that syght, and sawe the thynges which had happened, smote their brestes, and returned. And all his acquaintaunce, and the women that folowed him from Galilee, stoode afarre of beholding these thynges. And, behold, there was a man named Joseph a consailor, and he was a good man, and a iust : the same had not consented to the counsail and dede of them, which was of Aramatia, a citie of the Jewes, which same also waited for the kyngdome of God : he went unto Pylate and begged the bodye of Jesus, and tooke it doune, and wrapped it in a lynnē cloth, and layd it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherin neuer man before had beene layde. And that daye was the preparyng of the sabbeth, and the Sabbath drue on. The women that followed after, whyche had come with him from Galilee, behelde the sepulchre, and howe hys body was layde. And they returned and prepared swete Odours and ointmentes ; But rested on the Sabbath daye, accordyng to the commaundement.

Deus, Deus meus. Psalm xxii.

My God, my God, (loke upō me;) why hast thou forsaken me : and art so farre from my health, and from the wordes of my complaint?

O my God, I cry in the daye-time, but thou hearest not and in the night season also I take no reste.

And thou continuest holy. O thou worship of Israel.

Oure fathers hoped in thee : they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.

They called upō thee, and were helped . they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worme and no manne : a verye skorne of men, and the outcaste of the people.

All they that see me, laugh me to skorne they shote out their lippes, and shake the head, saying.

He trusted in God that he would deliuer hym : let hym deliuer him, if he will haue hym.

But thou arte he that tooke me oute of my mothers wombe : thou waste my hope when I hanged yet upon my mother's brestes.

I haue been left unto thee euer sence I was borne : thou art my God, euen from my mothers wombe.

O, go not from me, for trouble is here at hande : and there is none to helpe me.

Many Oxen are come aboute me : fat Bulles of Basan close me in on euery syde.

They gape upon me with their mouthes as it were a rampyng and roaryng Lyon.

I am powred out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt : my heart also in the middes of my body is euen like meltyng waxe.

My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tōgue cleaueth to my gummes : and thou shalte bryng me into the duste of death.

For (many) dogges are come aboute me : and the counsail of the wicked laye siege against me.

They pearced my handes and my feete I may tell all my bones, they stande staryng and lokyng upon me.

They parte my garmentes among them : and cast lottes upon my vesture.

But be not thou farre from me, O Lorde thou art my succour, haste thee to helpe me.

Deliuer my soule from the sworde : my derlyng from the power of the dogge.

Sau me from the Lyons mouth thou hast heard me also from among the hornes of Unicorns.

I will declare thy name unto my brethren : in the myddes of the congregacion will I prayse thee.

O prayse the Lorde, ye that feare hym : magnifie hym, all ye of the seede of Jacob, and feare ye hym, all ye seede of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the lowe estate of the poore : he hath not hid his face from him, but when he called unto him, he heard him.

My prayse is of thee in the greate congregacion : my vowes will I performe in the sight of them that feare him.

The poore shall eate, and be satisfied : they that seke after the Lorde shall praise him, your hearte shall liue for euer

All the endes of the worlde shal remembre themselues, and be turned unto the Lorde : and all the kynreds of the nacions shall woorship before him.

For the kyngdome is the Lordes : and he is the gouernour among the people.

All suche as be fat upon yearth : haue eaten, and woorshipped.

All they that go doun into the dust shal kneele before him : and no man hath quickened his owne soule.

My seede shal serue him : they shalbe counted unto the Lorde for a generacion.

They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnes : unto a people that bee borne, whome the Lorde hath made.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

ALMYGHTYE and euerlastyng God, by whose spirite the whole body of the Churche is gouerned and sanctified ; receiue our supplicacions and prayers; whiche wee offre before thee for all estates of men in thy holye congregacion, that euerye membre of the same, in his vocacion and ministerye, maye truelye and godlye serue thee ; thorough our Lord Jesus Christe.

MERCYFULL God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothyng that thou hast made, nor wouldest the deathe of a synner, but rather that he should be conuerted and liue ; haue mercy upon all Jewes, Turkes, Infidels, and heretikes, and take from the all ignoraunce, hardnes of heart, and contempt of thy word : and so fetche them home, blessed Lorde, to thy flocke, that they maye bee sauued among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one folde under one shepeherde, Jesus Christ our Lord ; who lyueth and reaigneth, &c.

The Epistle. Heb. x.

THE lawe (whiche hathe but a shadowe of good thynges to come, and not the very fashion of thynges themselues) can neuer with those sacrifices, whiche they offre yere by yere continually, make the cōmers therunto perfite. For woulde not then those sacrifices haue ceased to haue been offred, because that the offerers once purged should haue had no more conſcience of sinnes? Neuertheles in those sacrifices is there mencion made of synnes euery yeare. For the bloud of Oxen and of Goates cannot take away sinnes. Wherfore, when he commeth into the worlde, he sayeth, Sacrifice and offeryng thou wouldest not haue, but a body hast thou ordained me. Burnt-offerings also for sinne hast thou not allowed. Then sayed I ; lo, I am here. In the beginning of the booke it is written of me, that I should do thy wil, O God. Aboue, when he sayeth, Sacrifice and offeryng, and burnt sacrifices, and synne-offerynges thou wouldest not haue, neither hast thou allowed them, (whiche yet are offered by the lawe,) then sayed he ; lo, I am here to do thy wyl, O God : he taketh awaye the first to establishe the later, by the which wille, we are made holye, euen by the offeryng of the bodye of Jesu Christ once for all.

And euerie priest is ready daily ministring and offering ofteentimes one manner of Oblacion, whiche can neuer take awaye sinnes. But this man, after he hath offered one sacrifice for sinnes, is set doun for euer on the righte hand of God ; and from henceforth tarieth tyll his foes be made his footestoole. For with one offeryng hathe he made perfect for euer, them that are sanctified. The holye ghost himselfe also beareth us recorde, euen when he told before ; This is the testament that I wil make unto the : After those dayes (sayth the lord) I wil put my lawes in their heartes, and in their myndes wil I write them, and their sinnes and iniquities will I remembre no more. And where remission of these thinges is, there is no more offeryng for sinnes. Seeing therfore brethren that by the meanes of the bloud of Jesu, we haue liberty to enter into the holy place by the newe and liyng waye, which he hath prepared for us, through the vayle (that is to saye, by his fleshe) : And seyng also that we haue an hie priest whiche is ruler ouer the house of God, let us drawe nye with a true heart in a sure sayth, sprinkeled in our heartes from an euil conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water: Let us kepe the profession of our hope, without wauering; (for he is faythfull that promised) and let us considre one another, to the intent that we may prouoke unto loue, and to good weorkes, not forsakynge the felowshyp that we haue among ourselues, as the maner of some is; but lette us exhorte one another, and that so muche the more, because ye see that the day draweth nye.

The Gospel. John xviii. xix.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these woordes, he went furth with his disciples ouer the broke Cedron where was a garden, into the whiche he entred with his disciples. Judas also whiche betrayed him, knewe the place: for Jesus ofte tymes resorted thither with hys disciples. Judas then, after he had receiued a bend of men, (and ministers of the hye priestes and Phariseis,) came thither with Lanterns and fyrebrandes and weapons. And Jesus, knowing al thinges that shoulde come on him, went furth, and said unto the, whome seke ye? They answered him; Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus sayeth unto them; I am he. Judas also whiche betrayed him, stooede with them. As soone then as he had sayde unto them; I am he, they went backward, and fel to the ground. Then asked he them again; whome seke ye? They saide: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus aunswered; I haue tolde you that I am he. If ye seke me therfore, let these goe theyr way: that the saying might be fulfilled, whiche he spake; Of them whiche thou gauest me, haue I not lost one. Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hye priestes seruaunt, and cut of his right eare. The seruauntes name was Malchus. Therfore sayeth Jesus unto Peter, put up thy swerde into thy sheathe: shall I not drinke of the cup whiche my father hath geuen me? Then the company and the capitayne, and the ministers of the Jewes, toke Jesus, and bound him, and led him away to Anna first; for he was father in law to Cayphas, whiche was the hye prieste the same yere. Cayphas was he that gaue couisel to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man shoulde dye for the people. And Simon Peter folowed Jesus, and so dyd another disciple: that disciple was knownen to the hye priest, and wēt in with Jesus into the palace of the hye priest. But Peter stooede at the doore without. Then wente out that other disciple, (whiche was knownen to the hye priest,) and spake to the damosell that kept the doore, and broughte in Peter. Then said the damosel that kept the doore unto Peter; Art not thou also one of this mās disciples? he sayd, I am not. The seruauntes and ministers stode there, whiche had made a fyre of coales; for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. Peter also stode among them, and warmed himselfe. The hye priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of hys doctryne. Jesus aunswered him; I spake openly in the worlde, I euer taughte in the Sinagoge, and in the tēple, whither al the Jewes haue resorted, and in secrete haue I said nothyng. Why askest thou me? Aske them whiche heard me, what I sayde unto them. Beholde they can tell what I sayde. When he had thus spoken, one of the ministers, whiche stooode by, smote Jesus on the face, saying; Aunswerest thou the hie priest so? Jesus aunswered him; If I haue eiuill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: But if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me? And Annas sent him bounde unto Cayphas, the hie priest. Simon Peter stooode and warmed himself. Then sayde they unto him. Art not thou also one of his disciples? he denied it, and said; I am not. One of the seruantes of the hie priestes (his cosin whose eare Peter smote of) said unto him; did not I se thee in the garden with him? Peter therfore denied againe, and immediatly the Cocke krewe. Then led they Jesus from Cayphas into the hal of iudgement. It was in the morning; and they themselves wēt not into the iudgement hall, leste they should be defiled, but that thei might eate the Passeeouer. Pylate then went out to them and sayd; what accusacion bryng you against this mā? They answered and sayd unto him; If he were not an euildoer, we wold not have deliuered hym unto thee. Then sayd Pylate unto them; take ye him, and judge him after your owne lawe. The Jewes therfore sayd unto him; It is not lawful for us to put ~~any~~ man to death: that the woordes of Jesus myght bee fulfilled, whiche he spake, signifying what death he shoulde dye. Then Pilate entred into the iudgemēt hal again, and called Jesus, and sayd unto him; Art thou the king of the Jewes? Jesus answered; sayest thou that of thyself, or did other tel it thee of me? Pilate answered; am I a Jew? Thine owne nacion and hie priestes haue deliuered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus āswered; my kingdome is not of this worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, then woulde my ministers surely fight, that I shoulde not be deliuered to the Jewes: but now is my kyngdom not frō hence. Pilate therfore sayd unto hym; Art thou a kyng then? Jesus answered; thou sayest that I am a kyng. For this cause was I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I shoulde bear wytnes unto the trueth. And all that are of the trueth, heare my voyce. Pylate sayd unto hym, what thyng is trueth? And whē he had sayd this, he wēt out again unto the Jewes, and sayth unto thē; I finde in him no cause at al. Ye haue a custome, that I shoulde deliuere you one loce at Easter: wil ye that I loce unto you the king of the Jewes? Then cryed they all again, saying: Not him, but Barrabas: the same Barrabas was a murtherer. Then Pilate toke Jesus therfore and scourged hym. And the souldiers wōud a croune of thornes, and put it on his head. And thei did on hym a purple garment, and came unto hym and sayed; hayle kyng of the Jewes: and they smote hym on the face. Pylate went furth agayne, and sayed unto them; behold, I bring him furth to you, that ye may knowe that I finde no faulfe in hym.

Then came Jesus forth, wearyng a croune of thorne, and a robe of purple. And he sayth unto them ; beholde the man. When the hye priestes therfore and ministers sawe hym, they cryed ; crucifie hym, crucifye him. Pylate sayeth unto them ; take ye hym, and crucifye him, for I fynde no cause in hym. The Jewes aunswered hym ; we haue a lawe, and by oure lawe, he ought to dye ; because he made himselfe the sonne of God. When Pilate heard that saying, he was the more afayde : and went agayne into the iudgement halle, and sayeth unto Jesus ; whence art thou ? But Jesus gaue him none answer. The sayd Pilate unto him ; Speakest thou not unto me ? knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to looce thee ? Jesus answered ; Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuē thee frō aboue. Therfore he that deliuered me unto thee, hath the more sinne. And from thēcefurth sought Pilate meanes to looce him : but the Jews cryed, saying : yf thou let hym goe, thou arte not Cesar's frende : for whosoeuer maketh hymselfe a kyng is against Cesar. Whē Pilate heard that saying, he brought Jesus furth, and sate downe to geue sentence in a place that is called the Pauemēt, but in the Hebrue tong Gabbatha. It was the preparyng daye of Easter, aboue the vi houre. And he sayeth unto the Jewes ; beholde your kyng. They cryed, saying ; away with hym, away with hym, crucyfy hym. Pylate sayeth unto them ; shall I crucyfy your king ? The hye priestes aunswered ; we haue no kyng but Cesar. Then deliuered he him unto them to be crucified. And they tooke Jesus, and ledde him away. And he bare his crosse, and wente furthe into a place whiche is called the place of dead mennes sculles, but in Hebrue, Golgotha : where they crucifyed hym, and two other with hym, on eyther syde one, and Jesus in the middest. And Pilate wrote a tylte, and put it on the crosse. The wrytyng was, Jesus of Nazareth kyng of the Jewes. This tylte read many of the Jewes : for the place where Jesus was crucified was nye to the cytie. And it was wrytten in in Hebrue, Greke, and Latyn. Then sayed the hye priestes of the Jewes to Pilate ; wryte not king of the Jewes, but that he sayed, I am kyng of the Jewes. Pylate aunswered ; what I haue written, that haue I written.. Then the souldiers, when they had crucifyed Jesus, toke his garmentes, and made iiiij partes, to euery souldiour a part, and also his coate. The coate was without seme, wrought upon throughout : They sayed therfore among themselves ; let us not deuyde it, but cast lottes for it, who shall haue it. That the scripture might be fulfylled, saying ; They haue parted my raymente among them, and for my coate did they cast lottes. And the souldiours did suche thynge indeede. There stooede by the crosse of Jesus, his mother and his mothers sister Mary the wyfe of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therfore sawe his mother, and the discyple standyng, whom he loued, he sayeth unto his mother ; woman, behold thy sonne.

Then sayd he to the disciple, beholde thy mother. And from that houre the disciple toke hir for his owne.

After these thynges, Jesus knowing that all thynges were nowe performed, that the scripture myght be fulfylled, he sayeth; I thirst. So there stooede a vessell by full of vineger: therfore they fylled a sponge with vineger, and wounde it aboute with Isole, and put it to his mouthe. As sone as Jesus then receyued of the vineger, he sayed; It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaued up the gost.

The Jewes therfore, because it was the preapyng of the Sabbath, that the bodyes should not remayne upon the crosse on the Sabbath daye (for that Sabbath daye was an hye daye) besought Pylate, that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe. Then came the souldeours, and brake the legges of the firste and of the other whiche was crucified with hym. But when they came to Jesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legges: but one of the souldeours with a speare thrust him into the syde, and forthwith there came out bloud and water. And he that sawe it bare recorde, and his recorde is true. And he knoweth that he sayeth true, that ye might beleue also. For these thynges were done that the scripture should be fulfilled; ye shall not breake a bone of hym.

And againe another scripture sayth; they shall loke upon him whom they haue pearced. After this Joseph of Aramatia (which was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for feare of the Jewes) besought Pylate that he might take downe the bodye of Jesus. And Pylate gaue hym lycense: He came therfore and tooke the bodye of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus, (whiche at the begynning came to Jesus by night) and brought of Myrre and Aloes mingled together, aboute an hundredth pounde weight. Then tooke they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linnen clothes with the odoures, as the maner of the Jewes is to burye. And in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden; and in the garden a newe Sepulchre, wherein was never manne layde. There layde they Jesus therfore because of the preapyng of the Sabbath of the Jewes, for the Sepulchre was nye at hande.

Domine Deus salutis. Ps. lxxxviii.

O LORDE God of my saluacion, I haue cryed day and nyght before thee: O lette my prayer entre into thy presence, incline thyne eare unto my callyng.

For my soule is ful of trouble : and my lyfe draweth nye unto hell.

I am counted as one of them that go downe unto the pytte : and I haue been euen as a man that hathe no strengthe.

Free among the deade, lyke unto them that bee wounded and lye in the graue, whiche be out of remembraunce ; and are cut awaie from thy hande..

Thou hast layed me in the lowest pytte, in a place of darcknes ; and in the depe.

Thyne indignacion lyeth harde upon me : and thou hast vexed me with all thy stormes.

Thou hast put awaye myne acquayntaunce far from me : and made me to be abhorred of them.

I am so fast in pryon : that I cannot get forth.

My sight fayleth for very trouble : lorde, I haue called dayly upon thee, I haue stretched oute my handes unto thee.

Doest thou shewe wonders among the deade ? or shall the dead ryse up agayne and prayse thee ?

Shal thy louyngkyndenes be shewed in the graue ? or thy faithfulnes in destruccion ?

Shal thy wonderous workes be knownen in the darke ? and thy righteousnes in the land where all thinges are forgotten ?

Unto thee haue I cried, O Lord : and earlye shall my praier come before thee.

Lorde, why abhorrest thou my soule ? and hidest thou thy face from me ?

I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the point to dye : (euen from my youth uppe) thy terours haue I suffred with a troubled minde.

Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth ouer me : and the feare of thee, hath undone me.

They came rounde aboute me dayely lyke water : and compassed me together on every syde.

My louers and frendes haste thou put awaye from me : and hyd myne acquayntaunce out of my syght.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne : and to the holy ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe : worlde without ende. Amen.

The Epistle. 1 Peter iii.

IT is better (if the wyll of God be so) that ye suffre for wel doing then for euil doing. Forasmuch as Christe hath once suffered for synnes, the Just for the uniuist, to bring us to God ; and was killed as partaynyng to the fleshe, but was quickened in the spirite. In which spirite he also went and preached to the spirites that were in pryon ; which somtyme had bene disobedient, when the long-suffryng of God was once loked for in the dayes of Noe, whyle the Arke was a prepartyng ; wherin a fewe, that is to saye, eyght soules, were saueth by the water, lyke as Baptysme also nowe saueth us ; not the putting awaie of the fylth of the fleshe, but in that a good conscience consenteth to God by the resurreccion of Jesus Christ, whiche is on the right hand of God ; and is gone into heauen ; Angels, powers, and myght subdued unto hym.

The Gospel. Matt xxvii.

WHEN the Euen was come, there came a riche man of Arama-thia named Joseph, whiche also was Jesus disciple. He went unto Pilate and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate com-maūded the body to be deliuered. And when Joseph had taken the bodye, he wrapped it in a cleane lynnent clothe, and layde it in his newe Tombe, whiche he had hewen out euen in the rocke, and rolled a great stone to the doore of the Sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary sytting ouer against the Sepulchre. The nexte day that foloweth the day of preparing, the high priestes and Phariseis came together unto Pilate, saying ; Sir, we remembre that this deceyuer sayed whyle he was yet alyue ; After iii dayes I wil rise agayne : Commaunde therfore that the Sepulchre be made sure untill the thirde daye, leste his disciples come and steale hym awaye, and say unto the people, he is risen from the dead : and the last erroore shalbe worse then the firste. Pylate sayed unto the : ye haue the watche, goe your way, make it as sure as ye can. So thei went and made the Sepulchre sure with the watchemenne, and sealed the stone.

The Epistle. Coloss. iii.

IF ye be rysen agayne with Christe, seke those thynges whych are aboue, where Christ sytteth on the right hand of God. Set your affeccion on heauenly thynges, and not on earthly thynges. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. Whensoeuer Christe (which is oure lyfe) shall shewe hymselfe, then shall ye also appeare with hym in glory. Mortifie therfore your earthly membres, fornicacion, unclennes, unnaturall lust, euyll concupiscence, and couetousnes, whiche is worshyppynge of ydolles: for whiche thynges sake, the wrath of God useth to come on the disobedient chyldren, among whom ye walked sometime when ye lyued in them.

The Gospell. John xx.

THE firste daye of the Sabbothes came Mary Magdalene earlye (when it was yet darcke) unto the Sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken awaye from the graue. Then she ranne and came to Symon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loued, and sayeth unto them; they haue taken awaye the Lorde out of the graue, and we cannot tell where they haue layed hym. Peter therfore wente foorth and that other disciple and came unto the Sepulchre. They ranne both together, and that other disciple dyd outrüne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. And when he had stowped doune, he sawe the lynnyn clothes liyng, yet went he not in. Then came Symon Peter folowyng hym, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the lynnyn clothes lye, and the nāpkyn that was aboue his head, not liyng with the lynnyn clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe. Thē went in also that other disciple whyche came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe and beleued. For as yet they knewe not the scripture, that he shoulde ryse agayne from death. Then the disciples went awaye agayne unto their owne home.

WHEN the Sabbath was paste, Mary Magdalene, and Mary Jacoby and Salome, bought swete odoures, that they myghte come and annoynct him. And early in the morning, the first daye of the Saboth, they came unto the Sepulchre when the sonne was risē. And they saied amōg thēselues : who shall rolle awaye the stone frō the dore of the Sepulchre? And whē they looked, they sawe howe that the stone was rolled awaye, for it was a very great one. And they wente into the Sepulchre, and sawe a younge manne sytting on the ryght syde, clothed in a long white garmente, and they were afrayed. And he sayed unto them ; Be not afrayed, ye seke Jesus of Nazareth whiche was crucifyed. He is risen, he is not here : Beholde the place where they had put hym. But goe your waye, and tell his disciples, and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galile, there shall ye see him, as he sayed unto you. And they went out quyckly and fledde from the Sepulchre, for they trembled, and were amased, neyther sayed they any thyng to any man, for they were afrayde.

The Epistle. Acts x.

PETER opened his mouth and sayed ; of a trueth I perceyue that there is no respecte of persons with God ; but in all people, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousnes, is accepted with him. Ye knowe the preaching that God sente unto the children of Israell, preachingy peace by Jesus Christ, whiche is lorde ouer all thinges ; whiche preachingy was published throughout all Jewry, (and began in Galilee after the baptisme whiche John preached) howe God annoyncted Jesus of Nazareth with the holy ghoste, and with power. Whiche Jesus went about doyng good, and healyng all that were oppressed of the deuell ; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of al thinges which he did in the lande of the Jewes, and at Jerusalem ; whō they slewen and hanged on tree. Hym God reysed up the third daie, and shewed hym openly, not to all the people, but unto us witnesses (chosen before of God for the same intent,) whiche dyd eate and drinke with him after he arose from death. And he commaunded us to preache unto the people, and to testify, that it is he whiche was ordeyned of God to be the iudge of the quycke and deade. To hym geue all the prophetes witnes, that through his name, whosoeuer beleueth in hym, shall receyue remissiō of sinnes.

BEHOLDE two of the disciples wente that same daye to a towne called Emaus, whyche was from Jerusalem about lx furlonges : and they talked together of all the thynges that had happened. And it chauncede while they commoned together and reasoned ; Jesus himselfe drie nere and went with them. But their eyes were holden that they shoulde not knowe hym. And he sayd unto them ; what maner of cōmunicacions are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke and are sad? And the one of them (whose name was Cleophas) aunswere, and saied unto hym ; art thou onely a straunger in Jerusalem, and haste not knownen the thynges which haue chaunced there in these dayes? he saide unto them ; what thynges? And they sayd unto hym, of Jesus of Nazareth, whyche was a Prophete, mightie in dede and worde before God and all the people : and how the hie priestes and oure rulers deliu-ered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him. But we trusted that it had been he whiche shoulde haue redeemed Israel. And as touching all these thinges, to-daye is euen the third daye that they were doen. Yea, and certeyne women also of oure compayne made us astonyed, whiche came earely unto the Sepulchre, and founde not his body, and came, saying, that they had sene a vision of Angels, whiche sayde that he was aliuie. And certeyne of them whiche were with us, wente to the Sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had sayed ; but hym they sawe not. -

And he sayed unto them ; O fooles and slowe of harte to beleue al that the prophetes haue spoken. Oughte not Christ to haue suffred these thynges, and to entre into his glory ? And he began at Moses and all the prophetes, and interpreted unto them in all Scriptures which wer written of hym.

And it came to passe as he sate at meate with them, he tooke bread and blessed it, and brake and gaue to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knewe hym, and he vanished out of their sight. And they sayed betwene themselues ; did not oure heartes burne within us, whyle he talked with us by the waye, and opened to us the Scriptures ? And they rose up the same houre and returned to Jerusalem, and founde the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, saying ; the Lorde is rysen indeede, and hath appered to Simon. The Epistle. Acts xiii.

YE men and brethren, Children of the generacion of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God; to you is this word of saluacion set. For the inhabiteres of Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voyces of the prophetes which are read euery Sabbath day, thei haue fulfilled them in condemning him. And when they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kyll him. And when they hadde fulfilled all that were written of hym, they tooke hym downe from the tree, and put hym in a Sepulchre. But God raysed hym agayne from death the thirde daye, and he was seen manye dayes of them whiche wente with hym from Galile to Jerusalem; which are his witnesses unto the people. And we declare unto you, howe that the promes, (whiche was made unto the fathers,) GOD hath fulfilled unto their childre, (euen unto us,) in that he raised up Jesus agayne: Euen as it is written in the seconde Psalme: Thou arte my sonne, this daye haue I begotten thee. As concernyng that he raised him up from death, now no more to return to corrupcion, he saied on this wyse; The holy promises made to Dauid will I geue faithfully to you. Wherefore he saith also in another place, Thou shalte not suffre thyne holy to see corrupcion. For Dauid (after that he had in hys tyme fulfilled the will of GOD) fell on slepe, and was layed unto hys fathers, and sawe corrupcion. But he whome God raised agayne, sawe no corrupcion. Bee it knownen unto you therefore, (ye men and brethren,) that throughe thys man is preached unto you the forgeuenes of synnes, and that by hym all that beleue are iustified frome all thynges, frome whiche ye could not be iustified by the lawe of Moses. Beware therfore, lest that fall on you, which is spoken of in the Prophetes; beholde, ye despisers, and wonder, and perishe ye, for I doe a worke in your daies, whiche ye shall not beleue, thoughe a man declare it you.

The Gospell. Luke xxiv.

JESUS stode in the middes of his disciples, and saied unto them; peace be unto you: It is I; feare not. But thei were abashed and affraied, and supposed that they had seen a spirite. And he saied unto them, why are ye troubled, and why doo thoughtes arise in your heartes? Beholde my handes and my fete, that it is euen I myselfe. Handle me, and see, for a spirite hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his handes and his fete. And whyle they yet beleued not for ioye, and wondered, he saied unto them ; Haue ye here any meate ? And they offered hym a pece of a broyled fishe, and of an Honyecombe. And he tooke it, and did eate before them. And he saied unto them ; these are the wordes whiche I speake unto you, while I was yet with you ; That all muste nedes be fulfilled, whiche were written of me in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophetes, and in the Psalmes. Then opened he their wittes, that thei mighte understande the scriptures, and saied unto them ; Thus it is written, and thus it behoued Christe to suffer, and to arise agayne from death the thirde daye, and that repentaunce and remission of synnes shoulde bee preached in his name emong all nacions, and muste begin at Jerusalem. And ye are witnesses of these thynges.

The Epistle. 1 John v.

AL that is borne of GOD ouercommeth the world. And this is the victory that ouercommeth the world, euen our faith. Who is it that ouercommeth the worlde, but he whiche beleueth that Jesus is the sonne of God? This Jesus Christ is he that came by water and bloud; not by water onely, but by water and bloud. And it is the spirite that beareth witnes, because the spirite is truthe. For there are three whiche beare recorde in heauen, the father, the woerde and the holy Ghoste, and these three are one. And there are three whiche beare recorde in yearth, the spirite, and water, and bloud: and these iii are one. If wee receiue the witnes of menne, the witnes of God is greater. For this is the witnes of God that is greater, whiche he testified of his sonne. He that beleueth on the sonne of God, hath the witnes in hymselfe. He that beleueth not God, hath made him a lier, because he beleueth not the recorde that God gaue of his sonne. And this is the record, how that God hath geuē unto us eternall life, and this lyfe is in his sonne. He that hath the sonne, hath lyfe; and he that hath not the sonne of God, hath not lyfe.

The Epistle. James i.

SE that ye bee doers of the worde, and not hearers onely, deceiuyng youre owne selfes. For if any man heare the worde, and declareth not the same by his workes, he is like unto a man beholding his bodey face in a glasse. For as sone as he hath looked on hymselfe, he goeth his waie, and forgetteth immediatly what his fashion was. But whoso looketh in the perfect lawe of libertie, and continueth therin, (if he bee not a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke,) the same shalbee happie in his deede. If any man emong you seme to be deuoute, and refraineth not his tounge but deceiuthe his own harte, this mannes devocion is in vaine. Pure deuocion, and undefiled before God the father, is this ; to viset the fotherles and widowes, in their aduersitie, and kepe hymselfe unspotted of the worlde.

The Gospell. John xvi.

VERELY, verely, I saye unto you, whatsoeuer ye shall aske the father in my name, he will geue it you. Hitherto haue ye asked nothyng in my name. Aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioye maye be full. These thinges haue I spokē unto you by prouerbes. The tyme will come when I shall no more speake unto you by prouerbes ; but I shall shewe you plainly from my father. At that daye shall ye aske in my name. And I saye not unto you that I wyll speake unto my father for you. For the father hymself loueth you, because ye haue loued me, and haue beleued that I came out from God. I wente out from the father, and came into the worlde. Againe, I leaue the world, and go to the father.

His disciples sayed unto hym ; Loe nowe talkest thou plainly, and speakest no Prouerbe. Nowe are we sure that thou knowest all thinges, and nedest not that any man should aske thee any question : therefore beleue we that thou camest from God. Jesus aunswered them ; now ye do beleue. Beholde, the houre draweth nye, and is already come, that ye shalbee skatered euery man to his owne, and shall leaue me alone. And yet am I not alone : for the father is with me. These woordes haue I spoken unto you, that in me ye might haue peace, for in the worlde shall ye haue tribulacion ; but be of good chere, I haue ouercome the worlde.

GRAUNTE we beseche thee, almighty god, that like as we doe beleue thy onely-begotten sonne our lorde to haue ascended into the heauens ; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascende, and with him continually dwell.

The Epistle. Acts i.

IN the former treatise (deare Theophilus) we haue spoken of all that Jesus began to dooe and teache, until the day in which he was takē up, after that he through the holy goste, had geuen commaundementes unto the Apostles, whome he had chosen : to whome he also shewed himselfe alive after his passion, (and that by many tokens,) appearyng unto them xl dayes, and speaking of the kingdom of god ; and gathered them together, and commaūded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem : but to wayte for the promes of the father, wherof (sayth he) ye haue heard of me. For John truely baptised with water ; but ye shalbe baptised with the holy goste, after these fewe dayes. When they therfore were come together, they asked of him, saying ; lord, wilt thou at this time restore agayn the kingdome to Israell ? And he sayde unto them ; it is not for you to knowe the times or the seasons, whiche the father hath put in hys owne power. But ye shall receyue power after that the holy gost is come upon you. And ye shall bee witnesses unto me, not onely in Jerusalem, but also in all Jewry, and in Samaria, and euen unto the worldes ende. And when he had spoken these thynges, while they behelde, he was taken up on hye, and a cloud receiued him up out of their sight. And while they loked stedfastly up toward heauen as he went, beholde, two men stooode by them in white apparel, whiche also sayde : ye men of Galile, why stand ye gasyng up into heauē ? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heauen, shall so come, euen as ye haue sene him goe into heauen.

The Gospel. Matt. xvi.

JESUS appeared unto the eleuen as they sate at meate : and cast

And these tokens shal folowe them that beleue. In my name they shall cast out deuils, they shal speake with new tonges, they shall dryue away serpentes. And if they drinke any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them. They shall laye their handes on the sycke, and they shall recouer. So then when the lord had spoken unto thē, he was receiued into heauen, and is on the right hand of God. And they wente furth and preached euery where ; The lord working with them, and confirming the word with miracles folowing.

Syng unto the Lorde a new song : sing prayses lustely (unto him) with a good courage.

The Collect.¶ God, which, &c. as upon witsonday..The Epistle. Acts x.

THEN Peter opened his mouth and sayd ; of a truth I perceyue that there is no respecte of persones with God, but in all people, he that feareth hym, and woorketh Righteousnesse, is accepted with hym. Ye knowe the preachyng that God sente unto the children of Israell, preachingy peace by Jesus Christ, whiche is Lorde ouer all thynges ; whiche preachyng was published throughoute all Jewrye, (and began in Galile, after the baptisme whiche John preached) how God annoyncted Jesus of Nazareth with the holye goste, and with power. Whiche Jesus went about doyng good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuill. For God was with hym. And we are witnesses of all thynges whiche he did in the land of the Jewes and at Jerusalem, whome they slewe and hanged on tree : Hym God raysed up the thirde day, and shewed him openly, not to all the people, but unto us witnesses, (chosen before of god for the same entente;) whiche dyd eate and drynke with hym, after he arose from deathe. And he commaunded us to preache unto the people, and to testifie that it is he, whiche was ordayneyned of God to be the iudge of quicke and dead. To hym geue all the Prophetes witnesse, that through his name whosoeuer beleueth in him, shall receyue remission of synnes.

Whyle Peter yet spake these woordes, the holy goste fel on all them whiche heard the preachyng. And they of the circumcision which beleued, were astonied, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentyles also, was shed out the gift of the holy goste. For they hearde them speake with tongues, and magnifieye

God. Then aunswered Peter, can any man forbid water, that these shoulde not be baptised whiche haue receyued the holy goste as well as we? And he commaunded them to bee baptised in the name of the Lorde. Then prayed they him to tary a fewe dayes.

The Gospel. John iii.

For God sent not his sonne into the world to condemne the worlde, but that the worlde through him mighbe be saued. He that beleueth on hym is not condemned. But he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he hath not beleued in the name of the onelye-begotten sonne of God. And thys is the condemnacyon ; that lyghte is come into the worlde, and menne loued darkenes more then lighte, because theyr dedes were euill. For euery one that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cummeth to the lighte, leste his dedes shoulde bee reprooved. But he that doth trueth cūmeth to the light, that his dedes may be knownen, how that they are wrought in God.

AFTER this I loked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen : and the first voice which I heard was as it wer of a trumpet, talking with me, whiche sayd ; come up hither, and I will shew thee thinges whiche must be fulfilled hereafter. And immediately I was in the spirite : And behold, a seate was set in heauen, and one sate on the seate. And he that sate was to loke upon, lyke unto a Jasper stone, and a Sardine stone. And there was a raynebowe about the seate, in sight lyke unto an Emerauld. And about the seate were xxiiii seates. And upon the seates xxiiii Elders sittynge, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heade crownes of golde.

And out of the seate proceded lightninges, and thunderynges, and voyces, and there were vii lampes of fire, burning before the seate, whiche are the vii spirites of God. And beofore the seate there was a sea of glasse lyke unto Christall : and in the myddes of the seate, and rounde aboute the seate, were iii beastes full of eyes, beofore and behynde. And the fyrste beaste was like a Lion ; and the second beast like a calfe : and the thirde beaste hadde a face as a manne : and the fourthe beaste was lyke a flying Egle. And the iii beastes had eche one of them syxe wynges aboute hym ; and they were full of iyes within. And they had no rest day neyther night, saying ; Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God almighty, whiche was, and is, and is to come. And when those beastes gaue glory and honour, and thankes to hym that sate on the seate (whiche lyueth for euer and euer,) the xxiiii elders fell doune before hym that sate on the throne, and worshipped hym that lyueth for euer, and cast their crounes before the throne, saying ; thou art worthy, O Lorde, (our God,) to receyue glory, and honor, and power, for thou hast created all thinges, and for thy wylles sake they are, and were created.

The Gospel. John iii.

THERE was a manne of the Phariseis, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewes. The same came to Jesus by night, and sayd unto hym, Rabby, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God : for no man could do suche miracles as thou doest, except God were with him. Jesus answered, and sayd unto him ; Verely, verely, I saye unto thee ; except a man be borne frō aboue, he cannot see the kyngdom of god. Nicodemus sayd unto him ; how can a man be borne when he is olde ? can he entre into his mothers wombe, and be borne agayne ? Jesus answered ; verely, verely, I saye unto thee ; excepte a man be borne of water, and of the spirite, he cannot entre into the kyngdome of God. That whiche is borne of the fleshe, is fleshe ; and that whiche is borne of the spirit, is spirit. Maruayl not thou that I sayd thee, ye must bee borne from aboue. The wynde bloweth where it lusteth, and thou hearest the sound therof, but canst not tel whēce it commeth, and whither it goeth ; So is euery one that is borne of the spirite. Nicodemus answered, and sayd unto him ; how can these thinges be ? Jesus answered, and sayd unto him ; arte thou a maister in Israell, and knowest not these thinges ? Verely, verely I say unto thee ; we speake that we do know, and testifie that we haue seen ; and ye receyue not our wytnes. If I haue tolde you earthly thynges, and ye beleue not ; howe shall ye beleue yf I tell you of heauenly thynges ? And no man ascendēth up to heauen, but he that came doune from heauen, euen the sonne of man whiche is in heauen. The Epistle. 1 John iv.

DEARELY beloued, let us loue one another : for loue commeth of God. And every one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God. He that loueth not, knoweth not God ; for God is loue. In this appeared the loue of God to us-ward, because that God sent his onely-begotten sonne into the worlde, that we might lyue through him. Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued us, and sent his sonne to be the agreement for our synnes.

Dearely beloued, if God so loued us, we ought also to loue one another. No man hath seen God at any tyme. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in us, and his loue is perfect in us. Hereby knowe we that we dwel in hym, and he in us, because he hath geuen us of his spirite. And we haue seen, and do testify, that the father sent the sonne to be the sauour of the worlde : whosoever cōfesseth that Jesus is the sonne of God, in hym dwelleth God, and he in God. And we haue knownen and beleued the loue that God hath to us.

God is loue ; and he that dwelleth in loue dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is the loue perfect in us, that we should haue trust in the day of iudgemēt. For as he is, euen so are we in this worlde. There is no feare in loue, but perfecte loue casteth out feare, for feare hath paynefulnes. He that feareth is not perfect in loue. We loue him, for he loued us first. If a man say ; I loue God, and yet hate his brother, he is a lyar. For how can he that loueth not his brother, whom he hath seen, loue God whom he hath not seen? And this commaundement haue we of hym: that he whiche loueth God, should loue his brother also.

The Gospell. Luke xvi.

THERE was a certaine riche man, whiche was clothed in purple and syne white, and fared deliciously every day: And there was a certaine beger named Lazarus whiche lay at his gate full of sores, desyring to be refreshed with the crummes whiche fell from the riche mans borde, and no mā gaue unto him. The dogges came also and licked his sores. And it fortuned, that the begger dyed, and was caried by the Angels into Abrahams bosome. The riche man also dyed, and was buried. And beyng in hell in tormentes, he lifte up his eyes and sawe Abraham afar of, and Lazarus in his bosome, and he cryed and sayd; father Abraham, haue mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dippe the tippe of his finger in water, and coole my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham sayd; Sonne, remembre that thou in thy lyfetyme, receiuedst thy pleasure; and contrarywise Lazarus receiued Payne: But nowe he is comforted, and thou art punished. Beyonde all this, betwene us and you there is a great space set, so that they whiche would go from hence to you cannot: neyther may come from thence to us. Then he sayd; I pray the therefore father, sende hym to my fathers house, (for I haue v brethren,) for to warne them, leste they also come into this place of torment. Abraham sayd unto hym; they haue Moses and the Prophetes, let them heare them. And he sayd, nay father Abraham; but if one come unto them from the dead, they will repent. He sayd unto him; If they heare not Moses and the Prophetes, neyther wyll they beleue, though one rose from death againe.

The Epistle. I John iii.

MARUEL not my brethren though the worlde hate you. We know that we are translated from death unto life, because we loue the brethren. He that loueth not his brother, abideth in death. Whosoeuer hateth his brother is a manslear. And ye knowe that no manslear hath eternall lyfe abyding in him. Hereby perceyue we loue, because he gaue his lyfe for us : and we ought to geue our lyues for the brethren. But whoso hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue nede, and shutteth up his compassion from him ; howe dwelleth the loue of God in hym ? My babes let us not loue in word, neyther in tongue ; but in dede, and in veritie. Hereby we knowe that we are of the veritié, and can quiet our heartes before hym. For yf our heart condemne us, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all thinges. Derely beloued, if oure heart condemne us not, then haue we trust to god-warde : And whatsoeuer we aske we receyue of hym, because we kepe his commaundementes, and do those thinges whiche are pleasaunt in his sight. And this is his commaundement, That we beleue on the name of his sonne Jesus Christ, and loue one another as he gaue commaundement. And he that kepeth his cōmaundementes dwelleth in him, and he in hym : and hereby we knowe that he abydeth in us, euen by the spirite whiche he hath geuen us.

The Gospel. Luke xiv.

A CERTAINE man ordayned a great supper, and bad many ; and sent his seruaunt at supper-tyme to say to them that were bydden, come ; for all things are nowe ready. And they all at once began to make excuse. The first sayd unto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must nedes go and see it ; I pray thee haue me excused. And another sayd, I haue bought v. yoke of Oxen, and I go to proue them ; I pray thee haue me excused. And another sayd, I haue maried a wife, and therfore I cannot come. And the seruaunt returned, and brought his maister worde againe therof. Then was the good man of the house displeased, and said to his seruaunt ; go out quickly into the stretes and quarters of the citie, and bring in hither the poore and the feble, and the halt and the blinde. And the seruaunt sayd ; Lord, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roume. And the Lorde sayd to the seruaunt ; go out unto the hyewayes and hedges, and compell them to come in, that my house maye bee fylled. For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bydden, shall tast of my supper.

The Gospel. Luke xv.

THEN resorted unto hym all the Publicans and synners for to heare hym. And the Phariseis and Scribes murmured, saying. He receyued synners, and eateth with them. But he put furth this parable unto them, saying ; what man among you hauyng an hundredre shepe (if he lose one of them,) doth not leaue nynty and nyne in the wyldernes, and goeth after that whiche is lost, untill he fynde it ? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders- with ioy. The Epistle. Rom. viii.

I SUPPOSE that the affliccions of this lyfe, are not worthy of the glory which shalbe shewed upon us. For the feruent desyre of the creature abydeth, lokyng when the sonnes of God shall appeare, because the creature is subdued to vanitie, against the will thereof, but for his will which hath subdued the same in hope. For the same creature shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corrupcion, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of GOD. For we knowe that every creature groneth with us also, and trauaileth in payne, euen unto this tyme : not onely it, but we also whiche haue the first-fruites of the spirite, mourne in ourselues also, and wayte for the adopcion, (of the children of God,) euen the deliuerance of our bodyes.

The Gospel. Luke v.

IT came to passe that (when the people preased upon hym, to heare the worde of God) he stooode by the lake of Genezareth, and sawe two shippes stande by the lakes side ; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washyng their nettes. And he entred into one of the shippes, (whiche pertained to Symon,) and praied him, that he would thrust out a litle from the land. And he sat doun and taught the people out of the shyp. When he had lefte speakyng, he sayd unto Symon : lanche out into the deepe, and let slippe your nettes to make a draughte. And Symon answered, and sayde unto hym ; Master, we haue labored all nighte, and haue taken no thyng. Neuertheles, at thy commaundement, I will loce furth the nette. And when they had this done, they inclosed a greate multitude of fishes. But their net brake, and they beckened to their felowes (whiche were in the other ship) that they shoulde come and helpe them. And they came, and fyld bothe the shippes, that they soncke againe.

When Symon Peter sawe this, he fell doun at Jesus' knees, sayng ; Lorde, goe from me, for I am a synnefull man. The Epistle. Romans vi.

KNOWE ye not, that all we whiche are baptised in Jesu Christe, are baptised to dye with hym? We are buryed then with hym by baptisme for to dye; that likewise as Christ was raised from death, by the glorye of the father, euen so we also should walke in a newe life. For if we be graft in death like unto him; euen so shall we be partakers of the resurreccyon: Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with hym also, that the body of synne myght utterly be destroyed, that hencefurh we should not be seruautes unto synne. For he that is dead is iustified from synne.

Wherfore, if we be dead with Christe, we beleue that we shall also lyue with hym, knowyng that Christe beyng raysed from death, dyeth no more. Death hath no more power ouer hym. The Epistle. 1 Cor. x.

BRETHREN, I would not that ye should be ignorāūt, how that our fathers were all under the cloude, and al passed through the sea, and were al baptised under Moses in the cloude, and in the sea, and did all eate of one spirituall meate, and did all drinke of one spirituall drinke. And they dranke of the spiritual rocke that folowed them, whiche Rocke was Christe. But in many of them hadde God no delight. For they were ouerthrown in the wildernes. These are ensamples to us, that we should not lust after euil thinges, as they lusted. And that ye should not be worshippers of ymages, as were some of them according as it is written. The people sate downe to eate, and drynke, and rose up to playe. Neither let us be defiled with fornicacion, as some of them were defiled with fornicacion, and fell in one daye thre and twentie thousand. Neither let us tempt Christe, as some of them tempted, and were destroyed of serpentes. Neither murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. All these thynges happened unto them for ensamples: But are written to put us in remembraunce, whom the endes of the world are come upon. Wherfore, let him that thinketh he standeth, take hede leste he fall. There hath none other temptation taken you, but suche as foloweth the nature of manne. But God is faithful, whiche shall not suffer you to bee tempted aboue your strength: but shal in the middes of the temptation make a waye, that ye may be able to beare it.

The Gospel. Luke xvi.

JESUS sayd unto his disciples; There was a certaine riche man, which had a Steward, and the same was accused unto him, that he had wasted his goodes. And he called him, and sayd unto him; howe is it that I heare this of thee? Geue accomptes of thy stewardship, for thou maiest be no longer Steward. The Steward sayd within himselfe: what shal I do? For my Maister taketh away frō me the Stewardshippe. I cannot digge, and to begge I am ashamed. I wote what to doe, that when I am put out of the Stewardshippe, they may receyue me into their houses.

So when he had called all his Masters debtors together, he sayd unto the first; how much owest thou unto my Master? And he sayd; an hundred tunnes of oyle. And he sayed unto hym; take thy Bill, and sitte downe quickly, and write fiftie. Then sayd he to another; how muche owest thou? And he sayed; an hundred quarters of wheate. He sayed unto hym; take thy bill, and write fourescore. And the Lord commended the uniuist Steward, because he had done wysely. For the children of this worlde are in their nacion, wiser than the children of light. And I saye unto you; Make you frendes of the unrighteous Mammon, that when ye shall haue nede, they may receyue you into euerlastyng Habitacions.

There are diuersities of gyttes, yet but one spirite. And there are differences of administracions, and yet but one Lorde. And there diuerse maners of operacions, and yet but one God, whiche worketh all in all.

The gift of the spirite is geuen to euery man to edifie withall. For to one is geuen through the spirite, the utteraunce of wise-dome : to another is geuen the utteraunce of knowlege, by the same spirite. To another is geuen faith, by the same spirite. To another the gift of healyng, by the same spirite. To another, power to do miracles. To another prophecie. To another iudgemente to discerne spirites. To another diuerse tongues. To another the interpretation of tongues : But these al worketh euen the selfe same spirite, deuydying to euery manne a seuerall gifte, euen as he will.

The Gospell. Luke xix.

AND when he was come nere to Hierusalem, he behelde the citie, and wepte on it, saying ; If thou haddest knownen those thinges, whiche belong unto thy peace, euen in this thy daye, thou wouldest take hede. But nowe are they hid from thine iyes. For the dayes shall come upon thee, that thy enemies also shall cast a banke aboue thee, and compasse thee rounde, and kepe thee in on euy syde, and make thee euen with the ground, and thy children whiche are in thee. And they shall not leauue in thee one stone upon another, because thou knowest not the time of thy visitacion. And he went into the Temple, and began to cast out the that sold therin, and them that bought, saying unto them ; It is written, my house is the house of prayer ; but ye haue made it a denne of theues. And he taught dayly in the Temple.

My soule hath longed for thy saluacion : and I haue a good hope, because of thy worde.

My iyes long soore for thy worde, saying ; O when wilt thou comforte me ?

For I am become like a botle in the smoke : yet doe I not forget thy statutes.

Howe many are the dayes of thy seruaunte ? when wilt thou be auenged of them that persecute me ?

The proude haue digged pittes for me : which are not after thy lawe.

All thy commaundementes are true : They persecute me falsely ; O be thou my helpe.

They had almoste made an ende of me upon earthe : but I forsoke not thy commaundementes.

O quicken me after thy louyng-kyndnes : and so shall I kepe the testimonies of thy mouth.

GOD, which declarest thy almighty power, most chiefly in shewyng mercy and pitie ; Geue unto us abundauntly thy grace, that we, running to thy promises, may be made partakers of thy heauenly treasure ; through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

The Epistle. 1 Cor. xv.

BRETHREN, as perteyning to the Gospell, whiche I preached unto you, whiche ye haue also accepted, and in the whiche ye continue, by the whiche also ye are saued ; I doe you to wete after what maner I preached unto you, yf ye kepe it, excepte ye haue beleued in vayne. For fyrste of all I delyuered unto you that whiche I receyued, howe that Christe dyed for our synnes, agreyng to the scriptures ; and that he was buryed ; and that he arose agayne the thirde daye, accordyng to the scriptures ; And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the xii. After that was he seen of moe than fyue hundredth brethren at once, of whiche many remaine unto this daye, and many are fallen aslepe.

After that appeared he to James, then to all the Apostles. And last of al he was seen of me, as of one that was borne out of due time. For I am the least of the Apostles, whiche am not worthy to bee called an Apostle, because I haue persecuted the congregacion of God. But by the grace of God, I am that I am. And his grace whiche is in me : was not in vaine. But I labored more aboundātly then they all, yet not I, but the grace of God, whiche is with me. Therfore, whether it wer I or they, so we preached, and so ye haue beleued.

The Gospell. Luke xviii.

CHRISTE tolde this parable unto certaine whiche trusted in themselves, that they were perfect and despised other. Two men wente up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharise, and the other a Publican. The Pharise stode and prayed thus with himselfe. God, I thāke thee, that I am not as other mē are, extorcioners, uniuist, adulterers, or as this Publicā. I fast twise in the weke : I geue tythe of al that I possesse. And the Publicā, standing afarre of, would not lyft up his iyes to heauen, but smote upon his brest, saying ; God be mercifull to me a sinner. I tell you, this man departed home to his house iustifyed more then the other. For euery man that exalteth hymselfe shalbe brought lowe : And he that humbleth hymselfe shalbe exalted.

In aeternum, Domine. Psalm cxix.

O LORDE, thy woerde : indureth for euer in heauen.

Thy trueth also remayneth from one generacion to another : thou haste layde the foundation of the earth, and it abydeth.

They continue this daye accordyng to thyne ordinaunce : for all thynges serue thee.

If my delite had not been in thy lawe : I shoulde haue peryshed in my trouble.

I will neuer forget thy commaundementes : for with them thou haste quickened me.

I am thyne, Oh saue me : For I haue sought thy commaundementes.

The ungodly layde wayte for me to destroy me : but I will considre thy testimonies.

I see that all thynges come to an ende : but thy commaundementes are excedyng broade.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, &c.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTIE and euerlastyng God, which art alwayes more ready to heare then we to praye, and art wont to geue more than eyther we desyre or deserue ; Powre downe upon us the abundance of thy mercy ; forgeuing us those thynges wherof our conscience is afryde, and geuyng unto us that that our prayer dare not presume to aske, through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

The Epistle. 2 Cor. iii.

SUCHE trust haue we through Christ to God-ward, not that we are sufficient of ourselues, to thynke any thyng as of ourselues, but if we be able unto any thyng, the same commeth of God ; which hath made us able to minister the newe testament, not of the lettre, but of the spirite : For the letter kylleth, but the spirite geueth lyfe. If the ministraciō of death, through the letters figured in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenaunce ; (which glory is done away ;) why shall not the ministracion of the spirite be muche more glorious ? for if the ministracion of condamnation be glorious, muche more doeth the ministracion of righteousnes excede in glory.

The Gospell. Mark vii.

JESUS departed from the coastes of Tyre and Sydon, and came unto the sea of Galile, through the middes of the coastes of the x cities. And they brought unto hym one that was deaffe, and had an impediment in his speche, and they prayed hym to put his hand upon him. And when he had taken hym asyde from the people, he put his fingers into his eares ; and did spit, and touched his toungue, and loked up to heauen, and sighed, and sayed unto him ; Ephata, that is to say, be opened. And straightway his eares were opened, and the string of his toungue was looced, and he speake plaine. And he commaunded them that they should tel no man. But the more he forbad them, so muche the more a great deale they published, saying ; He hath done all thynges well, he hath made bothe the deaffe to heare, and the dumme to speake.

The Collect.

ALMYGHTIE and mercyfull God, of whose onely gifte it cometh that thy faythfull people doe unto thee true and laudable seruice ; graunte we beseeche thee, that we may so runne to thy heauenly promises, that we faile not finally to attayne the same ; through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

The Epistle. Gal. iii.

To Abraham and his sede were the promises made. He sayeth not in the sedes, as manye ; but in thy sede, as of one, which is Christ. This I say, that the lawe whyche began afterward, beyonde iii. c. and xxx. yeres, doth not disanul the testament that was confirmed afore of God unto Christ-warde, to make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritaunce come of the lawe, it commeth not nowe of promise. But God gaue it to Abrahā by promyse. Wherfore then serueth the lawe? The lawe was added because of transgressiō, (till the sede came, to whome the promise was made,) and it was ordained by Angels in the hande of a mediator. A mediator is not a mediator of one ; But God is one. Is the lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid. For if there had been a lawe geuen whiche could haue geuen lyfe ; then no doubte righteousnes should haue come by the lawe. But the scripture concludeth all thinges under synne, that the promise, by the faythe of Jesus Christe, should be geuen unto them that beleue.

The Gospell. Luke x.

HAPPY are the iyes whiche see the thinges that ye see. For I tell you, that many Prophetes and kinges haue desired to see those thynges which ye see, and haue not seen them, and to heare those thynges whiche ye heare, and haue not heard the.

And beholde, a certayne lawyer stode up, and tempted him, saying; Master, what shall I do to inherite eternall lyfe? he said unto him; what is written in the lawe? how readest thou? and he answered, and sayd; Loue the Lord thy God with al thy heart, and with al thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mynde: and thy neighbour as thyselfe. And he sayed unto hym; Thou haste answered right. This do, and thou shalt liue: but he willyng to iustifie hymselfe, sayed unto Jesus; And who is my neighbor: Jesus answered and sayd. A certayne man descended from Jerusalem to Hierico, and fell among theues, whiche robbed him of his raymēt, and wounded him, and departed, leauyng him halfe dead. And it chaūsed that there came downe a certayne prieste that same waye, and when he sawe him, he passed by. And likewise a Leuite, when he went nye to the place came and loked on hym, and passed by. But a certayne Samaritane as he iorneyed, came unto hym; and when he sawe hym, he had compassion on hym, and went to, and bounde up his woundes, and powred in oyle and wyne, and set hym on his owne beast, and brought hym to a common inne, and made prouision for hym. And on the morowe, when he departed, he tooke out two pence, and gaue them to the hoste, and sayd unto hym; Take cure of hym, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come agayne, I wyll recompence thee. Which nowe of these thre thinkest thou was neighbour unto hym that fell among the theues? and he sayed; he that shewed mercy on hym. Then sayed Jesus unto him; goe, and doe thou lykewyse.

ALMIGHTYE and euerlastyng God, geue unto us the increase of faythe, hope, and charitie ; and that we may obteine that whiche thou doest promise ; make us to loue that whiche thou doest commaunde, through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

The Epistle. Gal. v.

I SAYE, walke in the spirite, and fulfyll not the lust of the fleshe. For the fleshe lusteth contrary to the spirite, and the spirite contrary to the fleshe ; these are contrary one to the other, so that ye cannot doe whatsoeuer ye wold. But and yf ye be led of the spirite, then are ye not under the lawe. The dedes of the fleshe are manyfest, whiche are these ; adultery, fornicacion, unclennesse, wantonnesse, worshippynge of images, witchcraft, hatred, variance, zele, wrath, strife, sedicions, sectes, enuyng, murder, dronkennes, gluttony, and suche like, of the whiche I tell you before, as I haue tolde you in tymes past, that they whiche commit suche thinges shall not be inheritors of the kingdome of God. Contrarily, the fruite of the spirite is loue, ioy, peace, long-sufferyng, gentlenes, goodnes, faithfulnes, mekenes, temperancie. Against suche there is no lawe. They truely that are Christes, haue crucified the fleshe with the affeccions and lustes.

The Gospell. Luke xvii.

AND it chaunsed as Jesus went to Jerusalem, that he passed through Samaria and Galile. And as he entred into a certaine toun, there met him x mē that were lepers. Which stode afarre of, and put furth their voyces, and sayed ; Jesu master haue mercy upon us. When he sawe them, he sayed unto them ; go shewe yourselues unto the priestes. And it came to passe that as they went they were clesned. And one of them, when he sawe that he was clesned, turned backe agayne, and with a loude voyce praysed God, and fell downe on his face at his feete, and gaue him thankes. And the same was a Samaritane. And Jesus answered, and sayed ; Are there not x clesned? but where are those ix? There are not founde that returned againe to geue God prayse, saue onely this straunger. And he sayed unto hym ; arise, go thy waye, thy fayth hath made the whole.

The Epistle. Gal. vi.

YE see howe large a letter I haue writtē unto you with mine owne hande. As many as desyre with outwarde apperaūce to please carnally, the same constraine you to be circumcised, only lest they should suffre persecucion for the crosse of Christ. For they theselues whiche are circumcised kepe not the lawe ; but desyre to haue you circūcised, that they might reioyce in your flesh. God forbyd that I should reioyce, but in the crosse of our Lorde Jesu Christ, whereby the worlde is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For in Christ Jesu neither circumcision auatileth any thyng

The Gospel. Matt. vi.

No manne can serue two Maisters, for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other, or elles leane to the one, and despise the other : ye canne not serue God and Mammon. Therfore I saye unto you ; be not carefull for your lyfe, what ye shall eate or dryncke : nor yet for your body, what raymente ye shall put on. Is not the life more worthe than meate? and the body more of value than rayment? Beholde the foules of the ayre, for they sowe not, neither do they reap, nor cary into the barnes ; and your heauely father fedeth them. Are ye not muche better than they? Whiche of you (by takyng carefull thought) can adde one cubite unto his stature? And why care ye for rayment: Consider the Lylies of the fielde how they growe. They laboure not ; neither do they spynne. And yet I saye unto you, that euen Salamō in al his roialtie, was not clothed like one of these. Wherfore, if god so clothe the grasse of the fielde (whiche though it stād to-day, is to-morow caste into the fornace;) shall he not muche more do the same for you, O ye of litle fayth? Therfore, take no thought, saying ; what shall we eate, or what shal we drinke, or wherwith shall we be clothed? after all these thynges do the Gentyles seke. For youre heauenlye father knoweth that ye haue nede of all these thynges. But rather seeke ye first the kyngdome of god, and the righteousnes thereof, and all these thynges shalbe ministred unto you. Care not then for the morow, for the morow day shal care for it selfe : sufficient unto the daye is the trauayl thereof.

I DESIRE that you faint not because of my tribulacions that I suffre for your sakes ; whiche is youre praise. For this cause I bowe my knees unto the father of our lorde Jesus Christe, whiche is father ouer al that is called father in heauen and in yearth, that he would graunt you, accordyng to the riches of his glorie, that ye maie be strengthed with might by his spirite in the inner man ; that Christ maye dwell in your heartes by faythe, that ye beyng rooted and grounded in loue, might be able to comprehend with all saintes, what is the bredthe and length, depth and heighth ; and to know the excellent loue of the knowlege of Christ, that ye might be fulfilled with all fulnes, whiche commeth of God. And he saied ; yong man, I say unto thee, aryse. And he that was dead, sate up, and began to speake. And he deliuered hym to his mother. And there came a feare on them all. And they gaue the glorie unto God, saying ; A great prophet is rySEN up among us, and God hathe visited his people. Let there be but one Lorde, one faith, one baptisme, one God and father of all, whiche is aboue all, and through all, and in you all.

The Gospel. Luke xiv.

IT chaunced that Jesus went into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises, to eate breade on the Sabbath daye ; and they watched him. And behold, there was a certaine mā before him which had the dropsie. And Jesus aunswered and spake unto the lawiers and pharises, saiying. Is it laweful to heale on the Sabbath day ? And they held theyr peace. And he toke hym, and healed him, and let him go ; and answered them, saiying ; which of you shal haue an Asse or an Oxe fallē into a pit, and wil not straightwaie pul him oute on the Sabbath day ? And they could not aūswere him again to these things. He put forth also a similitude to the gestes, whē he marked how they preaced to bee in the hiest roumes, and sayed unto them ; when thou arte bidden of any man to a weddyng, sit not doun in the highest roume, leste a more honorable man than thou, be bidden of hym, and he (that bad hym and thee) come and saye to thee ; geue this man roume, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roume. But rather when thou arte bidden, go and sit in the lowest roume, that whē he that bad thee cometh, he maye saye unto thee, frende, sit up hier. Then shalte thou haue worship, in the presēce of thē that sit at meate with thee. For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shalbe brought lowe, and he that humbleth hymselfe, shalbe exalted.

The Gospell. Matt. xxii.

WHEN the Phariseis had harde, that Jesus dyd put the Saduces to silence, they came together, and one of them (which was a Doctor of lawe) asked hym a question, tempting hym, and saying ; Maister, whiche is the greatest Commaundement in the lawe ? Jesus saide unto hym ; Thou shalte loue the Lord thy God with all thy harte, and with all thy soule, and with all thy mynde. This is the firste and greatest commaundement. And the second is like unto it. Thou shalte loue thy neighbour as thyselfe. In these twoo commaundementes hang all the lawe and the prophetes. While the Phariseis were gathered together, Jesus asked them, saying ; what thynke ye of Christ? whose sonne is he? They sayed unto him ; the sonne of Dauid. He saied unto them ; how then doeth Dauid in the spirite, call hym Lord? saying ; The Lord sayed unto my Lord, sit thou on my right hand, till I make thyne enemies thy footestoole. If Dauid then call hym Lorde, how is he then his sonne? And no manne was able to aunswere hym any thyng, neither durst any man (from that daye furthe) aske hym any mo questions.

THIS I saye, and testifie through the Lord, that ye hencefoorth walke not as other Gentiles walke, in vaniti of their mynde ; while they are blinded in their understandyng, being farre from a godly life, by the meanes of the ignorancie that is in them, and because of the blindenesse of their heartes, whiche, beyng past repenteunce, haue geuen themselues ouer unto wātonnes, to woorke all manner of unclennes, euen with gredines. But ye haue not so learned Christe. If so bee that ye haue heard of hym, and haue been taught in him, as the trueth is in Jesu (as concerningy the conuersacion in time past) to laye from you that olde man, which is corrupt, accordyng to the deceiueable lustes. To be renued also in the spirite of your mynde, and to putte on that newe man, whiche after God, is shapen in righteousnes and true holynes. Wherfore put awaie lying, and speake euery man triueth unto his neighbour, forasmuche as we are members one of another. Be angery and synne not : Let not the Sunne go doun upon your wrathe, neither geue place to the backbiter. Lette hym that stole, steale no more, but lette him rather laboure with his handes the thing whiche is good, that he maye geue unto hym that nedeth. Let no filthy communicacion procede out of your mouthe : But that whiche is good to edifie withall, as oft as nede is, that it maye minister grāce unto the hearers. And greue not ye the holy spirite of God, by whome ye are sealed unto the daie of redempcion. Let all bitternesse and fearenesse, and wrath, and roaryng, and cursed speakyng, be put awaie from you, with all maliciousnes. Be ye curteous one to another, mercifull, forgeuing one another, euen as God for Christes sake hathe forgeuen you.

The Gospell. Matt. ix.

JESUS entred into a shippe and passed ouer, and came into his owne Citie : And beholde, they broughte to hym a manne sicke of the Palsey, lying in a bed. And when Jesus sawe the faith of them, he saied unto the sicke of the Palsey ; Sonne bee of good chere, thy synnes be forgeuen thee. And behold, certaine of the Scribes saied within themselues ; this manne blasphemeth. And when Jesus sawe their thoughtes, he saied ; wherfore thinke ye euill in your heartes ? Whether is it easyer to saye, thy synnes be forgeuen thee ? or to saye arise and walke ? . But that ye maye knowe that the sonne of manne hathe power to forgeue synnes in yearth ; Then sayeth he unto the sicke of the Palsey ; Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thyne house. And he arose, and departed to his house : But the people that sawe it, merueiled and glorified God, whiche had geuen suche power unto men.

O CONSIDRE myne aduersitie and deliuer me : For I do not forget thy lawe.

¶ Auenge thou my cause and deliuer me : quicken me, accordyng unto thy worde.

Healthe is farre from the ungodly : For they regarde not thy statutes.

Great is thy mercie, O Lorde : quicken me, as thou art wont.

Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me : yet do not I swarue from thy testimonies.

It greueth me when I se the trāsgressors : because they kepe not thy lawe.

Consider, O lord, how I loue thy commaundementes, O quicken me ; accordyng to thy louyng-kyndnesse.

Wherfore be ye not unwise, but understand what the wyll of the Lorde is, and be not dronken with wine, wherin is excesse : But be filled with the spirite, speaking unto yourselves in Psalmes, and Hymnes, and spirituall songes, syngyng and makyng melody to the Lorde in your hartes, geuyng thankes alwayes for all thynges unto God the father, in the name of our Lorde Jesus Christe : submittyng yourselves one to another, in the feare of God.

The Gospell. Matt. xxii.

JESUS saied to his disciples ; The kyngdome of heauen is lyke unto a man that was a Kyng, whiche made a Mariage for his sonne, and sēt furthe his seruauntes, to call them that were bid to the weddynge, and they would not come. Agayne he sent furth other seruauntes, saying ; Tell thē whiche are bidden ; beholde, I haue prepared my diner, myne Oxen and my fatlinges are kylled, and al thinges are redy, come unto the Mariage. But they made lighte of it, and wente their wayes ; One to his farme place, another to his Marchaundise, and the remnaunte tooke his seruauntes, and intreated them shamefully, and slewe thē. But when the Kyng heard thereof, he was wrothe, and sente furthe his men of warre, and destroyed those murtherers, and brent up their citie. Then sayed he to his seruauntes ; the Mariage indeede is prepared, but they whiche were bidden, were not worthy : Go ye therfore out into the hye-wayes : and as many as ye finde, bid thē to the mariage. And the seruautes went furthe into the hyewayes, and gathered together all, as many as they could finde, bothe good and bad, and the weddyng was furnishēd with gestes. Then the King came in to see the gestes, and when he spied there a man, whiche had not on a weddīng garment, he sayed unto hym ; frende, howe cammest thou in hither not hauyng a wedding Garmēt? And he was euen speacheles. Then sayed the Kyng to the ministers ; take and bynde hym hande and foote, and caste hym into utter darkenesse, there shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many be called, but fewe are chosen.

My brethren, be strong through the lord, and through the power of his might. Put on all the armoure of god, that ye may stande agaynst the assaultes of the deuill : for we wrestle not against bloude and fleshe, but against rule, against power, against worldly rulers, euen gouernours of the darkenesse of this world, against spirituall craftinesse, in heauenly thynges. Wherfore, take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye maye be able to resist in the euill daie, and stande perfect in al thynges. Stande therfore and your loynes girde with the trueth, hauyng on the breste plate of righteousnesse, and hauyng shoes on your feete, that ye may be prepared for the gospel of peace. Aboue all, take to you the shilde of faith, wherwith ye maie quenche all the fiery darteres of the wicked ; and take the helmet of saluacion, and the sworde of the spirite, whiche is the worde of God. And praei alwayes with all maner of prayer, and supplicacion in the spirite, and watch thereunto with all instaunce and supplicacion, for all saintes, and for me ; that utteraunce maye bee geuen unto me, that I maye open my mouthe frely, to utter the secretes of my Gospell (wherof I am a messenger in bondes,) that therein I maye speake frely, as I oughte to speake.

The Gospel. John iv.

THERE was a certaine Ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Caper-nam. As sone as the same heard, that Jesus was come out of Jewry into Galile, he went unto him, and besought hym that he would come doun and heale his sonne. For he was euen at the point of death. Then saied Jesus unto him ; except ye see signes and wōders, ye wil not beleue. The Ruler saith unto him ; Sir, come doun or euer that my sonne dye. Jesus sayeth unto hym ; Go thy waye, thy sonne liueth. The manie beleued the woerde that Jesus had spoken unto hym. And he wente his waye. And as he was goyng doun, the seruauntes mette hym, and told hym, saying ; thy sonne liueth. Then enquired he of them the houre, when he beganne to amende. And thy saied unto hym ; yesterdaie at the seuenth houre, the feuer left him. So the father knew that it was the same houre, in the whiche Jesus saied unto hym. Thy sonne liueth, and he beleued, and all his hous-hold. This is agayn the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Jewry into Galile.

I THANKE my God with all remembraunce of you always in al my praiers for you, and praye with gladnes ; Because ye are come into the fellowship of the Gospell, from the firste daye unto nowe. And am surelye certified of this, that he whiche hath begon a good worke in you, shall performe it untill the daie of Jesus Christe : as it becommeth me, so iudge I of you all, because I haue you in my heart ; forasmuche as ye are all companions of grace with me, euen in my bondes, and in the defendyng and stablishyng of the Gospell : for god is my recorde, how greatly I long after you all from the very heart rote in Jesus Christ. And this I praye, that your loue maye increase yet more and more in knowlege, and in al understandyng, that ye maye accept the thinges that are moste excellent, that ye maye be pure, and suche as offende no man, untill the daye of Christe, beyng filled with the fruite of righteousnes, whiche commeth by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and prayse of God.

The Gospell. Matt. xviii.

PETER saied unto Jesus ; lorde how oft shall I forgeue my brother, if he sinne against me, till seuen tymes ? Jesus sayeth unto hym ; I saye not unto thee untill seuen tymes ; but seuentie tymes seuē times. Therfore is the kyngdome of heauen likened unto a certaine man that was a kyng, whiche would take accoumptes of his seruauntes. And when he had begon to recken, one was brought unto hym, whiche ought hym tennē M talentes, but forasmuche as he was not able to paye, his lord commaunded hym to be solde, and his wife and children, and al that he had, and paiment to be made. The seruaunt fell dounē, and besought hym, saying ; syr, haue pacience with me, and I will paye thee all. Then had the lorde pitie on that seruaunt, and loced hym, and forgaue hym the debt. So the same seruaūt went out, and found one of his felowes, whiche ought him an c pence, and he layed handes on hym, and toke hym by the throte, saying ; paye that thou owest. And his felowe fell doun, and besought hym, saying ; haue pacience with me, and I will paye thee all. And he would not, but went and caste hym into pryson, till he shoulde paye the debt. So, when his felowes sawe what was doen, they were verye sorye, and came and tolde unto their Lorde all that had happened. Then his Lord called him and sayd unto hym. O thou ungracious seruaunt, I forgaue thee all that debte, when thou desiredst me : shouldest not thou also haue had compassion on thy felowe, euen as I had pitie on thee ? And his lorde was wroth, and deliuered hym to the Jaylers, till he shoulde paye all that was due unto hym : So likewyse shall my heauenly father do also to you, yf ye from your hartes forgeue not (euyer one his brother) their trespasses.

There is no differēce betwene the Jewe and the Gentyle. For one is Lorde of all, whyche is ryche unto all that call upon hym. For whosoeuer doth cal on the name of the Lorde shalbe safe. Howe then shal they call on him, on whom they haue not beleued ? How shal they beleue on him, of whom they haue not heard ? How shal they heare, without a preacher ? And how shal they preache except they be sent ? As it is written ; howe beutiful are the fete of thē which bring tidinges of peace, and bring tidynges of good thynges. The Epistle. Acts ix.

AND Saul yet breathing out threatnynges, and slaughter agaynst the Disciples of the lord, went unto the hye prieste, and desired of him letters to cary to Damasco, to the Sinagoges ;

(that if he founde any of this waye, whether they were men or women, he might bring the bound unto Jerusalē.) And when he iorneied, it fortuned that as he was come nigh to Damasco, sodenly there shined roūd about him a light from heauen, and he fel to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him ; Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he sayde : what art thou Lorde. And the Lord sayd ; I am Jesus whome thou persecuteste. It is harde for thee to kicke agaynst the pricke. And he both trembling and astonied, sayd ; lorde, what wilt thou haue me to doe? And the lorde sayde unto hym ; aryse, and goe into the citie, and it shalbe tolde thee what thou must doe. The men whiche iourneyed with hym, stooode amased, hearing a voyce, but seeing no man. And Saul arose frō the earth, and when he opened hys eyes, he saw no man ; But they led him by the hād, and brought him into Damasco. And he was three dayes without sight, and neyther did eate nor drynke. And there was a certayn disciple at Damasco, named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision ; Ananias? and he sayd ; beholde I am here lorde. And the lord sayd unto him ; arise and goe into the strete (whiche is called streighte) and seke in the house of Judas, after one called Saul of Tharsus. For beholde, he prayeth, and hath seene in a vision a man, named Ananias, cummyng in to hym, and putting hys handes on hym, that he mighte receyue hys sighte. Then Ananias aunswered ; Lorde, I haue hearde by many of thys man, howe muche euill he hath doone to thy saintes at Jerusalem ; and here he hath aucthorytye of the hye prystes, to bynde all that call on thy name. The Lorde sayde unto hym ; goe thy waye, for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to beare my name befor the Gentyles, and kynges, and the chyldren of Israell. For I will shewe hym, howe great thynges he muste suffer for my names sake. And Ananias wente hys way, and entred into the house, and put hys handes on hym, and sayde : brother Saul, the Lorde that appeared unto thee in the way as thou cameste, hath sent me, that thou mighteste receyue thy syghte, and be filled with the holy goste. And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and he receyued syghte and arose, and was baptised, and receiued meat and was coumforted. Then was Saul a certayne dayes with the disciples whiche were at Damasco. And straightway he preached Christe in the Sinagoges, howe that he was the sonne of God. But all that hearde hym were amased, and sayde : is not thys he that spoyled them whiche called on thys name in Hierusalem, and came hither for that entente that he mighte bring them bounde unto the hye priestes? But Saul encreased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes whiche dwelte at Damasco, affirming that thys was very Christe.

The Gospell. Matt. xix.

PETER aunswered and said unto Jesus ; behold, we haue forsaken all, and folowed thee, what shall we haue therfore ? Jesus sayd unto them ; verely I say unto you, that when the sonne of man shal sit in the seate of his Maiestie, ye that haue folowed me in the regeneracion shall sit also upon twelve seates, and iudge the twelve tribes of Israell. And every one that forsaketh house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wyfe, or children, or landes, for my names sake, shall receiue an hundred-folde, and shall inherite euerlasting lyfe. But many that are first shalbe last, and the last shalbe first.

ALMYGHTYE and euerlastyng God, we humbly beseche thy Maiestie, that as thy onelye begotten sonne was this day presented in the Temple in the substaunce of our fleshe ; so graunte that we maie bee presented unto thee with pure and cleare myndes ; By Jesus Christ our Lorde.

WHEN the tyme of their Purificacion (after the lawe of Moses) was come, they brought him to Hierusalem, to present hym to the Lorde, (as it is written in the Lawe of the Lorde : euery manne child that first openeth the matrix, shalbe called holy to the lorde;) and to offre (as it is saied in the Lawe of the Lorde) a payre of turtle Dooues, or twoo young Pigiones. And beholde, there was a man in Hierusalem, whose name was Simeon. And the same man was iust and godly, and loked for the consolacion of Israell, and the holy Goste was in hym. And an awnswere had he receiued of the holy Goste, that he should not see death, excepte he firste sawe the Lordes Christe. And he came by inspiracion into the temple.

The Epistle. Acts i.

IN those dayes, Peter stode up in the middes of the disciples, and sayd ; (the nombre of names that were together, were about an cxx,) Ye men and brethren, thys scripture must nedes haue bene fulfilled, which the holye Ghoste, throughe the mouthe of Dauid, spake before of Judas, whiche was guyde to them that toke Jesus. For he was numbred with us, and had obteined fellowship in this ministracion. And the same hath now possessed a plat of ground with the rewarde of iniquitie ; and when he was hanged, he burst asunder in the middes, and all his bowels gussched out : And it is knownen unto all the inhabiteres of Hierusalem ; insomuche that the same fielde is called, in theyr mother tongue, Acheldama, that is to saye, the bloude fielde. For it is written in the boke of Psalmes : his habitacion be voyde, and no man be dwelling therein, and his bishoprike let another take. Wherfore, of these menne whiche haue companyed with us (al the tyme that the lorde Jesus had al his conuersacion emong us, beginning at the baptisme of John unto that same day, that he was taken up from us) must one be ordayned, to be a witnes with us of his resurreccion. And they appoynted two, Joseph whiche is called Barsabas, (whose sirname was Justus,) and Matthias. And when they prayed, they sayde : Thou Lorde, which knowest the heartes of al menne, shew whether of these two thou haste chosen ; That he may take the roume of this ministracion and Apostleship, from whiche Judas by transgression fel, that he might goe to his own place. And they gaue furth theyr lottes ; and the lot fel on Matthias, and he was coumpted with the eleuen Apostles.

The Epistle. Isaiah vii.

GOD spake once agayne unto Ahaz, saying ; require a token of the Lorde thy God ; whether it be towarde the depth beneth, or towarde the heighth aboue. Then sayde Ahaz ; I will require none, neyther will I tempte the Lorde. AND in the sixth moneth the Angell Gabriell was sente from GOD unto a citie of Galile, named Nazareth, to a virgyn spoused to a manne, whose name was Joseph, of the house of Dauyd, and the virgins name was Mary. And the Angel went in unto her, and sayd, Haile ful of grace, the Lorde is with thee ; Blessed arte thou among weomen. When she sawe hym, she was abasshed at hys saying, and caste in her mynde, what maner of salutacyon that shoulde be. And the angel said unto her ; feare not Mary ; for thou hast found grace with God. And the Lorde God shall geue unto hym, the seat of his father Dauid, and he shall reigne ouer the house of Jacob for euer, and of hys kyngdome there shalbe none end. Then said Mary unto the angel ; How shall this be, seeing I knowe not a man ? And the Angel aunswere and sayde unto her, the holy gost shal come upon thee, and the power of the highest shal ouershadowe thee. Therfore also that holy thing which shal be borne, shall be called the sonne of God. And beholde, thy cosin Elizabeth, she hath also concyued a sonne in her age. The Epistle. Ephes. iv.

UNTO euery one of us is geuen grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christe. Wherfore he sayeth ; when he went up an hie, he led captiuitie captiue, and gauie giftes unto menne. That he ascended, what meaneth it, but that he also descended first into the lowest partes of the earth ? he that descended, is euuen the same also that ascended up aboue all heauens, to fulfill all thinges. And the verye same made some Apostles, some prophetes, some Euangelistes, some Shepheardes and teachers ; to the edifying of the sainctes, to the woorke and minystracyon, euuen to the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unitie of fayth, and knowledge of the sonne of god, unto a perfecte man, unto the measure of the full perfect age of Christe. That we hencefurth should be no more children, wauering and caryed about with euery winde of doctrine, by the wylinesse of men, through craftines, wherby they lay awaite for us, to deceiue us. But let us folowe the trueth in loue, and in all thynges growe in him, which is the head, euuen Christe, in whome if all the body be coupled and knit together, throughout euery ioint, wherwith one ministreth to another, (according to the operacion, as euerye parte hath his measure) he encreaseth the body, unto the edifying of it selfe thorow loue.

The Gospel. John xv.

And euerye braunche that beareth fruite, will he pourge, that it may bring furth more fruite. Nowe are ye cleane through the woordes whiche I haue spoken unto you. Bide in me, and I in you. As the braunche cannot beare fruite of it selfe, except it bide in the Vine ; no more can ye, except ye abyde in me. I am the Vyne, ye are the braunches. He that abydeth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth furth muche fruite. For without me, can ye doe nothing. If a manne byde not in me, he is caste foorth as a braunche, and is withered ; And menne gather them, and caste them into the fyre, and they burne. If ye byde in me, and my woordes abyde in you, aske what ye will, and it shalbe dooen for you. Herein is my father glorifyed, that ye beare muche fruite, and become my Disciples. As the father hath loued me, euē so haue I also loued you. Continue ye in my loue. JAMES the seruaunt of God, and of the Lorde Jesus Christe, sendeth greeting to the twelve Tribes whiche are scattered abrode. My brethren, counte it for an excedyng ioye, when ye fall into diuise temptacions ; Knowyng thys, that the trying of youre saythe, gendreth pacience : and lette pacience haue her perfecte woorke, that ye may bee perfecte and sounde, lackingyng nothyng. If anye of you lacke wisedome, let him aske of him that geueth it ; euen God, whiche geueth to all men indifferentlye, and casteth no man in the teeth, and it shalbe geuen hym. But let hym aske in sayth, and wauer not ; for he that doubteth, is like a wawe of the sea, whiche is tost of the windes, and caryed with violence. Neyther let that man thynke that he shall receyue any thing of the Lorde.

A waueryng-mynded manne is unstable in all hys wayes. Let the brother whiche is of lowe degree, reioyce when he is exalted. Agayne, let him that is ryche, reioyce when he is made lowe. For euen as the flower of the Grasse, shall he passe away. For as the sunne riseth with heate, and the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beauty of the fashion of it perisheth ; euen so shall the ryche man perishe in hys wayes. Happie is the man that endureth temptacyon ; For when he is tryed, he shall receiue the crowne of lyfe, which the Lorde hath promised to them that loue hym.

Jesus sayeth unto hym ; I am the way, and the truth, and the life : No man cometh unto the father but by me : if ye had knownen me, ye had knownen my father also : And nowe ye knowe hym, and haue seene hym. Philip sayeth unto him ; Lord, shewe us the father, and it suffiseth us. Jesus sayeth unto him, haue I bene so long tyme with you ; and yet haste thou not knownen me? Philip, he that hath sene me, hath sene my father, and how sayest thou then, shew us the Father? Beleuest thou not that I am in the father, and the Father in me? Orelles beleue me for the woorkes sake. Verely, verely I say unto you ; he that beleueth on me, the woorkes that I do, the same shal he doe also, and greater woorkes than these shall he do, because I goe unto my father. Let all valleyes be exalted, and euery mountayne and hyll be layde lowe : whatso is crooked, let it be made straight, and let the rough be made plain fieldes. For the glory of the lord shal appeare, and all fleshe shall at once se it : for why? the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken.it.

The same voyce spake, Nowe crye. And the prophet answered ; what shall I crye? that all fleshe is grasse, and that all the goodlynes therof is as the floure of the felde. The grasse is withered, the floure falleth awaye. Euen so is the people as grasse, when the breath of the Lorde bloweth upon them. to his father, how he would haue hym called. And he asked for writyng tables, and wrote, saying ; his name is Jhon. And they meruayled all. And his mouth was opened immediatly, and his tongue also, and he spake and praysed God. And feare came on all them that dwelt nye unto them. And al these sayinges were noysed abrode throughout all the hyll countrey of Jury : and all they that heard the layd the up in their heartes, saying ; what maner of childe shal this be ? And the hand of the Lorde was with hym. And his father Zacharias was fylled with the holy ghost, and prophecie, saying ; Praysed be the lorde God of Israell, for he hath visited and redemeid his people. And hath raysed up an horne of saluacion unto us, in the house of his seruaunt Dauid. Euen as he promised by the mouth of his holy prophetes, which were sence the worlde begā. That we should be sauad from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us. That he would deale mercifully with our fathers, and remēbre his holy couenaunt. And that he would perfourm the othe which he sware to our father Abrahā for to geue us. That we deliuered out of the hädes of our enemies, might serue hym without feare, all the daies of our life in suche holines and righteousnes as are acceptable before him. And thou child shalt be called the prophet of the highest, for thou shalt go before the face of the Lorde to prepare his wayes ; to geue knowledge of saluacion unto his people, for the remission of synnes. Thorough the tendre mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from an hye hath visited us. To geue light to them that sate in darkenes and in the shadow of death, to guide our fete into the waye of peace. And the childe grewe, and weaxed strong in spirit, and was in wyldernes till the day came, when he shoulde shewe himselfe unto the Israelites.-

BLESSED be the Lorde my strengthe : whiche teacheth my handes to warre, and my fyngers to fight ;

My hope and my fortresse, my castle, and deliuerer, my defender in whome I truste : whiche subdueth my people that is under me.

Lord, what is man that thou hast suche respecte unto him ? or the sonne of man, that thou so regardest him ?

Man is lyke a thyng of noughe : his tyme passeth away like a shadow.

Bowe thy heauens, O Lorde, and come downe : touche the mountaines, and they shall smoke.

Caste furth the lightnyng, and teare theim : shote out thyne arrowes, and consume them.

Sende doune thyne hand from aboue : deliuer me and take me out of the great waters, frō the hand of straunge children ;

Whose mouth talketh of vanitie : and their right hande is a ryght hand of wikednes.

I will syng a newe song unto thee, O God : and syng praises unto thee upon a ten-strynged Lute.

Thou that geuest victorye unto kynges : and hast deliuered Dauid thy seruaunte from the peril of the sworde.

Saue me, and deliuer me from the hande of straunge children : whose mouth talketh of vanitie, and their righte hand is a right hand of iniquitie.

That our sonnes maye growe up as the yong plantes : and that oure daughters maie bee as the polliſhed corners of the temple.

ALMIGHTIE God, whiche by thy ſonne Jesus Christe haſte geuen to thy Apostle ſainte Peter many excellente giftes, and commaundeste him earnestly to feede thy flocke ; make, wee beseche thee, all bishops and pastors diligently to preache thy holy woordē and the people obediently to folowe the ſame, that they maye receiue the croune of euerlaſting glory ; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Epistle. Acts xii.

AT the ſame tyme Herode the kyng ſtretched furthe his handes to vexe certaine of the congregacion. And he kylled James the brother of John wylle the ſword. And because he ſawe that it pleased the Jewes, he proceſſed farther and tooke Peter alſo. Then were the dayes of ſwete breade. And when he had caught him, he put him in prison alſo, and deliuered hym to fourē quaternions of ſouldiers to be kept, entending after Easter to bring him furth to the people. And Peter was kepte in prison ; but prayer was made without ceassyng, of the cōgregacion unto God for him. And when Herode would haue brought him out unto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldiers bound with two chaynes ; And the kepers before the doore, kept the prison. And beholde, the angel of the Lord was there present, and a light shyned in the habitacion. And he smote Peter on the syde, and stiered him up, saying ; arise up quickly. And his chaynes fell of from his handes. And the angel sayd unto hym, gyrd thyselfe, and binde on thy sandales. And so he did. And he sayth unto hym : cast thy garment about thee, and folowe me. And he came out, and folowed him, and wyst not that it was truth whiche was done by the angel, but thought he had seen a vision. When they were past the first and the secōd watche, they came unto the yron gate, that leadeth unto the citie, whiche opened to them by the owne accorde. And they went out, and passed thorough one strete, and furthwith the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himselfe, he sayd ; nowe I knowe of a suertie that the Lord hath sent his angell, and hath deliuering me out of the hande of Herode, and from all the waityng for of the people of the Jewes.

The Gospell. Matt. xvi.

WHEN Jesus came into the coastes of the citie whiche is called Cesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying ; whom do men say that I the sonne of man am ? They sayd ; some say that thou art Jhon Baptiste, some Helias, some Jeremias, or one of the noumbre of the prophetes. He sayeth unto them ; but whō say ye that I am ? Simon Peter answered, and sayd ; Thou art Christ the sonne of the lyuing God. And Jesus answered, and said unto him ; happy art thou Simon the sonne of Jonas, for fleshe and bloud hath not opened that unto thee ; but my father whiche is in heauen. And I say unto thee, that thou art Peter ; and upon this rocke I will buylde my congregacion. And the gates of hel shall not preuail against it. And I wil geue unto thee the keyes of the kingdom of heauen. And whatsoeuer thou byndest in earth, shalbe bound in heauen ; and whatsoeuer thou locest in earth, shalbe loced in heauen.

Lauda, anima mea. Psalm cxlii.

PRAYSE the Lorde, O my soule : whyle I lyue will I praise the Lord, yea as long as I haue any being, I will syng prayses unto my God.

O put not your trust in princes ; nor in any childe of man, for there is no helpe in them.

For when the breath of man goeth furth : he shal turne againe to his yearth, and then all his thoughtes perish.

Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his helpe ; and whose hope is in the Lorde his God ;

Whiche made heauen and yearth, the sea and all that therin is : whiche kepereth his promyse for euer ;

Which helpeth them to right that suffre wrong : which fedeth the hungry.

The Lorde loceth menne out of prison : the Lorde geueth sight to the blynde.

The Lord helpeth theim up that are fallen : the Lorde careth for the righteous.

The Lorde careth for the straungers ; he defendeth the faterles and wydowe : as for the waye of the ungodly, he turneth it upsyde doune.

The Lorde thy God, O Sion, shalbe kyng for euermore : and throughout all generacions.

Glory be to the father, &c.

The Collect.

MERCYFUL father, geue us grace, that we neuer presume to synne thorrough the example of any creature ; but if it shall chaunce us at any tyme to offende thy diuine maiestie ; that then we may truely repent, and lament the same, after the example of Mary Magdalene, and by lyuely fayth obtaine remission of all our sinnes ; through the only merites of thy sonne our sauour Christ.

The Epistle. Prov. xxxi.

WHOSOEVER findeth an honest faithful woman, she is muche more worth then perles. The heart of her husband may safely trust in her, so that he shall fall in no pouertie. She will do hym good and not euill, all the dayes of her lyfe. She occupieth woll and flaxe, and laboureth gladly with her handes. She is lyke a marchauntes ship that bringeth her vitayles from afarre. She is up in the night season to prouide meate for her houshold, and fode for her maydens. She considereth land and byeth it, and with the fruities of her handes she planteth a vyneyarde. She girdeth her loynes with strength, and courageth her armes. And yf she perceyue that her huswifery doeth good, her candle goth not out by night. She layeth her fyngers to the spindle ; and her hand taketh holde of the distaffe. She openeth her hande to the poore, yea she stretcheth furth her handes to suche as haue nede. She feareth not that the colde of wynter shall hurt her house, for all her houshold folkes are clothed with skarlet. She maketh her selfe fayre ornamenteis, her clotheing is white silke and purple. Her husband is muche set by in the gates, when he sytteth among the rulers of the land. She maketh clothe of silke, and selleth it, and deliuereth gyrdles unto the marchaunt. Strength and honour is her clothyng, and in the latter day she shall reioyce. She openeth her mouth with wisdome and in her tongue is the lawe of grace. She loketh well to the wayes of her housholde, and eateth not her bread with idlenes. Her children shall aryse, and call her blessed ; and her husbād shal make muche of her. Many daughters there be that gather riches together ; but thou goest aboue them all. As for fauour it is deceiptful, and beutie is a vayne thyng : but a woman that feareth the Lorde, she is worthy to bee praised. Geue her of the fruite of her handes, and let her owne workes prayse her in the gates.

The Gospell. Luke vii.

AND one of the Phariseis desyred Jesus that he would eate with him. And he wēt into the Phariseis house, and sate doun to meate. And behold, a woman in that citie (whiche was a synner,) as sone as she knew that Jesus sate at meate in the Phariseis house, she brought an Alabaster boxe of oyntment, and stode at his fete behynde hym wepyng, and began to washe his fete with teares, and did wipe them with the heares of her head, and kyssed his fete, and anoynted them with the oyntment. When the Pharisee (which had bydden hym) sawe that, he spake within hym selfe, saying ; if this man were a prophet, he would surely know who and what maner of woman this is that touched hym, for she is a synner. Jesus answered and sayd unto him ; Simon, I haue somewhat to say unto thee. And he sayd ; Maister, say on. There was a certaine lender whiche had two debtors, the one ought hym fие hundred pence, and the other fiftie. When they had nothing to pay, he forgaue thē both. Tel me therfore, whiche of them will loue him most ? Simon answered and sayd ; I suppose that he to whom he forgaue most. And he sayd unto hym ; thou hast truly iudged. And he turned to the woman, and sayd unto Symon ; Seest thou this woman ? I entred into thy house, thou gauest me no water for my fete : but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wyped them with the heeres of her head. Thou gauest me no kysse : but she sence the tyme I came in, hath not ceased to kysse my feete. My head with oyle thou diddest not anoynt, but she hath anoynted my fete with oyntment. Wherfore I say unto thee, many synnes are forgeuen her ; for she loued muche. To whom lesse is forgeuen, the same doth lesse loue. And he sayd unto her ; thy synnes are forgeuen thee. And they that sate at meate with him, began to saye within themselves. Who is this whiche forgeueth synnes also ? And he sayd to the woman. Thy fayth hath sauued thee ; go in peace.

 Praise hym all ye Angels of his : praise him all his host.
 Praye hym, Sonne and Moone : prayse ye him all ye starres and light.

Praye hym all ye heauens : and ye waters that be aboue the heauens.

Let them prayse the name of the Lorde : for (he spake the worde, and they were made;) he commaunded, and they were created.

 a lawe, whiche shall not be broken.

Praye the Lorde upon the yearth : ye dragons, and all depes.

Fyer and hayle, snow and vapours, winde and storme : fulfyllyng his worde.

Mountaynes and all hylles : fruitfull trees and all Cedres.

Beastes and all cattel : wormes and fethered foulis.

Kynges of the yearth and all people : princes and all the Judges of the worlde.

Yong men and maydens, olde men and children, praise the name of the Lorde : for his name only is excellent, and his prayse aboue heauen and yearth.

He shall exalt the horne of his people, all his saintes shall praise hym : euen the children of Israel, euen the people that serueth him.

Glory be to the father, &c.

The Epistle. Acts xi. xii.

IN those daies came prophetes frō the citie of Jerusalem unto Antioche. And there stode up one of thē, named Agabus, and signified by the spirite, that there shoulde be great derth thorough-out all the world, whiche came to passe in the Emperour Claudius daies. Then the disciples, euery man accordyng to his habilitie, purposed to send succour unto the brethren which dwelt in Iury, which thing they also dyd, and sēt it to the elders, by the handes of Barnabas and Saul. At the same tyme Herode the kyng stretched furth his handes to vexe certain of the congregaciō. And he kylled James the brother of John with the sworde. And because he sawe that it pleased the Jewes, he proceded farther and toke Peter also.

The Gospell. Matt. xx.

THEN came to him the mother of Zebedes children, with her sonnes, worshippiyng hym, and desyryng a certain thing of hym. And he sayd unto her; what wilt thou? She sayd unto him; Graunt that these my two sonnes may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on thy lefte, in thy kingedome. But Jesus answered and sayd; ye wot not what ye aske. Are ye able to drynke of the cup that I shall drynke of, and to bee baptised with the baptisme, that I am baptised with? They sayde unto hym, we are: He sayde unto them; ye shal drynke in deede of my cuppe, and be baptizeth with the baptisme that I am baptised with: but to syt on my right hand and on my left, is not myne to geue; but it shall chaunce unto them that it is prepared for of my father. And when the ten heard this, they disdayned at the two brethren. But Jesus called them unto hym, and sayde: ye knowe that the princes of the nacions haue dominion ouer them, and they that are greate menne, exercise authoritie upon them. It shall not be so amone you. But whosoeuer will be great amone you, let him be your minister, and whosoeuer wilbe chiefe amone you, let hym be your seruaunte. Euen as the sonne of man came not to bee ministred unto, but to minister, and to geue his life a redempcion for many.

Saint Bartholomewe.

Non nobis, Domine. Psalm cxv.

NOT unto us, (O Lorde) not unto us, but unto thy name geue the praise: for thy louyng mercy, and for thy truthes sake.

Wherefore shall the heathen say: Where is nowe their God?

As for our God he is in heauen: he hath done whatsoeuer pleased him.

Their Idoles are syluer and gold: euen the woorke of mens handes.

They haue mouthes, and speake not: eyes haue they and see not.

They haue eares, and heare not: noses haue they, and smel not.

They haue handes, and handle not: feete haue they, and walke not, neithet speake they thorough their throte.

They that make them are lyke unto them: and so are all suche as'put their trust in them.

But the house of Israel, trust thou in the Lorde: he is their succour and defence.

Ye house of Aaron put your trust in the Lorde : he is their helper and defender.

Ye that feare the Lorde, truste ye in the Lorde : he is their helper and defender.

The lorde hath been myndefull of us, and he shall blesse us : euen he shall blesse the house of Israell, he shall blesse the house of Aaron.

He shall blesse them that feare the Lorde : both small and great.

The Lorde shall increase you more and more : you and your children.

Ye are the blessed of the Lorde : whiche made heauen and yearth.

All the whole heauens are the lordes : the yerthe hath he geuen unto the children of men.

The dead prayse not thee (O lorde) : neither all they that go doun into the silence.

But we will prayse the Lorde : from this tyme furth for euermore.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, &c.

As it was in the beginnyng, &c. Amen.

The Collect.

O ALMIGHTIE and euerlastyng God, whiche haste geuen grace to thy apostle Bartholomewe truly to beleue and to preache thy worde ; graūt, we beseche thee, unto thy Churche, both to loue that he beleued, and to preache that he taught ; thorough Christ our Lorde.

The Epistle. Acts v.

By the handes of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people. And they were altogether with one accord in Salomous porch. And of other durste no man ioyne himselfe to them : neuertheles the people magnified them. The nombre of them that beleued in the Lord, both of men and women, grewe more and more : insomuche that they brought the sicke into the stretes, and layde them on beddes and couches, that a* the leaste waye the shadowe of Peter, whē he came by, might shadowe some of them, (and that they might all be deliuering from their infirmities.) There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about unto Jerusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with uncleane spirites. And they were healed every one.

The Gospell. Luke xxii.

AND there was a strife among them, which of them should seme to be the greatest. And he sayd unto them ; the kinges of nacions reigne ouer them ; and they that haue authoritie upon them are called gracious Lordes : But ye shall not be so. But he that is greatest among you, shalbe as the yonger ; and he that is chiefe, shalbe as he that doth minister. For whether is greater he that sytteth at meate, or he that serueth ? Is not he that sitteth at meate ? But I amōg you, as he that ministreth. Ye are they, which haue bidden with me in my temptacions. And I appoyn unto you a kyngdome, as my father hath appointed to me, that ye may eate and drynke at my table in my kingdome, and sytte on seates iudging the xii tribes of Israel.

ALMIGHTIE God, whiche by thy blessed sonne dyddeſt call Mathewe from the receipte of custome to be an Apostle and Euangelist ; Graunt us grace to forsake all couetous desires, and inordinate loue of riches, and to folowe thy sayed sonne Jesus Christ ; who lyueth and reigneth, &c.

The Epistle. 2 Cor. iv.

SEYNG that we haue suche an office, euen as God hath had mercye on us, we go not out of kynde, but haue cast from us the clokes of unhoneſtē, and walke not in craftines, neither handle we the worde of God deceiptfully, but open the trueth, and reporte ourſelues to euery mans conſcience in the ſight of God. If our gospel be yet hid, it is hid among them that are lost : in whom the god of this world hath blinded the mindes of them whiche beleue not, leſte the light of the gospell of the glory of Christe (whiche is the image of God) ſhould ſhyne unto them. For we preache not ourſelues, but Christe Jesus to be the Lorde, and oureselues your ſeruauntes for Jesus ſake. For it is God, that commaunded the light to ſhyne out of darkenes, whiche hath ſhyned in our heartes, for to geue the light of the knowlege of the glory of God, in the face of Jesus Christe.

The Gospell. Matt. ix.

AND as Jesus paſſed forth frō thence, he ſawe a mā (named Mathewe) ſitting at the receipt of custome, and he ſayd unto him, folowe me: and he arose, and folowed him. And it came to passe as Jesus sate as meate in his house; beholde, many Publicans also and synners that came, sate downe with Jesus and his disciples. And when the Phariseis sawe it, they sayd unto his disciples; why eateth your Master with Publicaners and synners? But when Jesus heard that, he sayed unto them; They that be strong nede not the phisicion, but they that are sicke. Goe ye rather and learne what that meaneth; I will haue mercy, and not sacrifice, for I am not come to cal the righteous, but synners to repentaunce.

PRAYSE the Lorde (ye seruauntes): O prayse the name of the Lorde.

Blessed be the name of the Lorde: from this tyme furth for euermore.

The Lordes name is praysed: from the risyng up of the Sunne, unto the goyng downe of the same.

The Lorde is hye aboue all heathen: and his glory aboue the heauens.

Who is lyke unto the Lorde our God, that hath his dwellyng so hye: and yet humbleth himselfe to beholde the thynges that are in heauen and earth?

He taketh up the simple out of the dust: and listeth the poore out of the myre;

That he may set him with the princes: euen with the princes of his people.

He maketh the baren woman to kepe house: and to be a joyfull mother of children.

The Collect.

EUERLASTYNG God, which haste ordayned and constituted the seruices of all Angels and me in a wonderfull ordre: mercifully graunt, that they whiche alwaye doe thee seruice in heauen, may by thy appoyntment succour and defende us in earth: through Jesus Christe our Lorde, &c.

The Epistle. Apoc. xii.

THERE was a great battaile in heauen: Michael and his Angels foughte with the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his Angels, and preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in heauen. And the great dragon that olde serpente, called the deuill and Sathanas, was cast out, whiche deceiuth all the worlde. And he was cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out also with him. And I heard a loude voyce, saying ; in heauen is nowe made saluacion, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ. For the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, whiche accused them before our God day and night. And they ouercame him by the bloud of the lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they loued not their liues unto the death. Therfore reioyce, heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe unto the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea : for the deuill is come downe unto you, whiche hath great wrathe, because he knoweth that he hathe but a shorte tyme.

The Gospell. Mait. xviii.

AT the same tyme came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, who is the greatest in the kyngdome of heauen ? Jesus called a childe unto hym, and sette hym in the myddest of them, and sayed ; Verely I saye unto you, excepte ye turne and become as children, ye shall not entre into the kyngdome of heauen. Whosoeuer therfore humbleth hymselfe as this childe, that same is the greatest in the kyngdome of heauen. And whosoeuer receyueth such a childe in my name, receyueth me. But whoso doth offend one of these lytle ons which beleue in me, it were better for him that a milstone were hanged aboue his necke, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the worlde, because of offences : necessary it is that offences come : But woe unto the manne, by whom the offence cometh. Wherfore, yf thy hande or thy foote hynder thee, cut him of, and cast it from thee : it is better for thee to entre into life halt or maimed, rather then thou shouldest (hauing two handes or two fete) be cast into euer-lasting fyer. And yf thine iye offend thee, plucke it out, and cast it from thee. It is better for thee to entre into life with one iye, rather then (hauing ii iyes) to be cast into hell fyer. Take hede that ye despise not one of these lytle ons. For I saye unto you ; that in heauen their Angels doe always beholde the face of my father, whiche is in heauen.

Laudate Dominum. Psalm cl.

O PRAYSE God in his holynes : praise him in the fyrmament of his power.

Praye him in his noble actes : prayse him accordyng to his excellent greatnesse.

Praye him in the sounde of the trumpet : prayse hym upon the lute and harpe.

Praye hym in the cymbales and daunse : praise him upon the stringes and pipe.

Praye hym upon the wel-tuned cymbales : prayse hym upon the loud cymbales.

Let every thyng that hath breth prayse the lord.

Glory be to the father, and to the sonne, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTIE God, whiche hast builded the congregacion upon the foundacion of the Apostles and prophetes, Jesu Christ himselfe beyng the head corner-stone ; graunte us so to bee ioyned together in unitie of spirite by their doctrine, that we maye be made an holye temple acceptable to thee ; throughe Jesu Christe our Lorde.

The Epistle. Jude i.

JUDAS, the seruaunte of Jesu Christe, the brother of James, to them whiche are called and sanctifyed in God the father, and preserued in Jesu Christe : Mercy unto you and peace, and loue be multiplied. Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to wryte unto you of the common saluacion, it was nedeful for me to wryte unto you, to exhort you that ye shoulde continuallye laboure in the faith, which was once geuen unto the saintes. For there are certain ungodly men craftely crept in, of which it was written aforetyme unto suche iudgement. They turne the grace of our God unto wantonnes, and denye God, (which is the only lorde) and our lord Jesus Christ. My mynde is therfore to putte you in remembraunce, forasmuche as ye once knowe this, how that the lord (after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt) destroyed them which afterward beleued not. The Angels also which kept not their firste estate, but left their own habitaciō, he hath reserued in euerlastig chaines under darknes, unto the iudgement of the great daye: euen as Sodom and Gomor, and the Cities aboue them, whiche in like maner defiled themselues with fornicacion, and folowed straunge fleshe, are set furth for an example, and suffre the paine of eternall fyre: likewyse these beyng deceyued by dreames, defyle the fleshe, despise rulers, and speake euell of them that are in auctoritie.

The Gospel. John xv.

THIS commaunde I you, that ye loue together. If the world hate you, ye know y^t it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the worlde, the world would loue his owne: Howbeit because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the worlde, therfore the worlde hateth you. Remembre the worde that I sayed unto you, the seruaunt is not greater than the lorde. If they haue persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they haue kepte my saying, they wil kepe yours also. But al these thinges will they doe unto you for my names sake, because they haue not knownen him that sente me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they should haue had no synne: but nowe haue they nothyng to cloke their synne withall. He that hateth me hateth my father also. If I had not done among them the workes which none other mā did, they should haue had no synne. But nowe haue they both seen and hated: not only me but also my father. But this happeneth that the saying myght be fulfilled that is witten in their lawe. They hated me without a cause. But when the comforter is come, whom I wyll sende unto you from the father, euen the spirite of trueth, (whiche procedeth of the father,) he shall testifie of me. And ye shal beare witnes also, because ye haue been with me from the beginnyng.

O SVNG unto the Lorde a newe song: let the congregacion of sayntes prayse hym.

Let Israel reioyce in him that made him: and let the children of Syon be ioyful in their kyng.

Let them prayse his name in the daunce : let them syng prayses unto him with tabret and harpe.

For the Lord hath pleasure in his people : and helpeth the meke-hearted.

Let the saynctes be ioyfull with glory : let them reioyce in their beddes.

Let the prayses of God be in their mouth : and a two-edged sworde in their handes ;

To be auenged of the heathen : and to rebuke the people.

To bynde their-kinges in chaynes : and their nobles with lynkes of yron.

That they may be auenged of them, as it is written : suche honor haue all his Saynctes.

The Collect.

ALMIGHTIE God, whiche haste knitte together thy electe in one Communion and fellowship, in the misticall body of thy sonne Christe our Lord ; graunt us grace so to folow thy holy Saynctes in all virtues, and godly liuyng, that we maye come to those inspeakeable ioyes, whiche thou hast prepared for all them that unfaynedly loue thee ; through Jesus Christe.

The Epistle. Apoc. vii.

BEHOLDE, I John sawe another Angell ascende from the rising of the Sune, whiche had the seale of the lyuynge God, and he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure Angels, (to whom power was geuen to hurt the earth and the sea,) saying ; Hurt not the earth neither the sea, neither the trees, tyll we haue sealed the seruautes of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the nombre of them whiche were sealed ; and there were sealed an C. and xlivii.M., of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

Of the tribe of Juda were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Ruben were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Gad were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Aser were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Neptalim were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Symeon were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Leuy were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Isachar were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed xii.M.

Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed xii.M.

After this I behelde, and loe, a great multitude, (whiche no manne could nombre) of all nacions and people, and tongues stode before the seate and before the lambe, clothed with long white garmentes, and Palmes in theyr handes, and cried with a loude voyce, saying ; saluacion be ascribed to him that sitteth upon the seate of our god, and unto the lambe. And al the Angels stode in the compasse of the seate, and of the elders, and of the fourre beastes, and fell before the seate on their faces, and worshipped God, saying ; Amen. Blessyng and glory, and wisedome, and thankes, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for euermore. Amen.

The Gospell. Matt. v.

JESUS seing the people, went up into the mountaine : and when he was set, his disciples came to hym, and after that he hadde opened his mouth, he taught them, saying ; Blessed are the poore in spirite, for theirs is the kyngdome of heauen. Blessed are they that morne ; for they shall receyue comfort. Blessed are the meke : for they shall receyue the enheritaunce of the earth. Blessed are they whiche hunger and thirst after righteousnes : for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are the mercyfull : for they shall obtaine mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shal see God. Blessed are the peacemakers : for they shalbe called the children of God. Blessed are they whiche suffre persecucion for righteousnes sake : for theirs is the kyngdome of heauen. Blessed are ye when men reuile you, and persecute you, and shall falsly saye all maner of euill sayinges against you for my sake : reioice, and be glad ; for great is youre rewarde in heauen. For so persecuted they the Prophetes whiche were before you.

AND
THE HOLY COMMUNION,
COMMONLY CALLED THE MASSE.

¶ SO many as intende to bee partakers of the holy Communion, shall sygnifie their names to the Curate, ouer night: or els in the morning, afore the beginning of Matins, or immediatly after.

¶ And if any of those be an open and notorious euill liuer, so that the congregacion by hym is offended, or haue doen any wrong to his neighbours by worde or dede: The Curate shall call hym, and aduertise hym, in any wise not to presume to the lordes table, untill he haue openly declared hymselfe to haue truly repented, and amended his former naughtie life: that the congregacion maie thereby be satisfied, whiche afore were offended: and that he haue recompensed the parties, whom he hath dooen wrong unto, or at the least bee in full purpose so to doo, as sone as he conueniently maie.

¶ The same ordre shall the Curate use, with those betwixt whom he perceiuth malice, and hatred to reigne, not suffering them to bee partakers of the Lordes table, untill he knowe them to bee reconciled. And yf one of the parties so at variaunce, be content to forgeue from the botome of his harte all that the other hath trespassed against hym, and to make amendes for that he hymself hath offended: and the other partie will not bee perswaded to a godly unite, but remaigne still in his frowardnes and malice: The Minister in that case, ought to admit the penitent persone to the holy Communion, and not hym that is obstinate.

¶ Upon the daie and at the tyme appoincted for the ministracion of the holy Communion, the Priest that shal execute the holy ministery, shall put upon hym the vesture appoincted for that ministracion, that is to saye: a white Albe plain, with a vestement or Cope. And where there be many Priestes, or Decons, there so many shalbe ready to helpe the Priest, in the ministracion, as shalbee requisite: And shall haue upon them lykewise the vestures appoincted for their ministery, that is to saye, Albes with tunacles. Then shall the Clérkes syng in Englishe for the office, or Introite, (as they call it,) a Psalme appoincted for that daie.

The Priest standing humbly afore the middes of the Altar, shall saie the Lordes praier, with this Collect.

ALMIGHTIE God, unto whom all hartes bee open, and all desyres knownen, and from whom no secretes are hid: clese the thoughts of our hartes, by the inspiracion of thy holy spirite: that we may perfectly loue thee, and worthely magnifie thy holy name: through Christ our Lorde. Amen.

Then shall he saie a Psalme appointed for the introite: whiche Psalme ended, the Priest shall saye, or els the Clerkes shal syng,

- iii. Lorde haue mercie upon us.
- iii. Christ haue mercie upon us.
- iii. Lorde haue mercie upon us.

Then the Prieste standyng at Goddes borde shall begin,

Glory be to God on high.

The Clerkes. And in yearth peace, good will towardes men.

We praise thee, we blesse thee, we worship thee, we glorifie thee, wee geue tankes to thee for thy greate glory, O Lorde GOD, heauenly kyng, God the father almighty.

O Lorde the onely begotten sonne Jesu Christe, O Lorde GOD, Lambe of GOD, sonne of the father, that takest awaye the synnes of the worlde, haue mercie upon us: thou that takest awaye the synnes of the worlde, receiue our praier.

Thou that sittest at the right hande of God the father, haue mercie upon us: For thou onely art holy, thou onely art the Lorde. Thou onely (O Christ) with the holy Ghoste, are moste high in the glory of God the father. Amen.

Then the priest shall turne him to the people and saye,

The Lorde be with you.

The Aunswere. And with thy spirite.

The Priest. Let us priae.

Then shall folowe the Collect of the daie, with one of these two Collectes folowynge, for the kyng.

ALMIGHTIE God, whose kingdom is euerlasting, and power infinite, haue mercie upon the whole congregacion, and so rule the heart of thy chosen seruaunt Edward the sixt, our kyng and gouernour: that he (knowyng whose minister he is) maie aboue al thinges, seke thy honour and glory, and that we his subiectes (duely consydering whose auctoritie he hath) maye faithfully serue, honour, and humbly obeye him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed word and ordinaunce: Through Jesus Christe oure Lorde, who with thee, and the holy ghoste, liueth and reigneth, euer one God, worlde without ende. Amen.

ALMIGHTIE and euerlasting GOD, wee bee taught by thy holy worde, that the heartes of Kynges are in thy rule and gouernaunce, and that thou doest dispose, and turne them as it semeth best to thy godly wisdom : We humbly beseche thee, so to dispose and gouerne, the hart of Edward the sixt, thy seruaunt, our Kyng and gouernour, that in all his thoughtes, wordes, and workes, he maye euer seke thy honour and glory, and study to preserue thy people, committed to his charge, in wealth, peace, and Godlynes : Graunt this, O mercifull father, for thy dere sonnes sake, Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

The Collectes ended, the priest, or he that is appointed, shall reade the Epistle, in a place assigned for the purpose, saying.

The Epistle of saint Paule, written in the Chapter of to the

The Minister then shall reade the Epistle. Immediately after the Epistle ended, the priest, or one appointed to reade the Gospel, shall saie,

The holy Gospell, written in the Chapter of

The Clearkes and people shall aunswere, Glory be to thee, O Lorde.

The priest or deacon then shall reade the Gospel : After the Gospell ended, the Priest shall begin,

I BELEUE in one God.

The clerkes shall syng the rest.

The father almighty, maker of heauen and yearth, and of all things visible, and inuisible : And in one Lorde Jesu Christ, the onely begotten sonne of GOD, begotten of his father before all worldes, God of GOD, light of light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, beeyng of one substaunce with the father, by whom all thinges were made, who for us men, and for our saluacion, came doune from heauen, and was incarnate by the holy Ghoste, of the Virgin Mary, and was made manne, and was Crucified also for us under Poncius Pilate, he suffered and was buried, and the thirde daye he arose again according to the scriptures, and ascended into heauen, and sitteth at the right hande of the father : and he shall come again with glory, to iudge both the quicke and the dead.

And I beleue in the holy ghost, the Lorde and geuer of life, who procedeth from the father and the sonne, who with the father and the sonne together, is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophetes. And I beleue one Catholike and Apostolike Churche. I acknowledge one Baptisme, for the remission of synnes. And I looke for the resurreccyon of the deade : and the lyfe of the worlde to come. Amen.

¶ After the Crede ended, shall folowe the Sermon or Homely, or some portiō of one of the Homelyes, as thei shalbe heraftir deuided: wherin if the people bee not exhorted to the worthy receiuyng of the holy Sacrament of the bodye and bloude of our sauior Christ: then shal the Curate geue this exhortaciō, to those y^e be minded to receiue y^e same.

DERELY beloved in the Lord, ye that mynde to come to the holy Communio of the bodye and bloude of our sauior Christe, must considre what S. Paule writeth to the Corinthiās, how he exhorteth all personnes diligently to trie and examine thēselues, before they presume to eate of that breade, and drinke of that cup: for as the benefite is great, if with a truly penitent heart, and liuely faith, we receiue that holy Sacramēt; (for then we spiritually eate the fleshe of Christ, and drinke his bloude, then we dwell in Christ and Christ in us, wee bee made one with Christ, and Christ with us;) so is the daunger great, yf wee receyue the same unworthely; for then wee become gyltie of the body and bloud of Christ our sauior, we eate and drinke our owne damnacion, not considering the Lordes bodye. We kyndle Gods wrathe ouer us, we prouoke him to plague us with diuerse dyseases, and sondery kyndes of death. Therefore if any here be a blasphemer, aduouterer, or bee in malyce, or enuie, or in any other greuous cryme (excepte he bee truly sory therefore, and earnestly mynded to leaue the same vices, and do trust himselfe to be reconciled to almighty God, and in Charitie with all the worlde), lette him bewayle his synnes, and not come to that holy table; lest after the taking of that most blessed breade, the deuyll enter into him, as he dyd into Judas, to fyll him full of all iniquitie, and brynge him to destruccion, bothe of body and soule.

Judge therfore yourselves (brethren) that ye bee not iudged of the Lorde. Let your mynde be without desire to synne, repent you truely for your synnes past, haue an earnest and lyuely faith in Christ our sauior, be in perfect charitie with all men, so shall ye be mete partakers of those holy misteries. And aboue all thynges: ye must geue moste humble and hartie thankes to God the father, the sonne, and the holy ghost, for the redempcion of the worlde, by the death and passion of our sauior Christ, both God and man, who did humble himself euen to the death upon the crosse, for us miserable synners, whiche laie in darknes and shadowe of death, that he myghte make us the children of God: and exalt us to euerlasting life. And to thende that wee should alwaye remembre the excedyng loue of our master, and onely sauior Jesu Christe, thus diyng for us, and the innumerable benefites (whiche by his precious bloud-shedyng) he hath obteigned to us, he hath lefte in those holy Misteries, as a pledge of his loue, and a continual remēbraunce of the same his owne blessed body, and precious bloud, for us to fede upon spiritually, to our endles comfort and consolacion. To him therfore, with the father and the holy ghost, let us geue (as we are most bounden) continual thankes, submittyng ourselfes wholy to hys holy will and pleasure, and studying to serue hym in true holines and righteousnes, al the daies of our life. Amen.

¶ In Cathedral churches or other places, where there is dailie Communion, it shall be sufficient to read this exhortacion aboue written, once in a moneth. And in parish churches, upon the weke daies it may be lefte unsayed.

¶ And if upon the Sunday or holydaye the people be negligent to come to the Communion: Then shall the Priest earnestly exhortre his parishioners, to dispose themselves to the receiuing of the holy cōmunion more diligently, saying these or like wordes unto the.

DERE frendes, and you especially upon whose soules I haue cure and charge, on next, I do intende by Gods grace, to offre to all suche as shalbe godlye disposed, the moste comfortable Sacrament of the body and bloud of Christ, to be taken of them in the remembraunce of his moste fruitfull and glorious Passyon: by the whiche passion we have obteigned remission of our synnes, and be made partakers of the kyngdom of heauen, whereof wee bee assured and assereteigned, yf wee come to the sayde Sacrament, with hartie repentaunce for our offences, stedfast faithe in Goddes mercye, and earnest mynde to obeye Goddes will, and to offend no more. Wherefore our duetie is, to come to these holy misteries, with moste heartie thankes to bee geuen to almighty GOD, for his infinite mercie and benefites geuen and bestowed upon us his unworthye seruauntes, for whom he hath not onely geuen his body to death, and shed his bloude, but also doothe vouchsaue in a Sacrament and Mistery, to geue us his sayed bodye and bloud to feede upon spirituallly. The whyche Sacrament beyng so Diuine and holy a thyng, and so comfortable to them whiche receyue it worthilie, and so daungerous to them that wyl presume to take the same unworthely: My duetie is to exhortre you in the meane season, to consider the greatnes of the thing, and to serche and examine your owne consciences, and that not lyghtly nor after the maner of dissimulers with GOD: But as they whiche shoulde come to a moste Godly and heauenly Banquet, not to come but in the mariage garment required of God in scripture, that you may (so muche as lieth in you) be founde worthie to come to suche a table. The waies and meanes thereto is,

First, that you be truly repentaūt of your former euill life, and that you confesse with an unfained hearte to almighty God, youre synnes and unkyndnes towardes his Maiestie committed, either by will, worde or dede, infirmtie or ignoraunce: and that with inwarde sorowe and teares you bewaile your offences, and require of almighty God mercie and pardon, promising to him (from the botome of your hartes) thamendment of your former lyfe. And emonges all others, I am commaunded of God, especially to moue and exhorte you to reconcile yourselues to your neighbors, whom you haue offended, or who hath offended you, putting out of your heartes al hatred and malice against them, and to be in loue and charitie with all the worlde, and to forgue other, as you woulde that god should forgue you. And yf any mā haue doen wrōg to any other: let him make satisfaccion, and due restitucion of all landes and goodes, wronfully taken awaie or withholden, before he come to Goddes borde, or at the least be in ful minde and purpose so to do, as sone as he is able, or els let him not come to this holy table, thinking to deceyue God, who seeth all mēnes hertes. For neither the absolucion of the priest, can any thing ayayle them, nor the receiuyng of this holy sacrament doth any thing but increase their damnacion. And yf there bee any of you, whose conscience is troubled and greued in any thing, lackyng conforte or counsaill, let him come to me, or to some other dyscrete and learned priest, taught in the law of God, and confesse and open his synne and grieve secretly, that he may receiue suche ghostly counsaill, aduyse, and comfort, that his conscience may be releued, and that of us (as of the ministers of GOD and of the churche) he may receiue comfort and absolucion, to the satisfaccion of his mynde, and auoyding of all scruple and doubtfulnes: requiryng suche as shalbe satisfied with a generall confession, not to be offended with them that doe use, to their further satisfyng, the auriculer and secret confession to the Priest: nor those also whiche thinke nedfull or conuenient, for the quietnes of their awne cōsciences, particularly to open their sinnes to the Priest: to bee offended with them that are satisfied, with their humble confession to GOD, and the generall confession to the churche. But in all thinges to folowe and kepe the rule of charitie, and euyer man to be satisfied with his owne conscience, not iudgyng other mennes myndes or consciences; where as he hath no warrant of Goddes word to the same.

¶ Then shall folowe for the Offertory, one or mo, of these Sentences of holy scripture, to bee song whiles the people doo offer, or els one of them to bee saied by the minister, immediatly afore the offeryng.

Aunswere. And with thy spirite.

Priest. Lift up your heartes.

Aunswere. We lift them up unto the Lorde.

Priest. Let us geue thankes to our Lorde God.

Aunswere. It is mete and right so to do.

The Priest. It is very mete, righte, and our boüden dutie, that wee shoulde at all tymes, and in all places, geue thankes to thee, O Lorde holy father, almighty euerlastyng God.

¶ Here shall folowe the proper preface accordyng to the tyme (if there bee any specially appoynted), or els immediatly shall folowe, PROPRE PREFACES.

¶ Upon Christmas Daie.

BECAUSE thou diddest geue Jesus Christe, thyne onely sonne, to bee borne as this daye for us, who by the operacion of the holy ghoste, was made very man, of the substaunce of the Virgin Mari his mother, and that without spot of sinne to make us cleane from all synne. Therefore &c.

¶ Upon Easter daie.

BUT chiefly are we bound to praise thee, for the glorious resurreccion of thy sonne Jesus Christe, our Lorde, for he is the very Pascall Lambe, whiche was offered for us, and hath taken awaie the synne of the worlde, who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his risyng to life againe, hath restored to us euerlastynge life. Therefore &c.

¶ Upon the Assencion Day.

THROUGH thy moste dere beloued sonne, Jesus Christ our Lorde, who after his moste glorious resurreccion manifestly appered to all his disciples, and in their sight ascended up into heauen, to prepare a place for us, that where he is, thither mighte we also ascende, and reigne with hym in glory. Therfore &c.

¶ Upon Whitsondaye.

THROUGH Jesus Christe our Lorde, accordyng to whose moste true promise, the holy Ghoste came doun this daye frō heauen, with a sodain great sound, as it had been a mightie wynde, in the likenes of fiery tounghes, lightyng upon the Apostles, to teache them, and to leade them to all trueth, geuyng them bothe the gifte of diuerte languages, and also boldnes with feruent zeale, constantly to preach the Gospell unto all nacionis, whereby we are brought out of darkenes and error, into the cleare light and true knowlege of thee, and of thy sonne Jesus Christ. Therfore &c.

¶ Upon the feast of the Trinitie.

IT is very meete, righte, and oure bounden duetie, that we should at al tymes, and in al places, geue thankes to thee O Lorde, almightyne euerlasting God, whiche arte one God, one Lorde, not one onely person, but three persones in one substaunce: For that which we beleue of the glory of the father, the same we beleue of the sōne, and of the holy ghost, without any difference, or inequalitie: whom the Angels &c.

After whiche preface shall folowe immediatly,

Therfore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the holy compayne of heauen, we laude and magnify thy glorious name, euermore praisyng thee, and saying, ¶ Holy, holy, holy, Lorde God of Hostes: heauen and earth are full of thy glory: Osanna in the highest. Blessed is he that commeth in the name of the Lorde: Glory to thee, O lorde in the highest.

This the Clerkes shall also syng.

¶ When the Clerkes have dooen syngyng, then shall the Priest, or Deacon, turne hym to the people, and saye,

Let us präie for the whole state of Christes churche.

¶ Then the Priest, turnyng hym to the Altar, shall saye or syng, playnly and distinctly, this prayer folowyng:

ALMIGHTIE and euerliuyng GOD, whiche by thy holy Apostle haste taught us to make prayers and supplicacions, and to geue thankes for al menne: We humbly beseche thee moste mercyfully to receiue these our praiers, which we offre unto thy diuine Maiestie, beseching thee to inspire cōtinually the uniuersal churche with the spirite of trueth, unitie, and concorde: And graunt that al they that do cōfesse thy holy name, maye agree in the trueth of thy holye worde, and liue in unitie and godly loue. Speciallye we beseche thee to saue and defende thy seruaunt Edwarde our Kyng, that under hym we maye be Godly and quietly gouerned. And graunt unto his whole coūsaile, and to all that he put in auctorite under hym, that they maye truely and indifferently minister iustice, to the punishmente of wickednesse and vice, and to the maintenaunce of Goddes true religion and vertue. Geue grace (O heauenly father) to all Bishoppes, Pastors, and Curates, that thei maie bothe by their life and doctrine set furthe thy true and liuely worde, and rightely and duely administer thy holy Sacramentes: and to al thy people geue thy heauenly grace, that with meke heart and due reuerence they may heare and receiue thy holy worde, truely seruynge thee in holynes and righteousnes all the dayes of their life: And we most hübly beseche thee of thy goodnes (O Lorde) to coumfort and succour all them, whyche in thy transitory life be in trouble, sorowe, nede, syckenes, or any other aduersitie. And especially we commend unto thy mercifull goodnes, this congregacion which is here assembled in thy name, to celebrate the commemoracion of the most glorious death of thy sonne: And here we do geue unto thee moste high praise, and heartie thankes, for the wonderfull grace and vertue, declared in all thy saintes, from the begynning of the worlde: And chiefly in the glorious and moste blessed virgin Mary, mother of thy sonne Jesu Christe our Lorde and

God, and in the holy Patriarches, Prophetes, Apostles and Martyrs, whose examples (o Lorde) and stedfastnes in thy fayth, and kepyng thy holy commaundementes, graunt us to folowe. We commend unto thy mercye (O Lorde) all other thy seruauntes, which are departed hence from us, with the signe of faith, and nowe do reste in the slepe of peace : Graūt unto them, we beseche thee, thy mercy, and euerlasting peace, and that, at the day of the generall resurreccion, we and all they which bee of the mysticall body of thy sonne, may altogether be set on his right hand, and heare that his most ioyfull voyce : Come unto me, O ye that be blessed of my father, and possesse the kingdom, whiche is prepared for you from the begynning of the worlde : Graunt this, O father, for Jesus Christes sake, our onely mediatour and aduocate.

O God heauenly father, which of thy tender mercie diddest geue thine only sonne Jesu Christ to suffre death upon the crosse for our redempcion, who made there (by his one oblacion once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblacion, and satysfaccyon, for the sinnes of the whole worlde, and did institute, and in his holy Gospell commaund us, to celebrate a perpetuall memory of that his precious death, untyll his comming again : Heare us (o merciful father) we besech thee ; and with thy holy sprite and worde, vouchsafe to bl̄esse and sanctifie these thy gyftes, and creatures of bread and wyne, that they maie be unto us the boodye and bloude of thy mooste derely beloued sonne Jesus Christe. Who in the same nyght that he was betrayed : tooke breade, and when he had blessed, and geuen thankes : he brake it, and gaue it to his disciples, saiyng : Take, eat, this is my boodye which is geuen for you, do this in remembraunce of me.

Likewyse after supper he tooke the cuppe, and when he had geuen thankes, he gaue it to them, saiyng : drynk ye all of this, for this is my bloude of the newe Testament, whyche is shed for you and for many, for remission of synnes : do this as oft as you shall drinke it, in remembraunce of me.

These wordes before rehersed are to be saied, turning still to the Altar, without any eleuacion, or shewing the Sacrement to the people.

WHERFORE, O Lorde and heauenly father, accordyng to the Instytucion of thy derely beloued sonne, our sauour Jesu Christ, we thy humble seruauntes do celebrate, and make here before thy diuine Maiestie, with these thy holy giftes, the memoryall whyche thy sonne hath wylled us to make, hauyng in remembraunce his blessed passion, mightie resurreccyon, and gloryous ascencion, renderyng unto thee most hartie thankes, for the innumerable benefites procured unto us by the same, entierely desiryng thy fatherly goodnes, mercifully to accepte this our Sacrifice of praise and thankes geuing : most humbly beseching thee to graunt, that

Here the prieste must take the bread into his hādes.

Here the priest shall take the Cuppe into his hādes.

by the merites and death of thy sōne Jesus Christ, and through faith in his bloud, we and al thy whole church, may obteigne remission of our sinnes, and all other benefites of hys passyon. And here wee offre and present unto thee (O Lorde) oure selfe, oure soules, and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and liuely sacrifice unto thee: humbly besechynge thee, that whosoeuer shalbee partakers of thys holy Communion, maye worthely receiue the most precious body and bloude of thy sonne Jesus Christe: and bee fulfilled with thy grace and heauenly benedicion, and made one bodye with thy sonne Jesu Christe, that he maye dwell in them, and they in hym. And although we be unworthy (through our manyfolde synnes) to offre unto thee any Sacryfice: Yet we beseche thee to accepte thys our bounden duetie and seruice, and commaunde these our prayers and supplicacions, by the Ministry of thy holy Angels, to be brought up into thy holy Tabernacle before the syght of thy dyuine maestie; not waiyng our merites, but pardonyng our offences, through Christe our Lorde, by whome, and with whome, in the unite of the holy Ghost: all honour and glory, be unto thee, O father almighty, world without ende. Amen.

Let us praye.

As our sauour Christe hath commaunded and taught us, we are bolde to saye. Our father, whyche art in heauen, halowed be thy name. Thy Kyngdome come. Thy wyll be doen in yearth, as it is in heauen. Geue us this daye our dayly breade. And forgue us our trespasses, as wee forgue them that trespassse agaynst us. And leade us not into temptacion.

The aunsweare. But deliuer us from euill. Amen.

Then shall the priest saye.

The peace of the Lorde be alwaye with you.

The Clerkes. And with thy spirite.

The Priest. Christ our Pascall lambe is offred up for us, once for al, when he bare our sinnes on hys body upon the crosse, for he is the very lambe of God, that taketh away the sinnes of the worlde: wherfore let us kepe a ioyfull and holy feast with the Lorde.

Here the priest shall turne hym toward those that come to the holy Communion, and shall saye.

You that do truly and earnestly repent you of your synnes to almighty God, and be in loue and charitie with your neighbors, and entende to lede a newe life, folowyng the commaundementes of God, and walkyng from hencefurth in his holy wayes: drawe nere and take this holy Sacrament to your confort, make your humble confession to almighty God, and to his holy church here gathered together in hys name, mekely knelyng upon your knees.

Then shall thys generall Confession bee made, in the name of al those that are minded to receive the holy Communion, eyther by one of them, or els by one of the ministers, or by the prieste himselfe, all kneeling humbly upon their knees.

ALMYGHTIE GOD father of oure Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all thynges, judge of all men, we knowlege and bewaile our many-fold synnes and wyckednes, which we from tyme to tyme, most greuously haue committed, by thought, word and dede, agaynst thy diuine maiestie, prouokynge moste iustely thy wrath and indignacion against us, we do earnestly repent and be hartely sory for these our misdoinges, the remembraunce of them is greuous unto us, the burthen of them is intollerable: haue mercy upon us, haue mercie upon us, moste mercyfull father, for thy sonne our Lorde Jesus Christes sake, forȝeue us all that is past, and graunt that we may euer hereafter, serue and please thee in neunes of life, to the honor and glory of thy name: Through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

Then shall the Prieste stande up, and turnyng himselfe to the people, say thus,

ALMIGHTIE GOD, our heauenly father, who of his great mercie hath promysed forȝeuenesse of synnes to all them, whiche with hartye repentaunce and true fayth, turne unto him: haue mercy upon you, pardon and delyuer you from all youre sinnes, confirme and strēghthen you in all goodnes, and bring you to euerlasting lyfe: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the Priest also say,

Heare what comfertable woordes our sauour Christ sayeth, to all that truely turne to him.

Come unto me all that trauell, and bee heauy laden, and I shall refreshe you. So God loued the worlde that he gaue his onely begotten sonne, to the ende that al that beleue in hym, shoulde not perishe, but haue lyfe euerlasting.

Heare also what saint Paul sayeth.

This is a true saying, and woorthie of all men to bee receiued, that Jesus Christe came into thys worlde to saue sinners.

Heare also what saint John sayeth.

If any man sinne, we haue an aduocate with the father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the propiciacion for our sinnes.

Then shall the Priest turnyng him to gods boord, knele down, and say in the name of all them, that shall receyue the Communion, this prayer folowing.

WE do not presume to come to this thy table (o mercifull lord) trusting in our owne righteousnes, but in thy manifold and great mercies: we be not woorthie so much as to gather up the cromes under thy table: but thou art the same lorde whose propertie is alwayes to haue mercie : Graunt us therefore (gracious lorde) so to eate the fleshe of thy dere sonne Jesus Christ, and to drynke his bloud in these holy Misteries, that we may continuallye dwell in hym, and he in us, that our synfull bodyes may bee made cleane by his body, and our soules washed through hys most precious bloud. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Prieste firste receive the Communion in both kindes him-selfe, and next deliuer it to other Ministers, if any be there presente, (that they may bee ready to helpe the chiefe Minister,) and after to the people.

¶ And when he deliuereth the Sacramente of the body of Christe, he shall say to euery one these woordes.

The body of our Lorde Jesus Christe whiche was geuen for thee, preserue thy bodye and soule unto euerlasting lyfe.

And the Minister deliuering the Sacramēt of the bloud, and geuing euery one to drinke once and no more, shall say,

The bloud of our Lorde Jesus Christe which was shed for thee, preserue thy bodye and soule unto euerlastyng lyfe.

If there be a Deacon or other Priest, then shal he folow with the Chalice : and as the Priest ministereth the Sacramēt of the body, so shal he (for more expeditiō) minister the Sacrament of the bloud, in fourme before written.

In the Communion tyme the Clarkes shall syng, ii. O lambe of god, that takeste away the sinnes of the worlde : haue mercie upon us.

O lambe of god, that takeste away the synnes of the worlde : graunt us thy peace.

Beginning so soone as the Prieste doeth receyue the holy Communion, and when the Communion is ended, then shall the Clarkes syng the post Communion.

¶ Sentences of holy Scripture, to be sayd or song euery daye one, after the holy Communion, called the post Communion.

Then the Priest shall gene thankes to God, in the name of all them that haue communicated, turning him first to the people, and saying.

The Lorde be with you.

The aunswere. And with thy spirite.

The priest. Let us pray.

ALMIGHTYE and euerlyuyng GOD, we moste hertely thanke thee, for that thou hast vouchsafed to feede us in these holy Misteries, with the spirituall foode of the moste precious body and bloud of thy sonne, our sauour Jesus Christ, and haste assured us (duely receiuing the same) of thy fauour and goodnes toward us, and that we be very membres incorporate in thy Misticall bodye, whiche is the blessed compayne of all faythfull people, and heyres through hope of thy euerlasting kingdome, by the merites of the most precious death and passion, of thy deare sonne. We therfore most humbly beseche thee, O heauenly father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy felowship, and doe all suche good woorkes, as thou hast prepared for us to walke in : through Jesus Christe our Lorde, to whome with thee and the holy gost, bee all honour and glory, world without ende.

Then the Priest turning hym to the people, shall let them depart with this blessing :

The peace of GOD (which passeth all understanding) kepe your hertes and mindes in the knowledge and loue of GOD, and of his sonne Jesus Christ our Lorde : And the blessing of God Almighty, the father, the sonne, and the holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you alwaye.

Then the people shall aunswere.

Amen.

Where there are no clerkes, there the Priest shall say al thinges appoynted here for them to sing.

When the holy Communion is celebrate on the workeday, or in priuate howses: Then may be omitted, the Gloria in excelsis, the Crede, the Homily, and the exhortacion, beginning.

DEARELY beloued, &c.

¶ Collectes to bee sayed after the Offertory, when there is no Communion, every such day one.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and praiers, and dispose the way of thy seruautes, toward the attaintement of euerlasting saluacion, that emong all the chaunges and chaunces of thys mortall lyfe, they maye euer bee defended by thy moste gracious and readye helpe ; throughe Christe our Lorde. Amen.

O ALMIGHTIE Lorde and euerlyuyng GOD, vouchesafe, we beseche thee, to direct, sanctifie, and gourne, both our heartes and bodies, in the wayes of thy lawes, and in the workes of thy cōmaundementes : that through thy moste mightie proteccion, both here and euer, we may be preserued in body and soule : Through our Lorde and sauour Jesus Christ. Amen.

GRAUNT we beseche thee almighty god, that the wordes whiche we haue hearde this day with our outwarde eares, may throughe thy grace, bee so grafted inwardly in our heartes, that they may bring foorth in us the fruite of good liuing, to the honour and prayse of thy name : through Jesus Christe our Lorde. Amen.

PREUENT us, O lorde, in all our doinges, with thy most gracious fauour, and further us with thy continuall helpe, that in al our woorkes begonne, continued, and ended in thee : we may glorifye thy holy name, and finally by thy mercy obteine euerlasting life : Through, &c.

ALMIGHTIE God, the fountayn of all wisdome, which knowest our necessities beforwe we aske, and our ignorance in asking : we beseche thee to haue compassion upon our infirmities, and those thynges, whiche for our unwoorthines we dare not, and for our blindnes we cannot aske, vouchsae to geue us for the woorthines of thy sonne Jesu Christ our Lorde. Amen.

ALMIGHTIE god, which hast promised to heare the peticions of them that aske in thy sonnes name, we beseche thee mercifully to inclyne thyne eares to us that haue made nowe our prayers and supplicacions unto thee, and graunt that those thynges whiche we haue faythfullye asked accordyng to thy will, maye effectually bee obteyned to the relief of oure necessity, and to the settyng foorth of thy glorye : Through Jesus Christ our Lorde.

¶ For rayne.

O GOD heauenly father, whiche by thy sonne Jesu Christ, hast promised to al the that seke thy kingdom, and the righteousnes therof, al thinges necessary to the bodey sustenaunce : send us (we beseche thee) in this our necessitie, such moderate rayne and showers, that we may receiue the fruites of the earth, to our comfort and to thy honor ; Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For fayre wether.

O LORDE God, whiche for the sinne of manne didst once drowne all the worlde, except eight persons, and afterwarde of thy great mercye, didste promise neuer to destroy it so agayn : We hübly beseche thee, that although we for oure iniquities haue woorthelye deserued this plague of rayne and waters, yet, upon our true repentaunce, thou wilt sende us suche wether wherby we may receiue the fruites of the earth in due season, and learne both by thy punishment to amende our liues, and by the graunting of our peticion to geue thee prayse and glory : Through Jesu Christ our Lorde.

¶ Upon wednesdaies and frydaies the English Letany shalbe said or song in all places, after suche forme as is appoynted by the kynges maiesties Iniunctions: Or as is or shal bee otherwyse appoynted by his highnes. And though there be none to cōmunicate with the Prieste, yet these dayes (after the Letany ended) the Prieste shall put upon him a playn Albe or surplesse, with a cope, and say al thinges at the Altar (appoynted to be sayed at the celebracyon of the lordes supper), untill after the offertory. And then shall adde one or two of the Collectes aforewritten, as occasion shall serue by his discretion. And then turning him to the people shall let them depart with the accustomed blessing. And the same order shall be used all other dayes whensoeuer the people be customably assembled to pray in the churche, and none disposed to communicate with the Prieste.

Lykewyse in Chapelles annexed, and all other places, there shalbe no celebrazion of the Lordes supper, except there be some to communicate with the Prieste. And in suche Chapelles annexed where ye people hath not bene accustomed to pay any holy bread, there they must either make some charitable prouision for the bering of the charges of the Communion, or elles (for receyuyng of the same) resort to theyr Parish Churche.

For aduoyding of all matters and occasyon of dyscencyon, it is mete that the breade prepared for the Communion, bee made, through all thys realme, after one sort and fashion: that is to say, unleauened, and rounde, as it was afore, but without all maner of printe, and somethyng more larger and thicker than it was, so that it may be aptly deuided in diuers pieces and every one shall be deuided in two pieces, at the leaste, or more, by the discretion of the minister, and so distributed. And menne muste not thynde lesse to be receyued in parte then in the whole, but in eache of them the whole body of our saviour Jesu Christ.

And forsomuche as the Pastours and Curates within thys realme shal continually fynd at theyr costes and charges in theyr cures, sufficient Breade and Wyne for the holy Communion (as oft as theyr Parishioners shalbe disposed for theyr spiritual comfort to receyue the same) it is therefore ordred, that in recompence of suche costes and charges, the Parishioners of euerye Parische shall offer every Sonday, at the tyme of the Offertory, the iuste valour and price of the holy lofe (with all suche money, and other thinges as were wont to be offered with the same) to the use of theyr Pastours and Curates, and that in suche ordre and course, as they were woont to fynde and pay the sayd holy lofe.

Also, that the receiuing of the Sacrement of the blessed body and bloud of Christ, may be most agreeable to the institucion therof, and to the usage of the primitive Churche: In all Cathederall and Collegiate Churches, there shal alwaies some Communicate with the Prieste that ministreth. And that the same may bee also obserued every where abrode in the countrey: Some one at the least of that house in every Parische to whome by course after the ordinaunce herein made, it apperteyneth to offer for the charges of the Communiō, or some other whom they shall prouide to offer for them, shall receiue the holy Communion with the Prieste: the whiche may be the better doer, for that they knowe before, when theyr course commeth, and maie therfore dispose theselues to the worthie receyuyng of the Sacramente. And with hym or them who doeth so offre the charges of the Communion; all other, who be then Godly disposed thereunto, shall lykewyse receive the Communion. And by this meanes the Minister hauyng alwaies some to communicate with him, maie accordingly solemnise so high and holy misteries, with all the suffrages and due ordre appoynted for the same. And the Priest on the weke daie shall forbear to celebrate the Communion, excepte he haue some that will communicate with hym.

Furthermore, every man and womā to be bound to heare and be at the diuine seruice, in the Parishe churche where they be resident, and there with devout prayer, or Godlye silence and meditacion, to occupie them-selues. There to paie their dueties, to communicate once in the yeare at the least, and there to receyue, and take all other Sacramentes and rites, in this booke appoynted. And whosoeuer willyngly upon no iust cause, doeth absent themselues, or doeth ungodly in the Parishe churche occupie theselues : upon proffe therof, by the Ecclesiasticall lawes of the Realme to bee excommunicate, or suffre other punishment, as shall to the Ecclesiastical iudge (accordyng to his discrecion) seme conuenient.

And althoough it bee redde in aunciente writers, that the people many yeares past received at the priestes hādes the Sacrament of the body of Christ in theyr owne handes, and no commaundemēt of Christ to the contrary : Yet forasmuche as they many tymes conueyghed the same secretelye awaie, kept it with them, and diversly abused it to supersticion and wickednes : lest any suche thynge hereafter should be attempted, and that an uniformitie might be used, throughoute the whole Realme : it is thought conuenient the people commōly receive the Sacramēt of Christes body, in their mouthes, at the Priestes hande.

THE LETANY AND SUFFRAGES.

O God the father of heauen : haue mercy upon us miserable synners.

O God the father of heauen : haue mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the sonne, redemer of the world : haue mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the sonne, redemer of the world : haue mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the holy ghost, procedyng from the father and the sonne : haue mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the holy ghost, procedyng from the father and the sonne : haue mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, three persons and one God : haue mercye upon us miserable synners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, three persons and one God : haue mercye upon us miserable synners.

Remember not lorde, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sinnes : spare us good lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy moost precious bloude, and be not angry with us for euer.

Spare us, good Lorde.

From al euill and mischiefe, from synne, from the craftes and assaultes of the deuyll, from thy wrathe, and from euerlastyng damnacion :

Good lorde deliuer us.

From blyndnes of heart, from pryde, vainglory, and Hypocrisye, from enuy, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitablenes :

Good lorde deliuer us.

From fornicacion, and all other deadlye synne, and from al the deceytes of the worlde, the fleshe, and the deuill :

Good lorde deliuer us.

From lightning and tempest, from plague, pestilence, and famine, from battaile and murther, and from sodain death :

Good lorde deliuer us.

From all sedicion and priuye conspiracie, from the tyrannye of the bishop of Rome and all his detestable enormities, from al false doctrine and herisy, from hardnes of heart, and contempte of thy word and commaundemente :

Good lorde deliuer us.

By the mistery of thy holy incarnacion, by thy holy Natiuitie and Circumcision, by thy Baptisme, fastyng, and temptation :

Good lorde deliuer us.

By thyne agony and bloody sweate, by thy crosse and passion, by thy precious death and burial, by thy glorious resurrecciō and ascencion, by the cōming of the holy gost :

Good lorde deliuer us.

In all tyme of our tribulacion, in all time of our wealth, in the houre of death, in the daye of iudgement

Good lorde deliuer us.

We synners do beseche thee to heare us (O Lorde God) and that it maye please thee to rule and gouern thy holy Churche uniuersall in the right waye :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it maye please thee to kepe Edward the vi., thy seruaunt our kyng and gouernour :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it maye please thee to rule his heart in thy faythe, feare, and loue, that he maye alwayes haue affiaunce in thee, and euer seke thy honour and glory :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it maye please thee to be his defendour and keper, geuyng hym the victorye ouer all his enemyes :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it maye please thee to illuminate all Bishops, pastours and ministers of the churche, with true knowlege and understandyng of thy word, and that bothe by theyr preachingy and liuing, they maye set it foorth, and shewe it accordyngly :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to endue the Lordes of the counsaile and all the nobilitie, with grace, wisedome, and understandyng :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to blesse and kepe the magistrates, geuyng them grace to execute iustice, and to mayntayne trueth :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to blesse and kepe al thy people :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue to all nacions unitie, peace, and concorde :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue us an heart to loue and dread thee, and diligently to lyue after thy commaundementes

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue all thy people increase of grace, to heare mekely thy worde, and to receyue it with pure affeccion, and to bryng forth the fruities of the spirite

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to bryng into the way of trueth all suche as haue erred and are deceyued

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to strengthen suche as do stand, and to comfort and helpe the weake hearted, and to raise up them that fall, and finally to beate downe Sathan under our feete

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to succoure, helpe, and comfort all that be in daunger, necessitie, and tribulacion

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to preserue all that trauayle by lande or by water, all women labouryng of chylde, all sicke persons, and yong chyldren, and to shewe the pytie upon all prisoners and captuyes :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to defende and prouide for the faterles children and wyddowes, and all that be desolate and oppressed :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to haue mercy upon all menne :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to forgue our enemies, persecutours, and sclaunderers, and to turne their heartes :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue and preserue to our use the kyndly fruytes of the earth, so as in due tyme we may enjoy them :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee to geue us true repentaunce, to forgue us all our synnes, negligences, and ignorances, and to endue us with the grace of thy holy spirite to amende our lyues accordyng to thy holy worde :

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

Sonne of God : we beseche thee to heare us.

Sonne of God : we beseche thee to heare us.

O labe of God, that takest away the sinnes of the world :

Graunt us thy peace.

O labe of God, that takest away the sinnes of the world :

Hauue mercy upon us.

O Christe heare us.

O Christe heare us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Christe haue mercy upon us.

Christe haue mercy upon us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Our father whiche art in heauen. With the residue of the Paternoster.

And leade us not into temptacion.

But deliuer us from euyll.

The versicle. O Lorde, deale not with us after our synnes.

The aunswere. Neither rewarde us after our iniquities.

Let us praye.

O GOD mercifull father, that despisest not the syghyng of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowfull, mercifully assyste our prayers, that we make before the in all our troubles and aduersities, whensoeuer they oppresse us: And graciously heare us, that those euyls, whiche the crafte and subteltie of the deuyll or man worketh against us, be brought to nought, and by the prouidence of thy goodnes, they maye be dyspersed, that we thy seruautes, beyng herte by no persecutions, maye euermore geue thakes unto thee, in thy holy churche, thorough Jesu Christe our Lorde.

O Lorde, aryse, helpe us, and delyuer us for thy names sake.

O God, we haue heard with our eares, and our fathers haue declared unto us the noble workes that thou dyddest in theyr dayes, and in the olde tyme before them.

O Lorde, aryse, helpe us, and deliuer us for thy honour.

Glory be to the father, the sonne, and to the holy ghoste; as it was in the begynning, is nowe, and euer shall be worlde without ende. Amen.

From our enemies defende us, O Chryste.

Graciously loke upon our afflyctions.

Pytifully beholde the sorowes of our heart.

Mercifullly forgeue the synnes of thy people.

Fauourably with mercy heare our prayers.

O sonne of Dauid haue mercy upon us.

Both nowe and euer vouchsafe to here us Christe.

Graciously heare us, O Christ.

Graciously heare us, O lord Christ.

The versicle. O Lorde, let thy mercy be shewed upon us.

The Aunswere. As we do put our truste in thee.

Let us praye.

WE humbly beseche thee, O father, mercifully to loke upon our infirmities, and for the glory of thy name sake, turne from us all those euilles that we moste righteously haue deserued ; and graunte that in all oure troubles we maye put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and euermore serue thee in purenes of liuyng, to thy honour and glory : through our onely mediator and aduocate Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

ALMIGHTIE God, whiche hast geuen us grace at this tyme with one accorde to make our commune supplicacions unto thee, and doest promise, that whan two or three bee gathered in thy name, thou wylt graunt theyr requestes : fulfill now, O lorde, the desires and peticions of thy seruauntes, as maye bee moste expediente for them, grauntyng us in this worlde knowlege of thy trueth, and in the worlde to come, lyfe euerlasting.
Amen.

¶ But if they which bring the infantes to the church, do make an uncertaine awnser to the priestes questions, and say that they cannot tel what they thought, did, or sayde in that great feare and trouble of mynde (as ofteentimes it chaunseth): Then let the priest Baptize him in forme aboue written, concernyng publyke Baptisme, sauyng that at the dyppynge of the childe in the fonte, he shall use this forme of woordes.

IF thou be not Baptized already, N. I Baptize thee in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

The water in the fonte shalbe chaunged euery moneth once at the least, and afore any child be Baptized in the water so chaunged, the priest shall say at the font these prayers folowing.

O MOSTE mercifull god our sauoure Jesu Christ, who hast ordeyned the element of water for the regeneraciō of thy faythful people, upon whom, beyng baptised in the riuier of Jordane, the holye ghoste came down in the likenesse of a dooue: Sende down we beseche thee the same thy holye spirite to assiste us, and to bee present at this our inuocacion of thy holy name: Sanctifie  this foūtaine of baptisme, thou that art the sanctifier of al thynges, that by the power of thy worde, all those that shall be baptizid therein, maye be spirituallye regenerated, and made the children of euerlasting adopcion. GRAUNT to all them which at this fountayne forsake the deuill and all his workes: that they maye haue power and strength to haue victorye and to triumph agynste hym, the worlde, and the fleshe. Amen.

WHOSOEUER shal confesse the, o lorde : recognise him also in thy kingdome. Amen.

.GRAUNT that al sinne and vice here maie bee so extinct : that thei neuer haue power to raigne in thy seruautes. Amen.

GRAUNTE that whosoeuer here shall begynne to be of thy flocke : maie euermore continue in the same. Amen.

GRAUNT that all they which for thy sake in this life doe denie and forsake themselves : may winne and purchase thee, o lord, which art euerlasting treasure. Amen.

GRAUNT that whosoeuer is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministerie : maye also bee endewed with heauenly vertues, and euerlastinglye rewarded through thy mercie, O Blessed lorde God, who doest liue and gourerne al thinges world without ende. Amen.

The Lorde be with you.

Answer. And with thy spirite.

ALMIGHTYE euerliuing God, whose moste derely beloued sonne Jesus Christe, for the forȝeuenesse of our sinnes did shead out of his moste precious side bothe water and bloude, and gaue commaundemente to his disciples that they shoulde goe teache all nacions, and baptise them in the name of the father, the sonne, and the holye ghoste : Regarde, we beseche thee, the supplicacions of thy congregacion, and graunte that all thy seruautes which shall bee baptized in this water prepared for the mynistracion of thy holy sacrament, maye receiue the fulnesse of thy grace, and euer remaine in the noumbre of thy faithful, and elect childre, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CONFIRMACION,

WHERIN IS CONTEINED A CATHECHISME FOR CHILDREN.

To thende that confirmacion may be ministred to the more edifying of suche as shall receiue it (according to Saint Paules doctrine, who teacheth that all thynges should be doen in the churche to the edificacion of the same) it is thought good that none hereafter shall be confirmed, but suche as can say in theyr mother tong, tharticles of the faith the lordes prayer, and the tenne commaundementes; And can also aunswere to suche questions of this shorte Catechisme, as the Busshop (or suche as he shall appoynte) shall by his discrecion appose them in. And this ordre is most conuenient to be obserued for diuers consideracions.

- ¶ First because that whan children come to the yeres of discretion and haue learned what theyr Godfathers and Godmothers promised for them in Baptisme, they may then theselves with their owne mouth, and with theyr owne consent, openly before the churche ratifie and confesse the same, and also promise that by the grace of God, they will euermore endeouour themselues faithfully to obserue and kepe such thinges, as they by theyr owne mouth and confession haue assented unto.
- ¶ Secondly, forasmuch as confirmacion is ministred to them that be Baptised, that by imposition of handes, and praier they may receiue strength and defence against all temptacions to sin, and the assautes of the worlde, and the deuill: it is most mete to be ministred, when children come to that age, that partly by the frayltie of theyr owne fleshe, partly by the assautes of the world, and the deuill, they begin to be in daungier to fall into sinne.
- ¶ Thirdly, for that it is agreeable with the usage of the churche in tymes past, whereby it was orderned, that Confirmacion should bee ministred to them that were of perfecte age, that they beyng instructed in Christes religion, should openly professe theyr owne fayth, and promise to be obedient unto the will of God.
- ¶ And that no manne shall thynke that anye detrimente shall come to children by differryng of theyr confirmacion: he shall knowe for truelth, that it is certayn by Goddes woerde, that children beeyng Baptized (if they departe out of thys lyfe in theyr infancie) are undoubtedly sauued.

A CATECHISME,

THAT IS TO SAY,

AN INSTRUCCION TO BEE LEARNED OF EUERY CHILDE, BEFORE HE BE BROUGHT TO BE CONFIRMED OF THE BUSHOP.

Question. WHAT is your name?

Aunswere. N or M.

Question. Who gaue you this name?

Aunswere. My Godfathers and Godmothers in my Baptisme, wherein I was made a member of Christe, the childe of God, and inheritor of the kingdome of heauen.

Question. What did your Godfathers and Godmothers then for you?

Aunswere. They did promise and vowe three thinges in my name. First, that I should forsake the devil and all his workes and pompes, the vanities of the wicked worlde, and all the sinnefull lustes of the fleshe. Secondly, that I should beleue all the articles of the Christian fayth. And thirdly, that I should kepe Goddes holy will and commaundementes and walke in the same al the daies of my life.

Question. Dooest thou not thinke that thou arte bound to beleue, and to doe as they haue promised for thee?

Aunswere. Yes verely. And by Gods helpe so I wil. And I hartily thanke our heauenly fathér, that he hath called me to thys state of saluacion, through Jesus Christe our Saueour. And I pray God to geue me hys grace, that I may continue in the same unto my liues ende.

Question. Rehearse the articles of thy belief.

Aunswere. I beleue in God the father almighty, maker of heauen and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only sonne our lord. Whiche was conceiued by the holy gost, borne of the virgin Marie. Suffered under Ponce Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into hel. The third day he rose agayn from the dead. He ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hande of God the father almighty. From thence shal he come to iudge the quicke and the dead. I beleue in the holy goste. The holye catholike church. The communion of saintes. The forgeuenes of sinnes. The resurreccion of the bodie. And the lyfe euer-lasting. Amen.

Question. What dooest thou chiefly learne in these articles of thy belief?

Aunswere. Firste, I learne to beleue in God the father, who hath made me and all the worlde.

Secondely, in God the sonne who hath redemed me and all mankinde.

Minister. Signe them (o lorde) and marke them to be thyne for euer, by the vertue of thy holye crosse and passion. Confirme and strength them with the inward unccion of thy holy gost, mercifully unto euerlasting life. Amen.

Then the Busshop shal crosse them in the forehead, and lay his handes upon theyr heades, saying

N. I signe thee with the signe of the crosse, and laye my hande upon thee. In the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

And thus shall he doe to euery childe one after another. And whan he hath layed hys hande upon every chylde, then shall he say.

*The peace of the lorde abide with you.
Aunswere. And with thy spirite.*

¶ Let us pray.

ALMIGHTIE euerliueng god, which makest us both to will and to doe those thinges that bee good and acceptable unto thy maiestie: we make our humble supplications unto thee for these children, upon whome (after the example of thy holy apostles) we haue laied our handes, to certify them (by this signe) of thy fauour and gracious goodnes toward them: leat thy fatherly hand (we beseeche thee) euer be ouer them, let thy holy spirite euer bee with them, and so leade them in the knowledge and obedience of thy woord, that in the end they may obtaine the life euerlasting, through our lord Jesus Christ, who with thee and the holy goste liueth and reyneth one god world without ende. Amen.

Then shall the Busshop blisse the children, thus saying.

The blessing of god almighty, the father, the sonne, and the holy goste, be upon you, and remayne with you fore euer. Amen.

The curate of every parish once in sixe wekes at the least upon warnynge by him geuen, shal upon some Soonday or holy day, half an houre before euensong opely in the churche instructe and examine so many chyldeyn of his parish sent unto him, as the time wil serue, and as he shal thynke conueniente, in some parte of this Cathechisme. And all fathers, mothers, maisters, and dames, shall cause theyr children, seruauntes, and prentises (whiche are not yet confirmed), to come to the churche at the daie appoynted, and obediently heare and be ordered by the curate, until suche time as they haue learned all that is here appoynted for them to learne.

¶ And whanoeuer the Busshop shal geue knowlage for chyldeyn to be brought afore him to any conuenient place, for their confirmacion: Then shal the curate of every parish either bring or send in writing, y^r names of al those children of his parish which can say tharticles of theyr faith, the lordes praier, and the ten comauendementes. And also howe many of them can answer to thother questions conteined in this Cathechisme.

¶ And there shal none be admitted to the holye communion: until suche time as he be confirmed.

THE FORME OF SOLEMNIZACION OF MATRIMONIE.

¶ First the bannes must be asked three seueral Soondaiers or holye dayes, in the seruice tyme, the people beeyng presente, after the accustomed maner.

And if the persones that woulde bee maried dwel in diuers parishes, the bannes muste bee asked in bothe parishes, and the Curate of thone parish shall not solemnize matrimonie betwixt them, withoute a certificate of the bannes beeyng thrise asked from the Curate of thother parishe.

At the daye appointed for Solemnizacion of Matrimonie, the persones to be maried shal come into the bodis of y^e churche, with theyr frendes and neighbours. And there the priest shal thus saye.

DEERELY beloued frendes, we are gathered together here in the syght of God, and in the face of his congregacion, to ioyne together this man and this woman in holy matrimonie, which is an honorable estate instituted of God in paradise, in the time of mannes innocencie, signifying unto us the misticall union that is betwixte Christe and his Churche: whiche holy estate, Christe adorned and beutified with his presence, and first miracle that he wrought in Cana of Galile, and is commended of Sainct Paule to be honourable emong all men; and therefore is not to bee enterprised, nor taken in hande unaduisedlye, lightlye, or wantonly, to satisfie mens carnal lustes and appetites, like brute beastes that haue no understanding: but reuerently, discretely, aduisedly, soberly, and in the feare of God. Duely consideryng the causes for the whiche matrimonie was ordeined. One cause was the procreacion of children, to be brought up in the feare and nurture of the Lord, and prayse of God. Secondly it was ordeined for a remedie agaynst sinne, and to auoide fornicacion, that suche persones as bee maried, might liue chastlie in matrimonie, and kepe themselues undefiled membres of Christes bodye. Thurdelye for the mutuall societie, helpe, and coumfort, that the one oughte to haue of thother, both in prosperitie and aduersitie. Into the whiche holy estate these two persones present: come nowe to be ioyned. Therefore if any man can shewe any iuste cause why they maie not lawfully be ioyned so together: Leat him now speake, or els hereafter for euer hold his peace.

And also speakyng to the personnes that shalbe maried, he shall saie.

I REQUIRE and charge you (as you will aunswere at the dreadefull daye of iudgemente, when the secrete of all hartes shalbee disclosed) that if either of you doe knowe any impedimente, why ye maie not bee lawfully ioyned together in matrimonie, that ye confesse it. For be ye wel assured, that so manye as bee coupled together otherwaies then Goddes woord doeth allowe: are not ioyned of God, neither is their matrimonie lawful.

At which daye of mariage yf any man doe allege any impediment why they maye not be coupled together in matrimonie; And will be bound, and sureties with hym, to the parties, or els put in a caution to the full value of suche charges as the personnes to bee maried doee susteyne to prove his allegacion: then the Solemnizacion muste bee differred, unto suche tyme as the trueth bee tried. Yf no impedimente bee alleged, then shall the Curate saye unto the man.

N. WILTE thou haue this woman to thy wedded wife, to liue together after Goddes ordeinauce in the holy estate of matrimonie? Wilt thou loue her, comforthe her, honor, and kepe her in sickenesse and in health? And forsaking all other kepe thee only to her, so long as you both shall liue?

The man shall aunswere,

I will.

Then shall the priest saye to the woman.

N. Wilt thou haue this man to thy wedded houseband, to liue together after Goddes ordeinaunce, in the holy estate of matrimonie? Wilt thou obey him, and serue him, loue, honor, and kepe him in sickenes and in health? And forsaking al other kepe thee only to him, so long as you bothe shall liue?

The woman shall aunswere,

I will.

Then shall the Minister say,

Who geueth this woman to be maried to this man?

And the minister receiuing the woman at her father or frendes handes: shall cause the man to take the woman by the right hande, and so either to geue their trouth to other: The man first saying.

I N. take thee N. to my wedded wife, to haue and to holde from this day forwarde, for better, for warse, for richer, for poorer, in sickenes, and in health, to loue, and to cherishe, til death us departe: according to Goddes holy ordeinaunce: And therto I plight thee my trouth.

Then shall they looce theyr handes, and the woman taking again the man by the right hande shall say,

I N. take thee N. to my wedded husbande, to haue and to holde from this day forwarde, for better, for woorse, for richer, for poorer, in sickenes, and in health, to loue, cherishe, and to obey, till death us departe : accordyng to Goddes holy ordeinaunce : And thereto I geue thee my trouth.

Then shall they agayne looce theyr handes, and the manne shall geue unto the womanne a ring, and other tokens of spousage, as golde or siluer, laying the same upon the boke: And the Priest taking the ring shall deliuer it unto the man: to put it upon the fowerth finger of the womans left hande. And the man taught by the priest, shall say.

¶ With thys ring I thee wed : Thys golde and siluer I thee geue : with my body I thee wurship : and withal my worldly Goodes I thee endowe. In the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy goste. Amen.

Then the man leauyng the ring upon the fowerth finger of the womans left hande, the minister shal say,

¶ Let us pray.

O ETERNAL God creator and preseruer of al mankinde, geuer of al spiritual grace, the author of euerlasting life : Sende thy blessing upon these thy seruauntes, thys manne, and this woman, whome we blesse in thy name, that as Isaac and Rebecca (after bracellets and Jewels of golde geuen of thone to thother for tokēs of their matrimonie) liued faithfully together ; So these persōs may surely perfourme and kepe the vowe and couenaunt betwixt them made, wherof this ring geuen, and receiued, is a token and pledge. And may euer remayne in perfite loue and peace together ; And lyue accordyng to thy lawes ; through Jesus Christe our lorde. Amen.

Then shal the prieste ioyne theyr ryght handes together, and say.

¶ Those whome god hath ioyned together : let no man put a sundre.

Then shall the minister speake unto the people.

FORASMUCHE as N. and N. haue consented together in holye wedlocke, and haue witnessed the same here before god and this cūpany ; And thereto haue geuē and pledged theyr trouth eyther to other, and haue declared the same by geuyng and receyuyng golde and syluer, and by ioyning of handes : I pronounce that they bee man and wyfe together. In the name of the father, of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

And the minister shall adde this blesyng.

¶ God the father blesse you. ✕ God the sône kepe you: god the holye gost lightē your understandē: The lorde mercifully with his fauour loke upō you, and so fil you with al spiritual benediction, and grace, that you may haue remissiō of your sinnes in this life, and in the worlde to come lyfe euerlastyng. Amen.

Then shal they goe into the quier, and the ministers or clerkes shal saye or syng, this psalme folowyng.

Beati omnes. BLESSED are al they that feare the lord, and walke cxxviii. in his wayes.

For thou shalte eate the laboure of thy handes. O wel is thee, and happye shalst thou bee.

Thy wife shalbee as the fruitful vine, upon the walles of thy house.

Thy children like the olife braunches rounde about thy table.

Loe, thus shal the man be blessed, that feareth the lord.

The lord from out of Sion, shall so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Hierusalem in prosperitie, al thy life long.

Yea that thou shalt see thy childers children: and peace upon Israel.

Glory to the father, &c.

Minister. O lorde heare my prayer.

Answer. And leate my crie come unto the.

The Minister. Leat us praye.

O GOD of Abraham, God of Isaac, God of Jacob, blesse these thy seruautes, and sowe the seede of eternall life in their mindes, that whatsoeuer in thy holy woord they shall profitablye learne: they may in dede fulfill the same. Looke, O Lord, mercifully upon them from heauen, and blesse them: And as thou diddest sende thy Aungell Raphaell to Thobie, and Sara, the daughter of Raguel, to their great comfort; so vouchsafe to send thy blesсыng upon these thy seruautes, that thei obeyng thy wil, and alwaye beyng in safetie under thy proteccion: may abyde in thy loue unto theyr lyues ende: throughe Jesu Christe our Lorde. Amen.

This prayer folowing shalbe omitted where the woman is past childe byrth.

O MERCIFUL Lord, and heauely father, by whose gracious gifte mākind is increased: We beseche thee assiste with thy blessing these two persones, that they may both be fructful in procreacion of children; and also liue together so long in godlye loue and honestie, that they may see their childers children, unto the thirde and fourth generacion, unto thy prayse and honour: through Jesus Christe our Lorde. Amen.

O God whiche by thy myghtye power hast made all thinges of naughte, whiche also after other thinges set in order diddest appoint that out of man (created after thine own image and similitude) womā should take her beginning: and, knitting them together, diddest teache, that it should neuer be lawful to put a sondre those, whome thou by matrimonie haddest made one. O god, whiche hast consecrated the state of matrimonie to such an excellent misterie, that in it is signified and represēted the spirituall mariage and unitie betwixte Christe and his churche: Loke mercifully upō these thy seruautes, that bothe this manne may loue his wyfe, accordyng to thy woord, (as Christ did loue his spouse the churche, who gaue himself for it, louing and cherishing it even as his own flesh;) And also that this womā may be louing and amiable to her houseband as Rachel, wise as Rebecca, faithful and obediēt as Sara; And in al quietnes, sobrietie, and peace, bee a folower of holy and godlye matrones. O lorde, blesse them bothe, and graunte them to inherite thy euerlastynge kyngdome, throughe Jesu Christe our Lorde. Amen.

Then shall the prieste blesse the man and the woman, saiynge

ALMIGHTY god, which at the beginnyng did create oure firste parentes Adam and Eue, and dyd sanctifie and ioyne thē together in mariage: Powre upon you the rychesse of his grace, sanctifie and  blisse you, that ye may please him bothe in bodye and soule; and liue together in holy loue unto your liues ende. Amen.

Then shalbee sayed after the gospell a sermon, wherein ordinarily (so oft as there is any mariage) thoffice of man and wife shall bee declared according to holy scripture. Or if there be no sermon, the minister shall reade this that foloweth.

AL ye whiche bee maried, or whiche entende to take the holye estate of matrimonie upon you: heare what holye scripture dooeth saye, as touchyng the duetye of housebandes towarde their wiues, and wiues towarde their housebandes.

Saincte Paule (in his epistle to the Ephesians the fyfth chapter) doeth geue this commaundement to al maried men.

Ye housebandes loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the churche, and hathe geuen hymselfe for it, to sanctifie it, purgeyng it in the fountayne of water, throughe the word, that he might make it unto himself, a glorious cōgregacion, not hauing spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and blameles. So mē are bounde to loue their owne wiues as their owne bodies: he that loueth his owne wife, loueth himself. For neuer did any man hate his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the lorde doeth the congregacion, for wee are membres of his bodie, of his fleshe, and of his bones. For this cause shal a man leaue father and mother, and shalbe ioyned unto his wife, and they two shalbe one fleshe. This mistery is great, but I speake of Christ and of the congregacion. Neuerthelesse let euery one of you so loue his owne wife, euen as himselfe.

Likewise the same Saint Paule (writing to the Colossians) Coloss. iii. speaketh thus to al menne that be maried: Ye men, loue your wiues and be not bitter unto them.

Heare also what saint Peter thapostle of Christ, (which was himselfe a maried man,) sayeth unto al menne that are ¹ Pet. iii. maried. Ye husbandes, dwel with your wiues according to knowledge: Geuyng honor unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as heyres together of the grace of lyfe, so that your prayers be not hindred.

Hitherto ye haue heard the duetie of the husbande towarde the wife.

Nowe lykewise, ye wiues, heare and lerne your duetie toward your husbandes, euen as it is playnely set furth in holy scripture.

Saint Paul (in the forenamed epistle to the Ephesians) teacheth you thus : Ye weomen submit yourselves unto your own husbandes as unto the lord : for the husband is the Ephes. v. wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the church : And he also is the sauour of the whole bodye. Therefore as the Churche, or congregacyon, is subiecte unto Christe : So lykewise let the wiues also be in subieccyon unto theyr owne husbandes in all thynges. And agayn he sayeth : Let the wife reuerence her husbande. And (in his epistle to the Colossians) Saincte Paule geueth you this short lesson. Ye wiues, submit yourselves unto your owne husbandes, as it is conueniente in the Lorde.

Sainte Peter also doeth instructe you very godly, thus saying : Let wiues be subiect to theyr owne husbandes, so that if any obey not the woerde, they may bee wonne without the woerde, by the conuersacyon of the wiues ; Whyle they beholde your chaste conuersacyon, coupled with feare, whose apparell let it not bee outward, with broyded heare, and trymmyng about with golde, either in putting on of gorgeous apparell : But leat the hyd man whiche is in the hearte, be without all corpcion, so that the spirite be milde and quiete, which is a precious thing in the sight of god. For after this maner (in the olde tyme) did the holy women, which trusted in God, apparell themselves, beeinge subiecte to theyr own husbandes : as Sara obeied Abraham calling him lorde, whose daughters ye are made, doing wel, and being not dismayed with any feare.

must receive the holy communion.*

THE ORDER FOR THE VISITACION OF THE SICKE, AND THE COMMUNION OF THE SAME.

¶ The Prieste entring into the sicke personnes house, shall saye.

PEACE be in this house, and to all that dwell in it.

When he commeth into the sicke mannes presence, he shall saye this psalme.

Domine exaudi. HEARE my prayer, (o lorde,) and consider my desire : herken unto me for thy trueth and righteousnes sake.
Psalm cxliii.

And entre not into iudgemente with thy seruaunt : for in thy sight shal no man liuing be iustified.

For the enemie hath persecuted my soule : he hath smittē my life downe to the grounde : he hath laied me in the darkenesse, as the men that haue bene long dead.

Therefore is my spirite vexed within me : and my harte within me is desolate.

Yet doe I remembre the time paste, I muse upon all thy woorkes : yea, I exercise myselfe in the workes of thy handes.

I stretche forth mine handes unto the : my soule gaspeth unto the as a thyrstie lande.

Heare me, (o lorde) and that soone : for my spirite weaxeth faint : hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that goe downe into the pitte.

O leate me heare thy louyng-kyndenesse betimes in the morning, for in thee is my trust : shewe thou me the waie that I should walke in for I lift up soule unto thee.

Deliuer me, (o lorde,) from myne enemies : for I flye unto thee to hide me.

Teache me to dooe the thyng, that pleaseth thee, for thou art my god, leate thy louing spirits leade me foorth unto the lande of righteousnesse.

Quicken me, (o lorde) for thy names sake, and for thy righteousnesse sake bring my soule out of trouble.

And of thy goodnesse slaie my enemies : and destroye all them that vexe my soule, for I am thy seruaunt.

Glory to the father and to the sonne, &c.
As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ With this anthem.

REMEMBRE not Lord our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers. Spare us good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redemed with thy most precious bloud, and be not angry with us for euer.

Lorde haue mercye upon us.

Christe haue mercie upon us.

Lorde haue mercie upon us.

Our father, whiche art in heauen, &c.

And leade us not into temptacion.

Answere. But deliuer us from euill. Amen.

The Minister. O lorde sauе thy seruaunte.

Answere. Whiche putteth his trust in the.

Minister. Sende hym helpe from thy holy place.

Answere. And euermore mightily defende hym.

Minister. Leat the enemie have none aduaantage of hym.

Answere. Nor the wicked approche to hurte hym.

Minister. Bee unto hym, o lorde, a strong tower.

Answere. From the face of his enemie.

Minister. Lord heare my prayer.

Answer. And let my crye come unto thee.

Minister. Let us praye.

O LORD looke downe from heauen, beholde, visite, and releue this thy seruaunte: Looke upon hym with the iyes of thy mercy, geue hym coumforte, and sure cōfidence in thee: Defende him from the daunger of the enemie, and kepe hym in perpetual peace, and safetie: through Jesus Christe our Lorde. Amen.

Heare us, almighty and moste merciful God, and Sauiour: Extende thy accustomed goodnesse to this thy seruaunt, which is greued with sickenesse: Visite hym, o Lorde, as thou diddest visite Peters wifes mother, and the Capitaines seruaunt. And as thou preseruedst Thobie and Sara by thy Äugel from daunger: So restoré unto this sicke person his former helth, (if it be thy will,) or els geue hym grace so to take thy correccion, that after this painfull lyfe ended, he maye dwell with thee in lyfe euerlastyng. Amen.

Then shall the Minister exhorte the sicke person after this fourme, or other lyke.

DEREELY beloued, know this that almighty God is the Lorde ouer lyfe, and death, and ouer all thynges to them perteyning, as youghth, strength, helth, age, weakenesse, and sickenesse. Wherfore, whatsoeuer your sickenes is, knowe you certaynly, that it is Gods visitacion. And for what cause soeuer this sickenesse is sent unto you; whether it bee to trye your pacience for the example of other, and that your fayth may be founde, in the day of the Lorde, laudable, glorious, and honourable, to the encrease of glory, and endelesse felicitie: Orels it be sent unto you to correcte and amende in you, whatsoeuer doeth offend the iyes of our heauenly fathér: knowe you certainly, that if you truely repent you of your synnes, and beare your sickenes paciently, trusting in Gods mercy, for his dere sône Jesus Christes sake, and rëdre unto him humble thankes for his fatherly visitacion, submytting yourselfe wholy to his wil; it shal turpe to your profite, and helpe you forewarde in the ryght waye that leadeth unto euerlastyng

* If the person visited bee very sicke, then the curate may end his exhortacion at this place. Take therfore in good worthe, the chaste- ment of the lorde: For whom the lorde loueth he chastiseth. Yea, (as saincte Paul sayth,) he scourgeth eury sône, which he receiueth: yf you indure chastisemēt, he offereth himselfe unto you as unto his owne children. What sône is he that the father chastiseth not? Yf ye be not under correcccion (wherof all the true children are partakers), then are ye bastardes, and not children. Therfore seyng that whā our carnal fathers doe correct us, we reuerently obey thē, shall we not now much rather be obediēt to our spirituall father, and so liue? And they for a fewe daies doe chastise us after theyr owne pleasure: but he doeth chastise us for our profite, to thentente he maye make us partakers of his holines. These wordes, good brother, are Gods wordes, and wryten in holy scripture for our coumfort and instruccion, that we should paciently and with thankesgeuyng, beare our heauenly fathers correcccion: whansoeuer by any maner of aduersitie it shall please his gracious goodnesse to visite us. And there should be no greater coumfort to christian persons, then to be made lyke unto Christ, by sufferyng paciently aduersities, troubles, and sickenesses. For he himselfe wente not up to ioy, but firste he suffered payne: he entred not into his glory, before he was crucified. So truely our waye to eternall ioy is to suffre here with Christe, and our doore to entre into eternal life: is gladly to dye with Christe, that we may ryse againe from death, and dwell with him in euerlasting life. Now therfore taking your sickenesse, which is thus profitable for you, paciently: I exhorte you in the name of God, to remēbre the profession, which you made unto God in your Baptisme. And forasmuch as after this lyfe, there is accompte to be geuen unto the ryghteous iudge, of whom all must be iudged without respecte of persons: I require you to examine yourselfe, and your state, both towarde God and man, so that accusyng and condemnyng yourselfe for your owne faultes, you may fynde mercy at our heauenly fathers hande, for Christes sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearfull iudgemēt. Therfore I shall shortlye rehearse the articles of our fayth, that ye maye knowe whether you doe beleue as a christian manne should beleue, or no.

Here the minister shall rehearse the articles of the fayth saying thus.
DOEST thou beleue in God the father almyghtie?

And so forth as it is in Baptisme.

Then shall the minister examine whether he be in charitie with all the worlde: Exhorting hym to forgeue frō the botome of his herte al persons, that haue offended hym, and yf he haue offended other, to aske them forgeuenesse: and where he hathe done iniurye or wrong to any manne, that he make amendes to hys uttermoste power. And if he haue not afore disposed his goodes, let hym then make his will. (But mē must be oft admonished that they set an ordre for their temporall goodes and landes when they be in helth.) And also to declare his debtes, what he oweþ, and what is owing to him: for discharging of his conscience, and quietnesse of his executours.* The minister may not forget nor omitte to moue the sick person (and that moste earnestly) to lyberalitie towarde the poore.

¶ Here shall the sick person make a speciall confession, yf he fele his conscience troubled with any weightie matter. After which confession, the priest shall absoluē hym after this forme: and the same forme of absolucion shalbe used in all pryuate confessions.

OUR Lord Jesus Christ, who hath lefte power to his Churche to absoluē all sinners, which truely repent and beleue in hym: of his great mercy forgeue thee thyne offences: and by his autoritie committed to me, I absoluē thee frō all thy synnes, in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

And then the priest shall saye the collette folowynge.

Let us praye.

O MOST mercifull God, which according to the multitude of thy mercies, doest so putte away the synnes of those which truely repent, that thou remēbrest them no more: open thy iye of mercy upon this thy seruaunt, who moste earnestly desireth pardon and forgeuenesse: Renuē in hym, moste louyng father, whatsoeuer hath been decayed by the fraude and malice of the deuil, or by his owne carnall wyll, and frailnesse: preserue and continue this sick membre in the unitie of thy Churche, cōsyder his contrition, accepte his teares, aswage his Payne, as shalbe seen to thee moste expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full trust only in thy mercy: Impute not unto him his former sinnes, but take him unto thy fauour: through the merites of thy moste derely beloued sonne Jesus Christe. Amen.

Then the minister shall saye this psalme.

IN thee, O Lorde haue I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion, but ridde me, and deliuer me into thy righteousnes: enclyne thyne eare unto me, and saue me.

In te Domine speravi.
Psal. Ixxi.

Be thou my strong holde (wherunto I may alwaye resorte) thou haste promysed to helpe me : for thou art my house of defence, and my castell.

Deliuer me (O my God) out of the hande of the ungodly, out of the hande of the unrighteous and cruell man.

For thou (O Lord God) art the thyng that I long for, thou art my hope, euen fro my youth.

Through the haue I been holden up euer since I was borne, thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe ; my prayse shalbe alwaye of thee.

I am become as it were a monster unto many : but my sure trust is in thee.

Oh let my mouth be filled with thy prayse (that I may syng of thy glory) and honour all the daye long.

Cast me not awaie in the tyme of age, forsake me not when my strength fayleth me.

For mine enemies speake against me : and they that lay waite for my soule take their couasyle together, saying : God hath forsaken hym, persecute hym, and take hym, for there is none to delyuer hym.

Goe not ferre fro me, O God : my God, haste thee to helpe me.

Let them be confounded and perishe, that are againste my soule : let them be couered with shame and dishonour, that seke to doe me euill.

As for me, I will paciently abyde alwaye, and wyll prayse thee more and more.

My mouth shall dayly speake of thy righteousnes and saluacion, for I knowe no ende therof.

I will goe forth in the strength of the Lorde God : and will make mencion of thy righteousnes onely.

Thou (O God) haste taught me from my youth up until now, therfore wil I tel of thy wonderous workes.

Forsake me not (O God) in myne olde age, when I am gray-headed, unfill I haue shewed thy strength unto this generacion, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

Thy righteousnesse (O God) is very high, and great thinges are they that thou haste doen : O God who is lyke unto thee ?

O what great troubles and aduersities hast thou shewed me ? and yet diddest thou turne and refreshe me : yea, and broughtest me from the depe of the earth agayne.

Thou haste brought me to great honour, and coumforted me on euery syde.

Therfore will I prayse thee and thy faithfulnes (O God) playing upon an instrument of musicke, unto thee will I syng upon the harpe, O thou holy one of Israel.

My lippes will be fayne, when I syng unto thee : and so will my soule whom thou haste delyuered.

My toungue also shall talke of thy righteousnesse all the daye long, for they are confounded and brought unto shame that seke to doe me euyll.

Glory to the father, &c.

As it was in the beginnyng, &c.

Addyng this Anthem.

O SAUEOUR of the world sauе us, which by thy crosse and precious bloud hast redemed us, helpe us we beseche the, O God.

Then shall the minister saye.

THE almighty Lord, whiche is a mōste strong tower to all them that put their trust in hym, to whom all thynges in heauen, in earth, and under earth, doe bowe and obey: be now and euermore thy defence, and make thee knowe and fele, that there is no other name under heauen geuen to man, in whom and through whom thou mayest receyue helth and saluacion, but only the name of our Lorde Jesus Christe. Amen.

¶ If the sick person desyre to be annoynted, then shal the priest annoynte him upon the forehead or breast only, makyng the signe of the crosse, saying thus,

As with this visible oyle thy body outwardly is annoynted: so our heauenly father almyghty God, graunt of his infinite goodnesse, that thy soule inwardly may be annoynted with the holy gost, who is the spirite of al strength, coumforte, relieve, and gladnesse. And vouchesafe for his great mercy (yf it be his blessed will) to restore unto thee thy bodey helth, and strength, to serue him, and sende thee release of al thy paines, troubles, and diseases, both in body and minde. And howsoeuer his goodnesse (by his diuyne and unsearchable prouidēce) shall dispose of thee: we, his unworthy ministers and seruaūts, humbly beseche the eternall maiestie, to doe with thee according to the multitude of his innumerable mercies, and to pardon thee all thy sinnes and offences, committed by all thy bodily senses, passions, and carnall affecccions: who also vouchsafe mercifully to graūt unto thee gostely strēghth, by his holy spirite, to withstäd and ouercome al temptacions and assaultes of thine aduersarye, that in no wise he preuaile against thee, but that thou mayest haue perfit victory and triumph against the deuil, sinne, and death, through Christ our Lord: Who by his death hath ouercomed the Prince of death, and with the father, and the holy gost euermore liueth and reigneth God, worlde without endē. Amen.

How long wilt thou forget me, (O Lord,) for euer? how lōg wilt thou hyde thy face fro me? How long shall I Usque quo, seke counsell in my soule? and be so vexed in myne Domine. herte? how long shall myne enemye triumph ouer me? Psalm xiii. Consydred and heare me, (O lord my God): lighten myne iyes, that I slepe not in death. Leste myne enemy saye : I haue preuayled against hym : for yf I be cast downe, they that trouble me will reioyce at it. But my trust is in thy mercy : and my herte is ioyfull in thy saluacion. I will sing of the lord, because he hath delte so louingly with me. Yea, I wyll prayse the name of the Lord the most highest. Glory be to the, &c. As it was in the, &c.

COMMUNION OF THE SICKE.

Forasmuche as all mortal men be subiect to many sodaine perils, diseases, and sickenesse, and euer uncertaine what time they shall departe out of this lyfe: Therfore to thentent they may be always in a readinesse to dye, whensoever it shall please almighty God to call them: The curates shall diligently from tyme to tyme, but specially in the plague tyme, exhorte theyr paryshoners to the ofte receyuyng (in the churche) of the holy communion of the body and bloud of oure Sanioure Christe: whiche (yf they doe) they shall haue no cause in theyr sodaine visitacion, to be unquyeted for lacke of the same. But if the sicke persō be not hable to come to the churche, and yet is desirous to receyue the communion in his house, then he must geue knowlage ouer night, or els early in the morning to the curate, signifying also howe many he appoynted to communicate with hym. And yf the same daye there be a celebracion of the holy cōmunion in the churche, then shall the priest reserue (at the open communion) so muche of the sacrament of the body and bloud, as shall serue the sicke person, and so many as shall communicate with hym (yf therē be any.) And so soone as he conuenientely may, after the open communion ended in the church, shall goe and minister the same, firste to those that are appoynted to communicate with the sicke (yf there be any), and last of all to the sick person himselfe. But before the curate distribute the holy communion: the appoynted generall confession must be made in the name of the communicantes, the curate addyng the absolucion with the comforable sentences of scripture folowing in the open communion, and after the communion ended, the collecte.

ALMIGHTIE and euerlyuyng God, we moste hertely thanke thee, &c.

¶ But yf the daye be not appoynted for the open communion in the churche, then (upon conuenient warning geuen) the curate shal come and visite the sick person afore noone. And having a conuenient place in the sicke mans house (where he may reuerētly celebrate) with all thinges necessary for the same, and not beyng otherwyse letted with the publike seruice, or any other iust impedimēt; he shal there celebrate y^e holy communion after suche forme and sorte as hereafter is appoynted.

THE CELEBRACION
of the holy communion for the sicke.

O PRAYSE the Lorde, all ye nacions, laude hym, all ye people: for his mercifull kyndenesse is confyrmēt towarde us, and the trueth of the Lorde endureth for euer.

Glory be to the father, &c.

Lord, haue mercy upon us.
Christ, haue mercy upon us.
Lord, haue mercy upon us.

Without any more repeticion.

The Priest. The Lorde be with you.
Aunswere. And with thy spirite.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTIE euerlyuing God, maker of mankynde, which doest correcte those whom thou doest loue, and chatisest every one whome thou doest receyue: we beseche the to haue mercy upon this thy seruaunte visited with thy bande, and to graunt that he may take his sickenesse paciently, and recouer his bodily helth (if it be thy gracious will), and whansoever his soule shall departe from the body, it may without spotte be presented unto thee: through Jesus Christe our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle.

MY sonne, despise not the correcccion of the Lorde, neyther fainte when thou art rebuked of hym: for whom the Heb. xii. Lorde loueth, hym he correcteth, yea and he scourgeth euyer sonne whom he receyuth.

The gospel.

VERELY, verely I saye unto you, he that heareth my woerde,
John v. and beleueth on hym that sente me, hath euerlasting life, and shall no come unto damnacion, but he passeth from death unto life.

The Preface.

The Lorde be with you.
Aunswere. And with thy spirite.
¶ Lifte up your hertes, &c.

Unto the ende of the Canon.

¶ At the tyme of the distribucion of the holy sacrament, the prieste shall firste receyue the communion hymselfe, and after minister to them that be appoynted to communicate with the sicke (yf there be any), and then to the sicke person. And the sicke person shall all wayes desyre some, eyther of his owne house, or els of his neyghbours, to receyue the holy communion with hym; for that shall be to hym a singuler great comforde, and of theyr parte a great token of charitie.

¶ And yf there be moe sicke persons to be visited the same day that the curate doth celebrate in any sicke man's house; then shall the curate (there) reserve so muche of the sacramente of the body and bloud: as shall serue the other sicke persons, and suche as be appoynted to communicate with them (yf there be any). And shall immediatly cary it, and minister it unto them.

¶ But yf any man eyther by reason of extremitie of sickenesse, or for lacke of warnyng geuen in due tyme, to the curate, or by any other iust impedimente, doe not receyue the sacramente of Christes bodye and bloud; then the curate shall instruct hym, that yf he doe truely repente hym of his sinnes, and stedfastly beleue that Jesus Christ hath suffered death upon the crosse for hym, and shed his bloud for his redempcion, earnestly remembiring the benefites he hath therby, and geuing hym hertie thankes therfore; he doeth eate and drynke spirituallly the bodye and bloud of our sauour Christe, profitably to his soules helth, althoough he doe not receyue the sacrament with his mouth.

¶ When the sicke persone is visited and receiueth the holy communion, all at one tyme: then the priest for more expedicion shall use this ordre at the visitacion.

The Anthem.

Remembre not Lorde, &c.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Christe haue mercy upon us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

¶ Our father whiche art in heauen, &c.

And leade us not into temptacion.

Aunswere. But deliuer us from euyll. Amen.

Let us praye.

O Lorde, looke downe from heauen, &c.

With the firste parte of the exhortacion and all other thynges unto the Psalme:

In thee o Lorde haue I put my trust, &c.

And yf the sicke desyre to be annoyncted, then shall the priest use thappoynted prayer without any Psalme.

THE ORDRE FOR THE BURIALL OF THE DEAD.

The priest metyng the Corps at the Churche style, shall say: Or els the priestes and clerkes shall sing, and so goe either into the Churche, or towardes the graue.

I AM the resurrecciō and the life (sayth the Lord) : he that John xi. beleueth in me, yea though he were dead, yet shall he liue. And whosoeuer lyueth and beleueth in me : shall not dye for euer.

I KNOWE that my redemer lyueth, and that I shall ryse out of Iob xix. the yearth in the last daye, and shalbe couered again with my skinne and shall see God in my flesh : yea and I myselfe shall beholde hym, not with other but with these same eyes.

WE brought nothyng into this worlde, neyther may we carye any thýng out of this worlde. The Lord geueth, and Tim. vi. Job i. the Lord taketh awaie. Euen as it pleaseth the Lorde, so cummeth thynges to passe : blessed be the name of the Lorde.

When they come at the graue, whyles the Corps is made readie to be layed into the earth, the priest shall saye, or els the priest and clerkes shall syng.

MAN that is borne of a woman, hath but a shorte tyme to lyue, Job ix. and is full of miserye : he cummeth up and is cut downe lyke a floure ; he flyeth as it were a shadowe, and neuer continueth in one staye.

¶ In the myddest of lyfe we be in death, of whom may we seke for succour but of thee, o Lorde, whiche for our synnes iustly art moued ? yet o Lord God moste holy, o Lord moste mighty, o holy and moste merciful sauour, delyuer us not into the bitter paines of eternal death. Thou knowest, Lord, the secretes of our hertes :
shutte not up thy mercyfull iyes to our praiers : But spare us, Lord most holy, o God moste mighty, o holy and mercifull sauour, thou moste worthy iudge eternal, suffre us not at our last houre for any paines of death to fal frō the.

Then the priest castyng earth upon the Corps, shall saye.

I COMMENDE thy soule to God the father almighty, and thy body to the grounde, earth to earth, asshes to asshes, dust to dust, in sure and certayne hope of resurreccion to eternall lyfe, through our Lord, Jesus Christ, who shall chaunge our vile body, that it may be lyke to his glorious body, accordyng to the myghtie working wherby he is hable to subdue all thynges to himselfe.

Then shalbe sayed or song.

I HEARDE a voyce from heauen saying, unto me : Wryte, blessed are the dead whiche dye in the Lorde. Euen so sayeth the spirite, that they rest from theyr labours. Apoca. xiii.

Let us praye.

WE commende into thy handes of mercy (moste mercifull father) the soule of this our brother departed, N. And his body we commit to the earth, besechynge thyne infinite goodnesse, to geue us grace to lyue in thy feare and loue, and to dye in thy fauoure : that when the iudgmente shall come which thou haste commytted to thy welbeloued sonne, both this our brother, and we, may be found acceptable in thy sight, and receiue that blessing, whiche thy welbeloued sōne shall then pronounce to all that loue and feare thee, saying : Come ye blessed children of my Father : Receyue the kingdome prepared for you before the beginning of the worlde. Graunt this, mercifull father, for the honour of Jesu Christe our onely saior, mediator, and aduocate. Amen.

This praier shall also be added.

ALMIGHTIE God, we geue thee hertie thankes for this thy seruaunte, whom thou haste delyuering frō the miseries of this wretched world, from the body of death and all temptacion. And, as we trust, hast brought his soule whiche he committed into thy holye handes, into sure consolacion and reste : Graunte, we beseche thee, that at the daye of iudgement his soule and all the soules of thy electe, departed out of this lyfe, may with us and we with them, fully receiue thy promisses, and be made perfite altogether thorow the glorious resurreccion of thy sonne Jesus Christ our Lorde.

These psalmes with other suffrages folowyng are to be sayed in the churche either before or after the buriall of the corps

I AM well pleased that the lorde hath hearde the voyce of my prayer.

That he hath enclined his eare unto me, therefore wil I call upon him as long as I liue.

The snares of death compased me round about, and the paynes

*Dilexi, quoniam.
Psalm cxvi.*

of hel gatte holde upon me : I shal finde trouble and heauines, and I shal cal upon the name of the lorde, (O Lorde), I beseche thee deliuer my soule.

Gracious is the lord, and righteous, yea, our god is mercifull.

The lord preserueth the simple : I was in misery and he helped me.

Turne agayn then unto thy rest, o my soule, for the lord hath rewarded thee.

And why? thou hast deliuered my soule frō death, mine iyes from teares, and my feete from fallyng.

I will walke before the lorde in the lande of the liuing.

I beleued, and therfore wil I speake : but I was sore troubled. I sayd in my haste: all menne are lyers.

What rewarde shall I geue unto the lorde, for al the benefites that he hath doen unto me?

I wil receiue the cup of saluacion, and call upon the name of the lorde.

I will pay my vowes now in the presence of all his people : right dere in the sight of the lord is the death of hys Saintes.

Beholde (O lorde) how that I am thy seruaunte : I am thy seruaunt, and the sonne of thy handmayde, thou hast broken my bondes in sunder.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thankesgeuyng, and will call upon the Name of the Lorde.

I will pay my vowes unto the lorde, in the syghte of all his people, in the courtes of the lordes house, euen in the middest of thee, O Hierusalem.

Glorie to the father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

PRAYSE the lorde, (o my soule), while I liue wil I prayse the lorde : yea, as long as I haue any being, I wil sing Lauda. anima, mea. prayses unto my god.

Psal. cxlvii.

~~Note that this psalme is to be said after the others that followeth.~~ O put not your trust in princes, nor in any childe of man, for there is no helpe in them.

For when the breath of man goeth furth, he shall turne agayn to his yearth, and then all his thoughts perish.

Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for hys helpe : and whose hope is in the lorde hys god.

Which made heauen and earth, the sea, and al that therein is : whiche kepereth his promise for euer.

Whiche helpeth them to right that suffer wrong, which feedeth the hungry.

The lorde looceth men out of prieson, the lorde geueth sight to the blynde.

The lorde helpeth them up that are fallen, the lorde careth for the righteous.

The lord careth for the straungers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and widdowe : as for the waye of the ungodly, he turneth it upsyde downe.

The lorde thy God, O Sion, shalbe kyng for euermore, and throughout all generacions.

Glory to the father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

O LORD, thou hast searched me out, and knowē me.

Thou knowest my down-sitting, and mine uprising : thou understandest my thoughtes long be- Domine, probasti. Psalms cxxxix.

Thou art about my pathe, and about my bed, and spiest out al my waies.

For loe, there is not a woord in my toungue, but thou (o lorde) knowest it altogether.

Thou hast fashioned me, behinde and before, and layed thine hande upon me.

Such knowelage is to woonderfull and excellente for me I cannot attaine unto it.

Whither shall I goe then from thy spirite? or whither shal I goe then from thy presence?

If I clime up into heauē, thou art there : If I goe down to hel, thou art there also.

If I take the wings of the morning, and remaine in the uttermoste partes of the sea ;

Euen there also shal thy hande leade me, and thy righte hande shall holde me.

If I saye : paraduenture the darkenesse shall couer me, then shall my night bee turned to daye.

Yea the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee : but the night is all clere as the daye, the darkenesse and lyghte to thee are bothe alike.

For my reynes are thine, thou hast coured me in my mothers wombe : I wyll geue thankes unto thee, for I am fearefully and woonderously made: merualous are thy woorkes, and that my soule knoweth right well.

My bones are not hidde from thee, though I bee made secretely, and fashioned beneath in the yearth.

Thine eyes did see my substaunce, yet being unperfekte : and in thy booke were al my membres written.

Whiche daye by daye were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

Howe dere are thy councels unto me, O God ? O howe greate is the summe of them ?

If I tell them, they are moe in noumbrē then the sande when I wake up, I am present with thee.

Wilt thou not sley the wicked, O God ? departe from me, ye bloudethristie men.

For they speake unrighteously againste thee : and thyne enemies take thy name in vaine.

Dooe not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee : and am not I greued with those that ryse up against thee ?

Yea I hate them righte sore, euen as thoughe they were myne enemies.

Trye me, O God, and seeke the grounde of myne harte : proue me and examine my thoughts.

Looke well if there be any way of wickednes in me, and leade me in the waye euerlasting.

Then shall folowe this lesson, taken out of the XV. Chapter to the Corinthians, the firste Epistle.

CHRISTE is risen from the dead, and become the firstfruictes of them that slepte. For by a man came death, and by a ^{1 Cho. 15.} man came the resurreccion of the deade. For as by Adam all dye : euen so by Christ shal al be made alive, but every manne in his owne ordre. The firste is Christe, then they that are Christes, at hys comming. Then commeth the ende, when he hath deliuered up the kyngdome to God the father, when he hath put downe al rule and al authoritie and power. For he must reygne til he haue putte al his enemies under his feete. The laste enemie that shal bee destroyed, is death. For he hath putte all things under his feete. But when he sayeth al things are put under him, it is manifeste that he is excepted, whiche dyd putte all things under him. When all thynges are subdued unto hym, then shall the soonne also hymselfe bee subiecte unto hym that put all thynges under him, that god mai be all in all. Elles what doe they, whiche are baptized ouer the dead, if the dead ryse not at all ? Why are they then baptized ouer them ? yea, and why stand we alway then in ieoperdie ? By our reioysing whiche I haue in Christ Jesu oure lorde, I dye dayly. That I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the maner of men, what auauageth it me, if the dead ryse not agayn ? Let us eate and drynke, for to-morowe we shall dye. Be not ye deceiued : euill wordes corrupt good maners. Awake truly out of slepe, and sinne not. For some haue not the knowledge of God. I speake this to your shame. But some mā will say : how aryse the dead ? with what bodye shall they come ? Thou foole, that whiche thou sowest, is not quickened, exēpt it dye. And what sowest thou ? Thou sowest not that body that shall be ; but bare corne as of wheate, or of some other : but god geueth it a bodie at hys pleasure, to every seede his owne body. All fleshe is not one maner of fleshe : but there is one maner of fleshe of men, another maner of fleshe of beastes, another of fishes, another of birdes. There are also celestiall bodies, and there are bodies terrestriall. But the glorye of the celestiall is one, and the glorye of the terrestrial is another. There is one maner glorye of the sonne, and another glorye of the moone, and another glorye of the sterres. For one sterre differeth from another in glorie. So is the resurreccyon of the dead. It is sownen in corrupcion, it ryseth again in incorrupcion. It is sowen in dishonour, it ryseth agayne in honour. It is sowen in weakenesse, it ryseth agayn in power. It is sowen a naturiall bōdie, it ryseth agayn a spirituall bōdie. There is a naturall bōdie, and there is a spirituall bōdye : as it is also written : The firste manē Adam was made a liuing soule, and the last Adam was made a quickning spirite. Howebeit, that is not firste which is spiritual : but that which is naturall, and then that whiche is spirituall. The firste man is of the earthe, yearthy : The seconde manne is the Lorde from heauen (heauenly). As is the earthy, such are they that are yearthy. And as is the heauenly, such are they that are heauenly. And as we haue borne the image of the yearthy, so shal we beare the image of the heauenly. This say I brethren, that fleshe and bloud cannot inherite the kyngdome of God : Neyther doeth corrupcion inherite uncorrupcion. Behold, I shewe you a mistery. We shall not all slepe : but we shal al be chaunged, and that in a momente, in the twynkeling of an iye by the last trumpe. For the trumpe shall blowe, and the dead shall ryse incorruptible, and we shall be chaunged. For this corruptible must put on incorrupcion : and this mortall must put on immortalitie. When this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie : then shall bee brought to passe the saying that is written : Death is swallowed up in victorye : Death where is thy stynge ? Hell where is thy victorye ? The stynge of deathe is sinne : and the strength of sinne is the lawe. But thankes be unto god, whiche hath geuen us victory, through our Lorde Jesus Christ. Therefore, my dere brethren, be ye stedfast and unmouable, alwaies ryche in the woorke of the lorde, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vayne, in the lorde.

The lesson ended then shall the Priest say.

Lorde, haue mercie upon us.

Christe, haue mercie upon us.

Lorde, haue mercie upon us.

Our father whiche art in heauen, &c.

And leade us not into temptacion.

Aunswere. But deliuer us from euil. Amen.

Priest. Entre not (o lorde) into iudgement with thy seruaunt.

Aunswere. For in thy sight no liuing creature shalbe iustifyed.

Priest. From the gates of hell.

Aunswere. Deliuer theyr soules, o lorde.

Priest. I beleue to see the goodnes of the lorde.

Aunswere. In the lande of the liuing.

*Prieste. O lorde, graciously heare my prayer.
Aunswere. And let my crye come unto thee.*

Let us pray.

O LORDE, with whome dooe lyue the spirites of them that be dead: and in whome the soules of them that bee elected, after they be deliuered from the burden of the fleshe, be in ioy and felicitie: Graunte unto us thy seruaunte, that the sinnes whiche he committed in this world be not imputed unto him, but that he, escaping the gates of hell and paynes of eternall derkenesse: may ever dwel in the region of lighte, with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, in the place where is no wepyng, sorowe, nor heauinesse: and when that dredeful day of the generall resurreccion shall come, make him to ryse also with the iust and righteous, and receiue this bodie agayn to glory, then made pure and incorruptible, set him on the right hand of thy sône Jesus Christ, emong thy holy and elect, that then he may heare with them these most swete and comfertable wordes: Come to me ye blessed of my father, possest the kingdome whiche hath bene prepared for you from the beginning of the worlde: Graunte thys we beseche thee, o mercifull father: through Jesus Christ our mediatour and redemer. Amen.

THE CELEBRACION

of the holy communion when there is a burial of the dead.

Quemadmodum LIKE as the hart desireth the water-brookes, so Psalm xliii. longeth my soule after thee, o God.

My soule is athirst for god, yea, euen for the liuing god: when shal I come to appeare before the presence of god?

My teares haue beene my meate day and nighte, whyle they dayly say unto me, Where is now thy god?

Nowe when I thinke thereupon, I powre out my hart by my selfe: for I went with the multitude, and brought them furth unto the house of god, in the voyce of praise and thankesgeuing, emong suche as kepe holyday.

Why art thou so full of heauines, (O my soule): and why art thou so unquiete within me?

Put thy trust in god, for I wil yet geue him thanks for the helpe of his countenaunce.

My God, my soule is vexed within me: therefore will I remembere thee concerning the land of Jordane, and the litle hill of Hermonim.

One deepe calleth another, beecause of the noyse of thy water-pypes, all thy waues and stormes are gone ouer me.

The lorde hath graunted his louing-kyndenesse on the daye tyme, and in the nighte season dyd I syng of hym, and made my prayer unto the god of my lyfe.

I wil say unto the God of my strength, why haste thou forgotten me? why goe I thus heuelye, whyle the enemie oppresseth me?

My bones are smitten asoonder, whyle myne enemies (that trouble me) cast me in the teeth, namely while they say dayly unto me: where is nowe thy God?

Why art thou so vexed, (O my soule) and why arte thou so disquieted within me?

O put thy trust in god, for I will yet thanke him which is the helpe of my countenaunce, and my God.

Glorie to the Father, &c.

Collette.

O MERCIFULL god the father of oure lorde Jesu Christ, who is the resurreccion and the life: In whom whosoeuer beleueth shall liue though he dye: And whosoeuer liueth, and beleueth in hym, shal not dye eternallye: who also hath taughte us (by his holye Apostle Paule) not to bee sory as men without hope for them that slepe in him: We mekely beseche thee (o father) to raise us frō the death of sin, unto the life of righteousnes, that when we shall departe this lyfe, we maye slepe in him (as our hope is this our brother doeth), and at the general resurreccion in the laste daie, bothe we and this oure brother departed, receiuyng agayne oure bodies, and rising againe in thy moste gracious fauoure: maye with all thine elect Sayntes, obteine eternall ioye. Graunte this, o Lorde god, by the meanes of our aduocate Jesus Christ: which with thee and the holy ghoste, liueth and reigneth one God for euer. Amen.

The Epistle.

I WOULDE not brethren that ye shoulde bee ignoraunt concerningyn them which are fallen aslepe, that ye sorowe not as other doe, whiche haue no hope. For if we beleue that Jesus dyed, and rose againe: euen so them also whiche slepe by Jesus, will God bring again with him. For thy saye we unto you in the word of the Lorde: that we whiche shall lyue, and shal remain in the comyng of the Lord, shal not come ere they which slepe. For the Lorde himselfe shal descende from heauē with a shoute, and the voice of the Archangell, and troump of God. And the deade in Christe shal arise first: then we whiche shall lyue (euen wee whiche shal remayne) shal bee caughte up wyth them also in the cloudes, to mee the Lorde in the ayre. And so shall wee euer be with the Lorde. Wherfore coumforte youreselues one another wyth these woordes.

¶ The gospel.

Jesus saied to his disciples and to the Jewes : Al that the father
John vi. geueth me, shall come to me: and he that cōmeth to me,
I cast not away. For I came down from heauen : not to do that I wil, but that he wil, which hath sent me. And this is the fathers wyll whiche hath sente me, that of all whiche he hath geuē me, I shal lose nothing : but raise them up again at the last day. And this is the wil of him that sent me : that every one which seeth the sonne and beleueth on him, haue euerlasting life :
And I wil raise him up at the laste daye.

THE ORDER OF THE PURIFICACION OF WEOMEN.

The woman shall come into the churche, and there shal knele downe in some conueniente place, nygh unto the quier doore: and the prieste standyng by her shall saye these woordes, or suche lyke, as the case shall require.

FORASMUCHE as it hath pleased almighty god of hys goodnes to geue you safe deliueraunce, and your childe baptisme, and hath preserued you in the greate daunger of childebirth: ye shal therefore geue hartie thankes unto god, and pray.

Then shall the prieste saye this psalme.

I HAUЕ lifted up mine iyes unto the hilles, from whence cummeth my helpe?

My help cummeth euen from the lord, which hath Leuani oculos. Psalm cxxi. made heauen and earth.

He will not suffer thy foote to be moued; and he that kepeth thee wil not slepe.

Beholde he that kepeth Israel, shal neither slumber nor slepe.

The lorde himselfe is thy keper, the lorde is thy defence upon thy right hande.

So that the sonne shall not burne thee by daye, neyther the moone by nyght.

The lord shal preserue thee from al euil, yea it is euen he that shal kepe thy soule.

The lord shal preserue thy going out, and thy cumming in, from this tyme furth for euermore.

COMMONLY CALLED ASHE-WEDNISDAYE.

¶ After mattens ended, the people beeyng called together by the ryngyng of a bel, and assembled in the churche: Thinglyshe letanye shall be sayed after thaccustomed maner: whiche ended, the prieste shal goe into the pulpitte and saye thus:

BRETHREN, in the prymtive churche there was a godlye discipline, that at the begynnyng of lente suche persones as were notorious synners, were put to open penaunce, and punished in this worlde, that theyr soules myght bee saued in the day of the lord. And that other admonished by theyr example, might be more afrayed to offend. In the steede whereof until the saide discipline maye bee restored agayne; (whiche thynge is muthe to bee wyshed,) it is thoughte good, that at thys tyme (in your presence) shoulde bee read the general sentences of goddes cursyng agaynst impenitente sinners, gathered out of the xxvii Chapter of Deuteronomie, and other places of scripture. And that ye shoulde aunsweare to euery sentence, Amen: To thentente that you beeyng admonished of the greate indignacion of God agaynst sinners: may the rather be called to earneste and true repentaunce, and maye walke more warely in these daungerous dayes, fleyng from suche vices, for the whiche ye affirme with your owne mouthes: the curse of god to be due.

 offences, and smitten for our wickednes: let us therfore returne unto him, who is the merciful receiuer of Esai. liii.
 al true penitent sinners, assuring ourselfe that he is ready to receiue our vocacion with thankesgeuyng. This yf we doe, Christe wil deliuer us from the curse of the law, and frō the extreme malediction whiche shall lyght upon them that shalbee set on the left hand: and he wyl set us on his right hand, and geue Math. xxv.

 us the blessed benediccion of hys father, commaundyng us to take possessions of hys glorious kyngdome, unto the whiche he vouchsafe to bryng us al, for hys infinite mercye.
 Amen.

¶ Then shall they all kneele upon theyr knees: And the prieste and clerkes kneelyng (where they are accustomed to saye the letanye) shall saye this psalme.

HAUE mercye upon me, (O God,) after thy greate goodnesse :
according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.

*Miserere
mei Deus.
Psal. li.* Washe me throwly fro my wickednes, and clese me from my synne.

For I knowlage my faultes, and my sinne is euer before me.

Agaynst thee only haue I synned, and done this euyl in thy syght : that thou myghtest bee iustified in thy saying, and clere when thou art iudged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickednes, and in synne hath my mother conceiued me.

But loe, thou requirest trueth in the inward partes, and shalte make me to understande wysedome secretelye.

Thou shalt pourge me with Isope, and I shall bee cleane : thou shalt washe me, and I shal bee whyter then snowe.

Thou shalte make me heare of ioye and gladnesse, that the bones whiche thou haste broken, maye reioyce.

Turne thy face from my synnes, and putte out all my mysdedes.

Make me a cleane herte, (O God) and renue a ryght spryte within me.

Caste me not awaye from thy presence, and take not thy holy spirite from me.

O geue me the comforthe of thy helpe agayne, and stablishe me wyth thy free sprite.

Then shal I teache thy waies unto the wicked, and sinners shal bee conuerted unto thee.

Deliuer me from bloud-giltinesse, (O God,) thou that art the god of my health : and my toungue shall syng of thy righteousnesse.

Thou shalt open my lippes, (O Lorde) my mouthe shal shewe thy prayse.

For thou desyreste no sacrifice, els would I geue it thee : but thou delitest not in burnt offeryng.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirite, a brokē and contrite herte, (O God,) shalst thou not despise.

O bee fauourable and gracious unto Syon, build thou the walles of Hierusalem.

Then shalst thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousnesse, wyth the burnt-offeringes and oblacions : then shall they offre young bullockes upon thyne aultare.

OF CEREMONIES,

WHY SOME BE ABOLISHED AND SOME RETAYNED.

OF such Ceremonies as be used in the Church, and haue had their beginning by thinstitucion of man: Some at the first were of godly intent and purpose deuised, and yet at length turned to vanitie and supersticio: Some entred into the Churche by undiscrete deuocion, and such a zele as was without knowlage, and for because they were winked at in the beginning, they grewe dayly to more and more abuses, which not onely for their unprofitablenesse, but also because they haue muche blynded the people, and obscured the glory of God, are worthy to be cut awaye, and cleane reiected. Other there be, which although they haue been deuised by mā: yet it is thought good to reserue thē still, as well for a decent ordre in the Churche (for the which they were first deuised) as because they pertayne to edificacion: Wherunto all thynges doen in the Churche (as the Apostle teacheth) ought to be referred. And although the keping or omytting of a ceremonie (in it selfe considered) is but a small thyng: Yet the wilfull and contemptuous transgression, and breakyng of a common ordre, and disciplyne, is no small offence before God. Let all thynges bee done emong you (sayeth Sainte Paule) in a semely and due ordre. The appoyntemente of the whiche ordre pertayneth not to pryuate menne: Therfore no manne ought to take in hande nor presume to appoynt or alter any publyke or common ordre in Christes Churche, excepte he be lawfully called and autorized thereunto. And whereas in this our tyme, the myndes of menne bee so diuerse, that some thynke it a greate matter of conscience to departe from a peece of the leaste of theyr Ceremonies (they bee so addicted to their olde customes), and agayne on the other syde, some bee so newe fangle that they woulde innouate all thyng, and so doe despysye the olde that nothyng canne lyke them, but that is newe: It was thought expediente not so muche to haue respecte howe to please and satisfie eyther of these partyes, as howe to please God, and profitte them bothe. And yet leste any manne should bee offended (whom good reason might satisfie), here be certayne causes rendered, why some of the accustomed Ceremonies be put awaye, and some be retayned and kept still.

Some are put awaye, because the great excesse and multytude of them hathe so encreased in these latter dayes, that the burden of them was intollerable: wherof saincte Augustine in his tyme complayned, that they were growen to suche a noumbr: that the state of christian people was in wurse case (concernyng that matter) then were the Jewes. And he counsayled that suche yocke and burden should be taken awaye: as tyme woulde serue quietlye to doe it. But what woulde saincte Augustine haue sayed if he hadde seen the Ceremonies of late dayes used among us? Wherunto the multitude used in his time was not to bee compared. This our excessiue multitude of Ceremonies, was so great, and many of them so darke: that they dyd more confounde and darken, then declare and sette forth Christes benefites unto us. And besides this, Christes Gospell is not a Ceremoniall lawe (as muche of Moses lawe was), but it is a relygion to serue God, not in bondage of the figure or shadowe: but in the freedome of spirite, beeuyng contente onely wyth those ceremonyes whyche dooe serue to a decente ordre and godlye discipline, and suche as bee apte to stirre uppe the dull mynde of manne to the remembraunce of his duetie to God, by some notable and speciall signification, whereby he myght bee edified.

¶ Furthermore, the most weightye cause of the abolishement of certayne Ceremonies was, that they were so farre abused, partly by the superstitious blyndenes of the rude and unlearned, and partelye by the unsaciable auarice of suche as soughe more theyr owne lucre than the glorye of God; that the abuses coulde not well bee taken awaye, the thyng remaynyng styl. But nowe as concernyng those personnes, whiche peraduenture will bee offended for that some of the olde Ceremonies are retayned still: Yf they con syder, that wythoute some Ceremonies it is not possible to kepe anye ordre or quyete dyscyplyne in the churche: they shall easilie perceyue iuste cause to refurme theyr iudgements. And yf they thynke muche that anye of the olde dooe remayne, and woulde rather haue all deuised anewe: then such menne (grauntyng some Ceremonyes conueniente to bee hadde), surelye where the olde maye bee well used: there they cannot reasonabley repreoue the olde (onelye for theyr age) withoute bewraiying of theyr owne folye. For in suche a case they oughte rather to haue reuerence unto them for theyr antyquitye, yf they wyll declare themselves to bee more studious of unitie and concorde, then of innouacions and newefanglenesse, whiche (as muche as maye bee wyth the trewe settynge foorthe of Christes religion) is always to bee eschewed. Furthermore, suche shall haue no iuste cause wyth the Ceremonies reserued, to bee offended: for as those bee taken awaye whiche were moste abused, and dydde burden mennes consciences wythoute any cause: So the other that remaine are retained for a discipline and ordre, which (upon iust causes) may be altered and chaūged, and therfore are not to be esteemed equal with goddes lawe. And moreouer they be neyther darke nor dumme ceremonies, but are so set forth that euery man may understande what they dooe meane, and to what use they do serue. So that it is not like that thei, in time to come, shoulde bee abused as the other haue been. And in these all our dooynge wee condemne no other nacion, nor prescribe anye thyng, but to oure owne people onelye. For we thinke it conueniente that every countreye should use such ceremonies, as thei shal thynke beste to the setting forth of goddes honor, and glorye: and to the reducyng of the people to a moste perfecte and Godly liuing, without error or supersticion: and that they shoulde putte awaye other thynges, which from time to time they perceiue to be most abused, as in mennes ordinaunces it often chaūceth diuerselye in diuerse countreyes.

CERTAYNE NOTES FOR THE MORE PLAYNE EXPLICACION AND DECENT MINISTRACION OF THINGES, CONTEINED IN THYS BOOKE.

In the saying or singing of Matens and Euensong, Baptizing and Burying, the minister, in paryshe churches and chapels annexed to the same, shall use a Surples. And in all Cathedral churches and Colledges, tharchdeacons, Deanes, Prouestes, Masters, Prebendaryes, and fellowes, being Graduates, may use in the quiere, beside theyr Surplesses, such hoodes as pertaineth to their seueral degrees, which they haue taken in any uniuersitie within this realme. But in all other places, every minister shall be at libertie to use any Surples or no. It is also seemely that Graduates, when they dooe preache, shoulde use such hoodes as pertayneth to theyr seuerall degrees.

¶ And whensoeuer the Bishop shall celebrate the holye communion in the churche, or execute any other publique minystracyon, he shall haue upon hym, besyde his rochette, a Surples or albe, and a cope or vestment, and also his pastorall staffe in his hande, or elles borne or holden by his chapeleyne.

¶ As touching kneeling, crossing, holding up of handes, knocking upon the brest, and other gestures: they may be used or left, as every mans deuocion serueth without blame.

¶ Also upon Christmas day, Ester day, the Ascension daye, whit-Soonday, and the feaste of the Trinitie, may bee used anye parte of holye scripture hereafter to be certaynly limited and ap-ponyted, in the stede of the Letany.

¶ If there bee a sermone, or for other greate cause, the Curate by his discretion may leaue out the Letanye, Gloria in excelsis, the Crede, thomely, and the exhortacion to the communion.

THE PREFACE.

IT is euident unto all men, diligently readinge holye scripture, and auncient aucthours, that frō the Apostles tyme, there hathe bene thesē orders of Ministers in Christes church, Bisshopes, Priestes, and Deacons, which Offices were euermore had in suche reuerent estimacion, that no mā by his own priuate auctoritie, might presume to execute any of them, except he were first called, tried, examined, and knownen, to haue suche qualities, as were requisite for the same. And also by publique prayer, with imposition of handes, approued, and admitted thereunto. And therfore to the entent these orders shoulde bee continued, and reuerentlie used, and estemed in this Church of England, it is requisite, that no man (not beyng at thys presente Bisshop, Priest, nor Deacon) shall execute anye of them, excepte he be called, tryed, examined, and admitted, accordynge to the forme hereafter folowinge. And none shalbe admitted a Deacon, except he be xxi yeres of age at the least. And euery man, which is to be admitted a Priest, shalbe full xxiiii yeres olde. And euery man, which is to be consecrated a Bishop, shalbe fully thyrtie yeres of age. And the Bisshop knowinge, eyther by hymself, or by sufficient testimonye, any person to be a man of vertuous conuersacion, and wythoute cryme, and after examinacion and triall, fyndyng hym learned in the Latyne tongue, and suffcientlye instructed in holye Scripture, maye upon a Sondaye or Holyday, in the face of the church, admitte hym a Deacon in suche maner and fourme, as hereafter foloweth.

ORDERINGE OF DEACONS.

¶ Fyrst, when the daye appoynted by the Bisshoppe is come, there shalbe an exhortaciō, declaring the duetie and office, of suche as come to be admitted Ministers, howe necessarie suche Orders are in the Churche of Christe, and also howe the people oughte to esteme them in theyr vocation.

¶ After the exhortacion ended, the Archedeacon, or his deputie, shal present such as come to be admitted to the Bisshop every one of them, that are presented, hauing upon hym a playne Albe; and the Archedeacon or his deputie shal saye these wordes.

REUERENDE Father in GOD, I presente unto you, these personnes presente, to bee admitted Deacons.

¶ The Bisshoppe. Take hede that the personnes whom ye presente unto us, be apte and mete, for theyr learninge and godlye conuersacion, to exercyse theyr ministerye duely, to the honoure of God, and edifyinge of hys Church.

The Archedeacon shall aunsweare.

I haue enquyred of them, and also examined them, and thynke them so to be.

¶ And then the Bisshop shal saye unto the people.

BRETHREN, yf there bee anye of you, who knoweth anye impediment, or notable crime, in any of these personnes presented to bee ordered Deacons, for the whych he oughte not to bee admitted to the same, lette hym come foorth in the name of God, and shēwe what the cryme, or impediment is.

¶ And yf any great cryme, or impediment be objected, the Bisshoppe shal surcease, from ordering that person, untyl suche tyme as the partie accused, shal trye himself clere of that cryme.

Then the Bisshop, commanding suche as shalbe found mete to be ordered to the prayers of the congregacion, wyth the Clerkes, and people present, shall saye or synge the Letany as foloweth wyth the prayers.

The Letanie and Suffrages.

O GOD the father of heauen ; haue mercye upon us myserable synners.

O God the father of heauen : haue mercie upon us miserable synners.

O God the sonne, redemer of the world : haue mercye upon us myserable synners.

O God the Sonne, redemer of the world : haue mercy upon us miserable synners.

O God the holy Ghost, proceding from the father and the sonne : haue mercye upon us myserable synners.

O God the holy gost, proceeding from the Father and the sonne : haue mercy upon us miserable synners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, thre persons and one God : haue mercie upon us miserabla synners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, thre persons and one God : haue mercie upon us miserable synners.

Remembre not Lorde our offences, nor the offences of oure forefathers, neyther take thou vengeance of oure synnes : spare us good Lorde, spare thy people, whō thou hast redemed with thy most precious bloud, and be not angry wyth us for euer.

Spare us good Lorde.

From all euyll and mischiefe, from synne, from the craftes and assaultes of the deuyll, from thy wrath, and from euerlastynge damnacion.

Good Lorde deliuer us.

Frō al blyndnes of hearte, from pryde, vayneglory, and hypocrisie, from enuie, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitablenes.

Good lord, deliuer us.

From fornicacion, and all other deadlye synne, and from all the deceyptes of the worlde, the fleshe, and the deuyll.

Good lord, deliuer us.

From lighteninges and tempestes, from plague, pestilence, and famine, from battayle and murther, and from sodeyne death.

Good lord, deliuer us.

From all sedicion and pryue conspiracie, from the tyrannye of the Bysshōp of Rome, and al hys detestable enormities, from al false doctryne and heresy, from hardnes of hearte, and contempte of thy worde and commaundement.

Good lord, deliuer us.

By the misterye of thy holy incarnacion, by thy holy natiuitie and circumcisio, by thy baptismē, fastynge, and temptacion.

Good lord, deliuer us.

By thyne agonye and bloudie sweate, by thy crosse, and passion, by thy precious death and buriall, by thy glorious resurrection and ascension, and by the cominge of the holy Ghost.

Good lord, deliuer us.

In al time of our tribulaciō, in al tyme of our welth, in the houre of death, and in the daye of iudgement.

Good Lorde delyuer us,

We synners doe beseche thee to heare us (O Lorde God), and that it may please thee to rule and gourne thy holy Church uniuersally, in the ryghte waye.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to kepe EDWARD the sixth thy seruaunt, our Kynge and gournour.

We beseche thee to heare us good lord.

That it may please thee, to rule his heart in thy fayth feare and loue, that he may alwayes haue affiaunce in thee, and euer seke thy honour and glory.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to be his defendour and keper, geuyng hym the victorie ouer all his enemies.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lord.

That it may please thee, to illuminate al Bisshops, Pastours, and Ministers of the Churche, wyth true knowledge, and understanding of thy worde, and that both by theyr preachynge and lyuing, they may sette it forth and shewe it accordingly.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to blesse these men, and send thy grace upon them, that they maye duelye execute the offyce nowe to bee commytted unto them, to the edifyinge of thy Churche, and to thy honoure, prayse, and glorye.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee to endue the Lordes of the Counsayle and al the nobilitie wyth grace, wysdome, and understanding.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lord.

That it may please thee, to blesse and kepe the Magistrates, geuing them grace to execute Justice, and to maynteyne trueth.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to blesse and kepe al thy people.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to geue to al nacions, unitie, peace, and concorde.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee to geue us an heart, to loue and dreade thee, and dyligently to lyue after thy commaundementes.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it maye please thee to geue all thy people encrease of grace, to heare mekely thy woerde, and to receyue it wyth pure affection, and to bryngre foorth the fruytes of the spirite.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it maye please thee, to bringe into the waye of trueth, al suche as haue erred, and are deceyued.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to strengthen suche as doe stande, and to conforte and helpe the weake hearted, and to rayse them up that fall, and finallye to beate downe Sathan under our feete.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to succoure, helpe and conforte, al that be in daunger, necessitie, and tribulacion.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to preserue al that trauayl by lande, or by water, al women labouringe of chylde, al sycke persons and yonge chyldren, and to shewe thy pytie upon al prisoners and captuyes.

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee, to defende and prouide for the father-les chyldren and wyddowes, and all that be desolate and oppressed.

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee, to haue mercie upō al men.

We beseche thee to heare us good lorde.

That it may please thee, to forgueue oure enemyes, persecutours, and slanderers, and to turne theyr heartes.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee, to geue and preserue to our use, the kyndly fruytes of the yearth, so as in due tyme we may enioye them.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

That it may please thee to geue us true repentaunce, to forgueue us all oure synnes, negligences, and ignorauances, and to endue us wyth the grace of thy holye spirite, to amende oure lyues accordinge to thy holye worde.

We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

Sonne of God : we beseche thee to heare us.

Sonne of God : we beseche thee to heare us.

O Lambe of God, that takeste awaye the synnes of the worlde.

Graunt us thy peace.

O Lambe of God, that takest awaye the synnes of the worlde.

Hauē mercie upon us.

O Christe heare us.

O Christ, heare us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Christ haue mercy upon us.

Christ haue mercy upon us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Lorde haue mercy upon us.

Our father which art in heauen, etc.

And leade us not into temptation.

But deliuer us from euill.

The Versicle. O lorde deale not with us after our sinnes.

The aunsware. Neither reward us after our iniquities.

Let us pray.

O GOD mercyfull father, that despyste not the sighinge of a contryte hearte, nor the desyre of suche as be sorrowfull, mercyfullly assiste oure prayers that we make before thee, in all oure troubles and aduersities, whensoeuer they oppresse us: and graciously heare us, that those euyls, which the craft and subteltie of the deyyl, or man worketh agaynst us, be brought to naught, and by the prouidence of thy goodnes, they may be dispersed, that we thy seruautes, beyng herte by no persecutiōs, may euermore geue thankes unto thee, in thy holy Church, through Jesu Christ oure Lorde.

O Lord aryse, help us, and delyuer us, for thy names sake.

O GOD, we haue heard with our eares, and oure fathers haue declared unto us, the noble workes, that thou dyddeste in their dayes, and in the olde tyme before them.

O Lord aryse, help us, and delyuer us, for thyne honour.

Glorye be to the father, the sonne, and to the holy ghost. As it was in the begynning, is now, and euer shal be, world without ende. Amen.

From our enemies defende us, O Christ.

Graciously loke upon our afflictions.

Pitifully beholde the sorowes of our heart.

Mercifullly forgeue the synnes of thy people.

Fauourably with mercy heare our prayers.

O sonne of Dauid haue mercy upon us.

Both nowe and euer vouchesafe to heare us, O Christ.

Graciously heare us, O Christe, Graciously heare us,

O Lord Christe.

¶ The Versicle. O Lorde let thy mercy be shewed upon us.

The Aunsware. As we do put our trust in thee.

¶ Let us praye.

WE humbly beseche thee, O father, mercyfull to looke upon oure infirmities, and for the glory of thy names sake, tourne from us all those euylles, that we moste ryghteouslye haue deserued: And graunte that in all oure troubles, we maye put oure whole trust, and confydence in thy mercye, and euermore serue thee, in holynes and purenesse of lyuinge, to thy honour and glorye, through our onely mediatour and aduocate Jesus Christ our lord. Amen.

ALMYGHTIE God, which hast geuen us grace at this tyme with one accord, to make our cōmon supplicacions unto the, and doest promise that when two, or three be gathered in thy name, thou wilt graunt their requestes, fulfull nowe, O Lorde, the desyres and peticions of thy seruautes, as may be moste expediente for them, grauntyng us in thys worlde, knowledge of thy trueth, and in the worlde to come lyfe euerlastynge. Amen.

Then shalbe sayde also thys that foloweth.

ALMYGHTIE God, whiche by thy deuyne prouidence, haste appoynted dyuerse Orders of ministers in the Churche : and dyddeste enspyre thyne holy Apostles to chose unto this Ordre of Deacons, the fyrste Martyr saint Stephyn, wyth other : mercyfullly beholde these thy seruautes, now called to the lyke office and administraciō ; replenishe them so wyth the trueth of thy doctryne, and innocence of lyfe, that, both by worde and good example, they may faithfully serue thee in this office, to the glory of thy name, and profyte of the congregacion, through the merites of our sauour Jesu Christ, who lyueth and reygneth wyth thee, and the holy Ghost, nowe and euer. Amen.

Then shal be songe or sayd, the Communion of the daye, sauyn g the Epistle shalbe read out of Timothe, as foloweth.

LIKEWYSE muste the ministers be honest, not double-tongued, not geuen unto muche wyne, neyther gredy of fylthy lucre, but holding the mistery of the fayth, wyth a pure conscience. And let them first be proued, and the let them minister, so that no man be able to reprove them. Euen so must theyr wiues be honest, not euyll speakers, but sobre and faythfull in all thinges. Lette the Deacons bee the husbandes of one wyfe, and suche as rule theyr chyldren well, and theyr owne housholdes. For they that minister well, geat themselues a good degré, and a greate lybertie in the fayth, whych is in Christ Jesu.

These thinges wryte I unto thee trusting to come shortlye unto thee ; but and yf I tarye longe, that then thou mayst yet haue knowledge, howe thou oughteste to behaue thyselfe, in the house of God, whiche is the congregacion of the lyuinge God, the pyller and grounde of trueth. And without doubt, greate is that misterie of Godlynesse. God was shewed in the fleshe, was iustifyed in the spirite, was sene amoung the Angels, was preached unto the Gentyles, was beleued on in the worlde, and receyued up in glory.

Or els thys out of the sixth of the Actes.

THEN the twelue called the multitude of the disciples together, and sayde : it is not mete that we shoulde leaue the worde of God, and serue tables. Wherefore brethren, looke ye oute amonge you, seuen men of honest report and full of the holy goste and wysdome, to whome we maye committe thys busynesse : but we wyll geue oureselues continually to prayer, and to the administraciō of the word. And that saying pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Stephin, a man ful of fayth, and ful of the holy ghoste, and Philip, and Procorus, and Nichanor, and Tymon, and Permenas, and Nicholas a conuert of Antioche. These they set before the Apostles : and whē they had prayed, they layed theyr handes on them. And the worde of God increased, and the nombre of the Disciples multiplied in Jerusalē greatly, and a great companie of the Priestes, were obedient unto the fayth.

¶ And before the Gospel, the Bisshop sitting in a Chaire, shal cause the Othe of the Kynge's supremacie, and against the usurped power and auctoritie of the Bishop of Rome, to be ministred unto every of them that are to be Ordred.

¶ The Othe of the Kynges Supremacie.

I FRō henceforth shal utterly renouēce, refuse, relinquishe and forsake the Bysshōp of Rome, and hys auctoritie, power, and iurisdiction. And I shal neuer consent nor agree, that the Bysshōp of Rome shall practyse, exercyse, or haue any maner of auctoritie, Jurisdiction, or Power wythin thys Realme, or anye other the Kynges dominions, but shall resyste the same at all tymes, to the uttermoste of my power. And I from henceforth wyll accepte, repute, and take the Kynges Maiestie, to be the onelye Supreme head in earth, of the Church of Englande: And to my connynge, wytte, and uttermoste of my power, wythoute guyle, fraude, or other undue meane, I wyll obserue, kepe, maynteyne and defende, the whole effectes and contentes, of al, and synguler actes and Statutes made, and to be made wythin thys realme in derogacion, extirpcion, and extinguishmēt of the Bisshop of Rome and his auctoritie, and al other Actes and Statutes, made or to be made, in confirmacion and corroboracion of the Kynges power, of the supreme head in earth, of the Church of Englande: and this I wyll do agaynst all maner of persones, of what estate, dignitie or degree, or condicion they be, and in no wise do nor attempt, nor to my power, suffre to be done or attempted, directely or indirectly, any thing or thinges, priuely or appertelye, to the let, hinderaunce, dammage, or derogacion thereof, or any part thereof, by any maner of meanes, or for any maner of pretence. And in case any othe bee made, or hath been made by me, to any person or persones, in mayntenaunce, defence, or fauoure of the Bisshoppe of Rome, or hys auctoritie, iurisdiction, or power, I repute the same, as vayne and adnichilate: so help me God, through Jesus Christ.

Then shall the Bisshop examine euery one of them that are to be ordered, in the presence of the people, after thys maner folowyng.

Do you trust that you are inwardely moued by the holy Ghoste, to take upon you thys offyce and ministracion, to serue God, for the promotinge of hys glorye, and the edyfyinge of hys people?

Aunswere. I truste so.

The Bisshop. Do ye thinke, that ye truely be called accordeinge to the wyll of our Lord Jesus Christe, and the due ordre of thys realme to the ministery of the Church?

Aunswere. I thinke so.

The Bisshop. Doe ye unfeynedly beleue all the Canonicall scriptures, of the olde and newe Testament?

Aunswere. I doe beleue.

The Bisshoppe. Will you diligētly reade the same unto the people assembled in the Churche, where you shalbe appoynted to serue?

Aunswere. I wyll.

The Bisshoppe. It perteyneth to the office of a Deacō in the Churche where he shalbe appoynted to assiste the Prieste in deuine seruice, and speciallye when he ministreth the holye Communion, and to helpe him in distribuciō thereof, and to reade holye scriptures and Homelies in the congregacion, and to instructe the youth in the Cathechisme, to Baptise and to preache yf he be admitted thereto by the Bisshop. And furthermore, it is his office where prouision is so made to searche for the sicke, poore, and impotente people of the parishe, and to intimate theyr estates, names, and places where thei dwel to the Curate, that by his exhortacion they maye bee relieued by the parishe or other conueniēt almose: wil you do this gladly and wyllingly?

Aunswere. I wyll so do by the helpe of God.

The Bisshoppe. Will you applye all youre diligence to frame and fasshion youre owne lyues, and the liues of all your familie according to the doctrine of Christ, and to make bothe yourselves and them as muche as in you lieth, wholesome examples of the flocke of Christ?

Aunswere. I wyll so do, the Lorde beyng my helper.

The Bisshoppe. Will you reuerently obeye your ordinary and other chiefe Ministers of the Church, and them to whō the gourerneamente and charge is committed ouer you, folowyng wyth a gladde mynde and wyll theyr godly admonicions?

Aunswere. I wyl thus endeuer myself, the lord beyng my helper.

¶ Then the Bishop layinge his handes seuerally upon the head of every of them, shall saye.

Take thou auctoritie to execute the office of a Deacon in the Church of God committed unto thee: in the name of the father, the sonne, and the holy ghost. Amen.

Testamente, sayinge.*

Take thou auctoritie to reade the Gospell in the Church of God, and to preache the same; yf thou bee thereunto ordinarely commaunded.

Then one of them appoynted by the Bisshop, shal reade the Gospel of that daye.

Then shal the Bisshop procede to the Communion, and al that be ordered, shal tarye and receyue the holy Communion the same daye wyth the Bisshop.

The Communion ended, after the laste Collecte and immediatly before the benedictiō, shalbe sayd this Collecte folowynge.

ALMYGHTIE God, geuer of al good thinges, which of thy great goodnes hast vouchsafed to accepte and take these thy seruauntes unto the office of Deacons in thy church: make the we beseche thee, O Lorde, to bee modest, hüble, and constant in their ministracion, to haue a ready wyl to obserue al spiritual discipline, that they hauinge alwayes the testimonie of a good conscience, and continuing euer stable and strong in thy sonne Christ, may so wel use themselues in thys inferior offyce, that they may be found worthy to be called unto the higher ministeries in thy Church: through the same thy sonne our Sauiour Christ, to whom be glorye and honoure, worlde wythout ende. Amen.

¶ And here it must be shewed unto the Deacon that he must continue in that office of a Deacō, the space of a whole yeare at the least (excepte for reasonable causes, it bee otherwyse seen to his ordenarie) to thentent he may be perfecte, and wel expert in the thinges apperteyning to the Ecclesiasticall administraciō, in executing whereof, yf he be found faithful and diligent, he may be admitted by his Diocesan to the ordre of Priesthode.

THE FOURME
ORDERING PRIESTES.

Whē the exhortacion is ended, then shall be song, for the introyte to the Communiō, this psalme—Expectans expectavi Dominum, Psal. xl. Or els this psalme—Memento Domine David, Psalm xxxii. Or els this Psalme—Laudate nomen Domini, Psalm cxxxv.

Then shalbe read for the Epistle this out of the twentieth Chapter of the Actes of the Apostles.

FROM Mileto Paule sent messengers to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the congregacion ; which when they were come to him, he sayde unto the. Ye know, that from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue been wyth you at al seasons, seruyng the Lord wyth al humblenes of mynde, and wyth many teares and temptacions which happened unto me by the layinges awynte of the Jewes, because I would kepe backe nothinge that was profitable unto you, but to shewe you and teache you openly throughout every house : witnessing bothe to the Jewes, and also to the Grekes, the repentaunce that is towarde God, and the fayth whiche is towarde oure Lorde Jesus. And now behold, I goe bound in the sprynte unto Jerusalem, not knowing the thinges that shall come on me there ; but that the holy ghost witnesseth in euery citie, saying that bandes and trouble abyde me. But none of these thynges moue me, nether is my lyfe deare unto myselfe, that I might fulfull my course with ioye and the ministracion of the worde whiche I haue receyued of the Lord Jesu to testifie the Gospell of the grace of God. And now behold, I am sure that henceforth ye al (through whom I haue gone preaching the kingdom of God) shall see my face no more. Wherfore I take you to recorde thys daye, that I am pure frō the bloud of all men. For I haue spared no labor, but haue shewed you all the counsayle of God. Take hede therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flocke amoung whom the holy ghost hath made you ouerseers to rule the cōgregacion of God, whiche he hathe purchased wyth hys bloud. For I am sure of this, that after my departing, shal greuous wolues entre in among you, not sparing the flocke. Moreouer, of your owne selues shall men aryse, speaking peruerse thinges, to drawe disciples after them. Therefore awake, and remembre that by the space of three yeares I ceassed not to warne euery one of you nyght and daye, wyth teares.

And now brethren, I commende you to God and to the woerde of his grace, whiche is able to buylde further, and to gyue you an inheritaunce among al them which are sanctified. I haue desyred no mans syluer, golde or vesture. Yea, you knbowe youreselues, that these handes haue ministred unto my necessities, and to them that were wyth me. I haue shewed you all thynges, howe that so labouring ye oughte to receyue the weake, and to remembre the wordes of the Lorde Jesu, howe that he sayd ; it is more blessed to geue than to receyue.

Or els thys thyrde Chapter, of the fyrist Epistole to Timothe.

THVS is a true sayinge ; yf any man desyre the offyce of a Bisshoppe, he desyreth an honeste worke. A Bisshop therfore must be blamelesse, the husbād of one wyfe, vigilant, sobre, discrete, a keper of hospitalitie, apte to teache, not geue to ouermuch wyne, no fyghter, not gredye of filthie lucre ; but gentle, abhorring fyghting, abhorringe couetousnes ; one that ruleth wel his owne house, one that hath children in subiection with al reuerence. For yf a man cannot rule hys owne house, how shall he care for the congregacion of God ? He may not be a yong scholer, leste he swell, and fall into the Judgement of the euyll speaker. He must also haue a good reporte of them whiche are without ; leste he fall into rebuke, and snare of the euyll speaker.

Likewise must the Ministers be honest, not double-tongued, not geuen unto muche wyne, nether gredye of filthie lucre ; But holding the mistery of the fayth, with a pure consciēce ; and let them first be proued, and then let them minister so that no man be able to reprove them.

Euē so must their wyues be honest, not euil-speakers ; but sobre and faithful in al thinges. Let the Deacons be the husbandes of one wyfe, and such as rule their chyldren wel, and theyr owne housholdes, For they that minister wel geat themselues a good degré, and great libertie in the fayth which is in Christe Jesu.

These things wryte I unto thee, trusting to come shortly unto thee ; but and yf I tary longe, that then thou mayst haue yet knowledge, howe thou oughtest to behaue thy self in the house of God, which is the cōgregacion of the liunge God, the Piller and ground of trueth. And without doubt, greate is that misterie of Godlynes : God was shewed in the flesh, was Justified in the spirite, was seen among the Angelles, was Preached unto the Gentyles, was beleued on in the worlde, and receyued up in glory.

After thys shalbe read for the Gospell a pece of the laste Chapter of Mathew, as foloweth.

JESUS came and spake unto them, saying : All power is geuen unto me in heauen and in earth. Goe ye therefore and teache all nacionis, baptising them in the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Teachyng them to obserue all thinges, whatsoeuer I haue commaunded you. And loe, I am with you alway, euen until the end of the worlde.

Or els this that foloweth, of the tenth Chapter of John.

VERELY, verely, I saye unto you ; He that entreth not in by the dore into the sheepe folde, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thefe and a murtherer. But he that entereth in by the doore, is the shepheheard of the shepe, to hym the Porter openeth, and the Shepe heareth hys voyce, and he calleth hys owne shepe by name, and leadeth them out. And when he hath sente forth his owne shepe, he goeth before them, and the shepe folowe hym, for they knowe his voyce. A straunger wyll they not folow, but wyll flee from hym, for they knowe not the voyce of straungers. Thys Proverbe spake Jesus unto them, but they understoode not what thynges they were, whyche he spake unto them. Then sayde Jesus unto them agayne : verely, verely, I saye unto you, I am the doore of the shepe. All (euen as manye as come before me) are theues and murtherers : but the shepe dyd not heare them. I am the doore, by me yf any man entre in, he shall be safe, and goe in and out, and fynde pasture. A thefe cometh not but for to steale, kyll and to destroye. I am come that they myght haue lyfe, and that they myghte haue it more aboundingly. I am the good shepheheard : a good shephearde geueth his lyfe for the shepe. An hired seruaunt, and he whiche is not the shepheheard (neyther the shepe are hys owne) seeth the wolfe comming, and leaueth the shepe and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth and scattereth the shepe. The hyred seruaunt fleeth, because he is an hyred seruaunte, and careth not for the shepe. I am the good shephepherd and knowe my shepe, and am knownen of myne. As my father knoweth me, euen so know I also my father. And I geue my lyfe for the shepe, and other shepe I haue, which are not of this folde. Them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce, and there shall be one folde and one shephearde.

Or els thys, of the xx. Chapter of John.

THE same daye at night, which was the fyrst daye of the Sabbothes, when the doores were shuſte (where the Disciples were assembled together, for feare of the Jewes) came Jesus and stode in the middes, and sayde unto them ; peace be unto you. And whē he had so sayd, he shewed unto them hys handes and his syde. Then were the disciples glad, when they sawe the Lord. Then sayd Jesus unto them agayne, peace bee unto you. As my father sent me, euen so send I you also. And when he had sayd those wordes, he breathed on them and said unto them, receyue ye the holy ghost : whosoevers synnes ye remytte, they are remytted unto them : and whosoevers synnes ye retayne, they are retayned.

When the Gospel is ended, then shalbe sayd or songe.

COME holy ghost eternall God procedinge from aboue,
Both from the father and the sonne, the God of peace and loue :
Vysyte oure myndes, and into us, thy heauenly grace inspyre ;
That in all trueth and godlynesse, we maye haue true desyre.
Thou art the very comforter, in al wo and distresse :
The heauenly gyfste of God moste highe, whych no tongue can expresse.

The foūtayne and the liuely springe, of ioye celestiall :
The fyre so brighte, the loue so clere, and Unction spirituall.
Thou in thy gyftes arte manifolde, whereby Christes Churche doeth stande :

In faythfull heartes wrytinge thy lawe, the fynger of Goddes hande.
According to thy promes made, thou geuest speache of grace ;
That throughe thy helpe, the prayse of God, may sounde in euyer place.

O holy ghoste, into oure wittes, sende downe thyne heauenly lyght ; Kyndle our heartes wyth feruent loue, to serue God daye and nyght.

Strength and stablishe all oure weakenes, so feble and so frayle
That neyther fleshe, the worlde, nor deuyl, agaynste us do pre-uyale.

Put backe oure enemie farre from us, and graunte us to obtayne :
Peace in our heartes with God and man, withoute grudge or disdayne.

And graunt O Lorde that thou beyng, oure leader and oure guyde ;
We may eschewe the snares of synne, and from thee never slyde.
To us such plentie of thy grace, good Lord graunt we thee praye :
That thou mayest bee oure comforter, at the laste dreadfull daye.
Of all stryfe and dissencion, O Lorde, dissolute the bandes
And make the knottes of peace and loue, throughoute all Christien landes.

Graunte us O Lorde, throughe thee to knowe the father most of myght ;

That of hys deare beloued sonne we may attayne the syght.
And that wyth perfect fayth also, we may acknowledge thee ;
The Spirite of them both alwaye, one God in persones three.
Laude and prayse be to the father, and to the sonne equall :
And to the holy spyrte also, one God coeternall.
And praye we that the onely sonne, vouchesafe hys spyrte to sende ;

To all that do professe hys name, unto the worldes ende. Amen.

And then the Archedeacon shall present unto the Bisshop, all them that shall receyue the order of Priesthode that daye, euyer of them hauing upon hym a playne Albe—The Archedeacon sayinge.

REUERENDE Father in GOD, I presente unto you, these persones presente, to bee admitted to the ordre of Priesthode, Cum interrogatione et responsione, ut in ordine Diaconatus.

And then the Bisshop shal saye to the people.

GOOD people, these bee they whome we purpose God wyllyng, to receyue this daye, unto the holye offyce of Priesthode. For after due examinacion, we fynd not the contrary but that they be lawfully called to theyr functiō and ministery, and that they be personnes mete for the same: but yet, yf there be any of you whyche knoweth any impediment, or notable cryme in any of the, for the whyche he oughte not to bee receyued into this holy ministerie, nowe in the name of God declare the same.

¶ And yf any great cryme or impediment be obiectet, &c. Ut supra in Ordine Diaconatus usque ad finem Litanie cum hac Collecta.

ALMYGHTIE GOD, geuer of all good thinges, which by thy holy spirit hast appoynted dyuerse orders of Ministers in thy church, mercifully behold these thy seruātes, now called to the Office of Priesthode, and replenish the so wyth the truelth of thy doctryne, and innocencie of lyfe, that both by worde and good example, they may faythfully serue thee in thyss office, to the glorye of thy name, and profyte of the congregacion, through the merites of oure sauour Jesu Christ, who lyueth and reygneth, wyth thee and the holy Ghoste, worlde wythout ende. Amen.

¶ Then the Bisshop shal minister unto every of them the othe, concerning the Kinges Supremacie, as it is set oute in the ordre of Deacons. And that done, he shall saye unto them, which are appoynted to receyue the sayde Office, as hereafter foloweth.

YOU haue hearde brethren, as well in youre priuate examination, as in the exhortaciō, and in the holy lessons taken out of the Gospel, and of the wringes of the Apostles, of what dignitie, and of how great importaunce thys offyce is, (whereunto ye be called). And nowe we exhorte you, in the name of oure LORDE Jesus Christe, to haue in remembraunce, into howe hyghe a dignitie, and to howe chargeable an offyce ye bee called, that is to saye, to be the messengers, the watchemen, the Pastours, and the stewardes of the LORDE to teache to premonishe, to feede, and prouyde for the Lordes famlye: to seeke for Christes shepe that be dispersed abrode, and for hys children whiche bee in the myddest of thys naughtye worlde, to be sauued through Christe for euer. Haue always therfore printed in your remembraunce, howe great a treasure is committed to your charge, for they be the shepe of Chryste, whiche he boughte with hys death, and for whom he shed his bloud. The churche and congregacion whom you must serue, is his spouse and his body. And if it shall chaunce the same churche, or any membre therof, to take any hurt or hinderaunce, by reason of youre negligence, ye knowe the greatnessse of the faulte, and also of the horrible punishment which will ensue. Wherfore, consider with yourselves the end of your ministery, towarde the chyldren of God, towarde the spouse and body of Christ, and see that ye never cease your laboure, your care and dilygence, untill you haue doen all that lieth in you, accordynge to your bounden dutie, to bryng all suche as are, or shalbe commytted to youre charge, unto that agremente in faith, and knowledge of God, and to that ripenes, and perfectnesse of age in Christe, that there be no place left emong them, either for error in Religion, or for viciousnesse in lyfe.

Then, forasmuche as your office is both of so greate excellencye, and of so great difficultie, ye se with howe greate care and study ye oughte to apply yourselues, as well that you maye shewe yourselues kinde to that Lorde, who hath placed you in so high a dignitie, as also to beware, that neyther you yourselues offend, neither be occasion that other offend. Howbeit, ye cannot haue a mynde and a wyll thereto of yourselues, for that power and abilitie is geuen of God alone. Therfore ye se how ye oughte and haue nede, earnestly to praye for hys holy spirit. And seyng that ye cannot by any other meanes compasse the doyng of so weightie a woorke perteining to the saluacion of man, but with doctrine and exhortacion, taken out of holy scripture and with a life agreeable unto the same. Ye perceyue how studyous ye oughte to be in readyng and learnyng the holy scriptures, and in framyng the maners, both of yourselues, and of them that specially partein unto you, accordyng to the rule of the same scriptures. And for this selfesame cause, ye see how you oughte to forsake and set aside (as much as you maye) all worldly cares and studyes.

We haue a good hope, that you haue well weighed and pondred these thynges with yourselues, long before thys tyme, and that you haue clerely determyned, by goddes grace, to geue yourselves wholy to this vocacyon, wherunto it hath pleased God to call you, so that (as muche as lieth in you) you apply yourselues wholy to this one thing, and drawe al your cares and studies this way, and to thys ende. And that you wyll continually praye for the heauenly assistaunce of the holy goste, from God the father, by the mediacion of our only mediatour and sauiour Jesus Chryste, that by dayly readyng and weighing of the scriptures, ye may waxe riper and stronger in your ministerie. And that ye may so endeouour yourselves from time to time to sanctifie the liues of you and yours, and to fashion them after the rule and doctrine of Christ. And that ye maye be wholesome and godly examples and paternes, for the reste of the congregacyon to folowe. And that this present congregaciō of Christ here assembled, may also understande youre myndes and wylles, in these thynges: And that this your promes, shall more moue you to doe your dueties, ye shal answer plainly to these thinges, whiche we in the name of the congregacyon shal demaunde of you, touchyng the same.

Doe you thynke in your heart, that you be truly called accord-yng to the will of our Lorde Jesus Chryste, and the ordre of this Churche of Englande, to the ministerie of Priesthode?

Aunswere. I thinke it.

The Bishoppe. Be you perswaded that the holy Scriptures cōtein suffisently al doctrine required of necessitie for eternal saluacion, throughte faith in Jesu Christe? And are you determined with the saied scriptures, to enstrucute the people cōmitted to your charge, and to teache nothyng, as required of necessitie, to eternal saluacion, but that you shalbe perswaded may be concluded, and proued by the scripture?

Aunswere. I am so perswaded, and haue so determyned by Gods grace.

The Bishoppe. Will you then geue your faythfull dylgencie alwayes, so to mynister the doctryne and Sacramentes, and the discipline of Christ, as the lord hath commaunded, and as thys realme hath receiued the same, accordyng to the commaundementes of God, so that you may teache the people committed to youre cure and charge, with al diligence to kepe and obserue the same?

Aunswere. I wil so doe, by the helpe of the Lord.

The Bishoppe. Wil you be ready with al faithful diligence, to banishe and drive away al erronius and straunge doctrines, contrarie to gods worde, and to use both publyke and priuate moncyons and exhortacyons, as well to the sicke as to the whole, within youre cures, as nede shall require and occasion be geuen?

Aunswere. I wyll, the Lorde beyng my helper.

The Bishoppe. Wil you be diligent in praiers, and in reading of the holy scriptures, and in such studies as help to the knowledge of the same, laying aside the study of the world and the fleshe?

Aunswere. I wyll endeuour myself so to doe, the Lord beyng my helper.

The Bishoppe. Wil you be diligent to frame and fashion youre own selues, and your families, according to the doctrine of Christe, and to make bothe youreselues and them (as muche as in you lieth) wholsome examples and spectacles to the flocke of Chryst?

Aunswere. I wyll so apply myselfe, the lorde beyng my helper.

The Bishoppe. Wil you mainteine and set forwardes (as much as lieth in you) quietnes, peace, and loue emonges al christian people, and specially emong them that are, or shalbe committed to your charge?

Aunswere. I will so do, the Lorde being my helper.

The Bishoppe. Will you reuerentlye obeye your Ordinarie, and other chiefe ministers, unto whom the gouernement and charge is commytted ouer you, folowing with a glad mynde and will, their godly admonicion, and submytting youreselues to theyr godlye iudgementes?

Aunswere. I wyll so doe, the Lorde beyng my helper.

¶ Then shal the Bisshoppe saye.

ALMIGHTIE god, who hath geuen you this wyl to doe al these thynges, graunt also unto you strength and power to performe the same, that he may accomplishe his worke which he hath begon in you, until the tyme he shal come at the latter day, to iudge the quicke and the dead.

¶ After this, the congregacioō shalbe desired, secretly in their praiers, to make humble supplicacions to God for the foresaied thinges; for the whiche praiers, there shalbe a certaine space kept in silence.

That doen, the Bisshoppe shall praye in this wyse.

THE Lorde be with you.
Aunswere. And with thy spirite.

¶ Let us praye.

ALMIGHTIE god and heauenly father, which of thy infinite loue and goodnes towardes us, hast geuen to us thy onely and moste deare beloued sonne Jesus Christe, to be our redeemer and aucthour of euerlasting life: who after he had made perfecte our redempcion by hys death, and was ascended into heauen, sent abrode into the worlde hys Apostles, Prophetes, Euangelistes, Doctours and Pastours, by whose labour and ministerie, he gathered together a greate flocke in al the partes of the worlde, to set furth the eternal praise of thy holy name. For these so greate benefites of thy eternal goodnes, and for that thou hast vouchsafed to cal these thy seruautes here present, to the same office and ministerie of the salucion of mankynde; we render unto thee moste hartie thankes, we worship and praise thee, and we humbly beseche thee by the same thy sonne, to graunt unto al us which either here, or elsewhere cal upon thy name, that we maye shewe ourselues thankefull to thee for these and all other thy benefites, and that we maye daily encrease and goe forwardes, in the knowledge and faith of thee, and thy sonne, by the holy spirite. So that as well by these thy ministers, as by them to whom thei shalbe appointed ministers, thy holy name may be alwaies glorified, and thy blessed kyngdom enlarged, through the same thy sonne our Lorde Jesus Christe; which liueth and reigneth with thee, in the unitie of the same holy spirite, world without ende. Amen.

¶ When this praiere is done, the Bisshoppe with the priestes present, shal lay thei r handes severally upon the head of every one that receiueth orders. The receiuers humbly knelyng upon their knees, and the Bisshop saying.

RECEIUE the holy goste, whose synnes thou doest forgeue, they are forgeuen: and whose sinnes thou doest retaine, thei are retained: and be thou a faithful despensor of the word of god, and of his holy Sacramentes. In the name of the father, and of the sonne, and of the holy gost. Amen.

The Bisshop shall deliuer to every one of them, the Bible in the one hande, and the Chalice or cupp ewith the breade, in the other hande, and saying.

TAKE thou auctoritie to preache the word of god, and to minister the holy Sacramentes in thys congregacion, where thou shalt be so appointed.

¶ When thys is doen, the Congregacyon shall syng the Crede, and also they shal goe to the Communion which al they that receiue orders shal take together, and remaine in the same place where the handes were layd upon the, untyl suche time as thei haue receiued the Communion.

¶ The Communion beyng doen, after the last Collecte, and immediatly before the benediccion, shalbe sayed thys Collecte.

MOST mercifull father, we beseche thee so to sende upon these thy seruautes thy heauenly blessing, that they maye be cladde about with all iustice, and that thy worde spoken by theyr mouthes may haue such successe, that it may neuer be spoken in vain. Graunt also that we may haue grace to heare, and receiue the same as thy moste holy worde and the meane of our saluacion, that in all our wordes and dedes we may seke thy glory, and the encrease of thy kingdom, thorow Jesus Christ our lord. Amen.

¶ If the orders of Deacon and Priesthod, be geuen both upon one day, then shal the Psalme for the Introyte and other thinges at the holy Communion, be used as they are appointed at the orderyng of Priestes. Sauing that for the Epistle, the whole thirde Chapiter of the first to Timothe shalbe read, as it is sette out before in the order of Priestes. And immediatly after the Epistle, the Deacons shalbe ordered. And it shall suffice, the Letany to be sayed once.

THE FOURME OF CONSECRATING OF AN
ARCHEBISSHOPPE OR BISSHOPPE.

The Psalme for the Introyle at the Communion, as at the orderyng of Priestes.

The Epistle.

THIS is a true saying, if a man desire the office of a Bisshoppe, he desireth an honest woorke. A Bishoppe therefore muste bee blamelesse, the husbande of one wyfe, diligent, sober, discrete, a keper of hospitalitie, apte to teache, not geuen to ouermuche wyne, no fyghter, not gredy of filthy lucre, but gentle, abhorring fightyng, abhorrynge couetousnesse, one that ruleth wel his own house, one that hath children in subiecccion with al reuerence. For if a man cannot rule his own house, howe shal he aare for the congregacion of God? He may not be a yong scholer, cest he swel and fal into the iudgemente of the euil speaker. He must also haue a good report of them whiche are without, leste he fall into rebuke and snare of the euil speaker.

The Gospell.

JESUS saied to Symon Peter, Symon Johanna, louest thou me more than these? He said unto him, yea, lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee: he said unto him, fede my ^{John xxi.} lambes. He said to him againe the seconde time: Simon Johanna, louest thou me? He saied unto him, yea lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee: he saied unto him, feede my shepe. He said unto him the thirde time; Simō Johanna, louest thou me? Peter was sory, because he said unto hym the third time, louest thou me, and he said unto him: lord thou knowest al thinges, thou knowest that I loue thee. Jesus said unto hym, fede my shepe.

¶ Or els out of the tenth Chapiter of John, as before in thorder of Priestes.

¶ After the gospel and Credo ended, firste the elected Bisshoppe hauyng upon hym a Surples and Cope shall bee presented by two Bisshoppes (beeyng also in surplesses and copes, and hauyng theyr pastorall staves in their handes) unto the Archebisshoppe of that Prouince, or to some other Bysshoppe appoynted by his commission: The Bisshoppes that present hym saying.

MOST reuerend father in god, we presente unto you this godly and wel learned man to be consecrated Bisshoppe.

¶ And then the Kynges mandate to the Archebisshoppe for the consecraciō shalbe read. And the othe touching the knowledging of the kinges supremacie, shalbe ministred to the person elected, as it is set oute in the Order of Deacons. And then shalbe ministred also, the othe of due obedience unto the Archebisshoppe, as foloweth.

¶ THE OTHE OF DUE OBEdience to the Archebisshoppe.

IN the name of GOD, Amen. I, N. chosen Bisshoppe of the Churche and sie of N. doe professe and promesse, al due reuerence and obedience to the Archebisshoppe, and to the Metropolitall churche of N. and to their successors: so helpe me God, and his holy gospell.

¶ Then the Archebisshoppe shal moue the congregacion present to praye; saying thus to them.

BRETHREN, it is written in the gospel of saincte Luke, that our sauioure Christe continued the wholē night in praier, or euer that he did chose and sende furth his xii. Apostles. It is written also in the Actes of the Apostles, that the disciples whiche were at Antioche did fast and pray, or euer they layed handes upon, or sent furth Paul and Barnabas. Let us therefore, folowyng the example of oure sauioure Christ and his Apostles, first fal to prayer, or that we admit and send furth thys person presented unto us, to the worke wherunto we truste the holy goste hath called hym.

¶ And then shalbe saied the Letany, as afore in the order of Deacons, And after this place: That it may please the to illuminate al Bisshoppes. &c. he shal saye.

THAT it maye please thee to blesse this our brother elected, and to sende thy grace upon him, they he may duely execute the office wherunto he is called, to the edifying of thy Churche, and to the honour, prayse and glory of thy name.

Aunswere. We beseche thee to heare us good Lorde.

Concluding the Letanye in thende, with this prayer.

ALMIGHTIE God, geuer of all good thynges, which by thy holy spirite hast appointed diuerse orders of ministers in thy Church: mercifully beholde this thy seruaunt, now called to the worke and ministerie of a Bisshoppe, and replenishe him so with the trueth of thy doctryne, and innocencie of life, that both by worde and dede, he may faithfully serue thee in this office, to the glorye of thy name, and profite of thy congregacyon: Through the merites of our sauioure Jesu Christe, who lyueth and reigneth with thee and the holy gost, worlde without ende. Amen.

Then the Archebisshoppe sittynge in a chaire, shall saye this to hym that is to be consecrated.

BROTHER, forasmuche as holy scripture and the olde Canons commaundeth, that we should not be hastie in laying on handes and admyttyng of any person to the gouvernement of the congregacion of Christe, whiche he hath purchased with no lesse price than the effusion of hys owne bloud; afore that I admit you to this administracion wherunto ye are called, I wil examyne you in certaine articles, to thende the congregacion present, may haue a trial and beare witnes how ye be minded to behaue thyself in the churche of god.

Are you perswaded that you be truely called to thys ministracion according to the will of oure Lorde Jesus Christ, and the order of this realme?

Aunswere. I am so perswaded.

The Archebisshoppe. Are you perswaded that the holy Scriptures conteine sufficiently all doctryne, requyred of necessitie for eternall saluacyon, through the faith in Jesu Christe? And are you determined with the same holy scriptures, to enstruct the people committed to your charge, and to teache or mainteine nothyng, as required of necessitie to eternall saluacion, but that you shall bee perswaded may be concluded, and proued by the same?

Aunswere. I am so perswaded and determined by gods grace.

The Archebisshoppe. Wil you then faithfully exercise thyselfe in the said holy scriptures, and call upon god by prayer for the true understanding of the same, so as ye may be able by them to teache and exhorte with wholesome doctrine, and to withstande and conuince the gainsaiers?

Aunswere. I wyll so doe, by the helpe of God.

The Archebisshoppe. Be you ready with al faithful diligence, to banishe and drie away al erronius and straunge doctryne, contrary to god's worde, and both priuately and openly to call upon, and encourage other to the same?

Aunswere. I am ready, the lord beyng my helper.

The Archebisshoppe. Wil you deny al ungodlinesse and worldly lustes, and liue soberly, ryghteously, and godly in thys world, that you may shewe thyselfe in all thinges an example of good workes unto other, that the aduersary maye be ashamed, hatynge nothing to laye agaynst you?

Aunswere. I wyll so doe, the lorde beyng my helper.

The Archebisshoppe. Wil you maintain and set forward (as muche as shal lie in you) quietnesse, peace, and loue, emonge al men? And suche as be unquiete, disobedyente, and criminous within your Diocesse, correcte and punishe, accordyng to suche auctoritie, as ye haue by gods worde, and as to you shalbe committed, by the ordinaunce of thys realme?

Aunswere. I wyll so doe by the helpe of god.

The Archebisshoppe. Wil you shewe yourself gentle, and be mercifull for Christes sake to poore and nedy people, and to all straungers destitute of helpe?

Aunswere. I wyll so shewe myselfe by gods helpe.

The Archebisshoppe. Almightye God oure heauenly father, who hath geuē you a good wil to doe all these thinges, graūt also unto you, strengthe and power to perforne the same, that he accomplishing in you, the good worke which he hath begon, ye may be found perfecte, and irreprehensible at the latter day, through Jesu Chryst our Lord. Amen.

Then shal be song or sayd, Cum holy gost, &c. as it is set out in the Order of Priestes.

That ended, the Archebisshoppe shall saye.

THE Lord be with you.

Aunswere. And with thy spirite.

¶ Let us praye.

ALMIGHTIE God and moste mercyfull father, which of thy infinite goodnesse haste geuen to us thy only and most dere beloued sonne Jesus Chryst, to be our redemer and aucthour of euerlasting life; who after that he had made perfecte our redempcion by his deathe, and was ascended into heauen, powred downe his gyftes abundauntly upon men, making some Apostles, some Prophetes, some Euangelistes, some Pastours and doctours, to the edifying and makyng perfecte of his congregacion: graunt we beseche the, to this thy seruaūt suche grace, that he may be euermore ready to spreade abrode thy gospell, and glad tidinges of reconcilement to God, and to use the auctoritie geuen unto him, not to destroie, but to saue, not to hurt, but to helpe: so that he as a wise and a faithful seruaunt, geuing to thy family meate in due season, may at the last daye be received into ioye, through Jesu Christ our lorde, who with thee, and the holy goste liueth and reigneth one God, world without ende. Amen.

Then the Archebisshoppe and Bissoppes present, shal lay their handes upon the head of the elect Bissop, the Archebisshoppe saying.

TAKE the holy gost, and remember that thou stirre up the grace of god, whiche is in thee, by imposicion of handes: for god hath not geuen us the spirite of feare, but of power, and loue, and of sobernesse.

Then the Archebisshoppe shal lay the Bible upon hys necke, saying.

GEUE hede unto reading, exhortacion and doctrine. Thinke upon these thinges conteined in this boke, be diligent in them, that the encrease comyng therby, may be manyfest unto all men. Take hede unto thyselfe, and unto teaching, and be diligent in doing them, for by doing this thou shalt sauе thyselfe, and them that heare thee : through Jesus Christe our Lorde.

Then shal the Archebisshoppe putte into his hande the pastorall staffe, saying.

BE to the flocke of Christ a shepheard, not a wolfe : feede them, deuoure them not ; holde up the weake, heale the sicke, binde together the broken, bryng againe the outcastes, seke the lost. Be so mercifull, that you be not to remisse, so minister discipline, that ye forgeat not mercy ; that whē the chief shepheard shal come, ye may receyue the immarcessible croune of glory, through Jesus Christ our lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Archebisshoppe shal procede to the Communion, with whom the newe consecrated Bysshoppes shal also communicate. And after the laste Collecte, immediatlye before the benedicyon, shall bee sayed thy prayer :

MOST merciful father, we beseche thee to send down upon this thy seruaunt, thy heauenly blesсыng, and so endue hym with thy holy spirite, that he preaching thy worde, may not only be earneste to reprove, beseche, and rebuke with al pacience and doctryne, but also may be to such as beleue, an wholesome example in worde, in conuersacion, in loue, in faith, in chastitie, and puritie, that faythfully fulfilling his course, at the latter day he may receiue the croune of righteousnesse, laied up by the Lord, the righteous iudge, who liueth and reigneth, one god with the father and holy gost, worlde withoute ende. Amen.
